

The Weekly Observer. Published on TUESDAY, by DONALD A. CAMERON at his Office, corner of Prince William and Church Streets, over the Store of Mosses, Flowelling & Reading.—TERMS: 15s. per annum, half in advance.

MUTUAL INSURANCE COMPANY. THIS Company is prepared to receive applications for Insurance against FIRE upon Buildings and other Property, at the Office of the subscriber. I. WOODWARD, St. John, Nov. 11, 1840. Secretary.

Figs, Tea, Patent Metal, Oakum. LANDING BY 'LIBERIA'—30 boxes finest Elong Turkey FIGS, 30 chests Congo Tea, Dutchess Lancaster; 70 rods Patent METAL, and 12 tons best quality OAKUM. GEORGE THOMAS, South Market Wharf, April 10.

PERFUMERY. THE Subscriber has just received a fresh supply of Lubin's celebrated PERFUMES, consisting in part of "Jockey Club," "Boquet de Caroline," "Eau de Adelaide," "Patechouly," &c., all of which are warranted genuine.—Also, a small assortment of PERFUME and CONFECTORY BOXES, suitable for Christmas Presents. THOMAS M. REID, Head of North Wharf.

NEW GOODS. Per Steamer 'Niagara' from Liverpool.—A FURTHER supply of BONNETS; Bonnet RIBBONS; Plain and Figured Rich SILKS; SATINETS, SATINS, SARNETTS; Rich Black SILK LACES; Cambric HANDKERCHIEFS; COLLARS and HEMSTITCHES; GLOVES and HOSIERY; SILK TRIMMINGS, Buttons, BUTTONS, TASSELS, &c. &c. W. G. LAWTON.

VICTORIA HOUSE, PRINCE WILLIAM STREET, AND BRITISH HOUSE, KING STREET. Saint John, 8th March, 1853.

First Spring Importations! PER SHIP "MIDDLETON," 5,000 Straw Bonnets! New and Spring Shells! J. DOHERTY & CO.

MORRISON & CO. HAVE now ready for inspection, suited for the season, the LARGEST, MOST VARIED and MOST MAGNIFICENT STOCK of SILKS, SATINS and RIBBONS Ever exhibited in this Province.

MORISON & CO. COFFEE! COFFEE! Per Schooner 'LISNET' from Boston.—66 BAGS Java, Laguira and St. Domingo COFFEE—in bond or Duty paid. JAMES MACFARLANE.

Socket Shovels and Spades. ON HAND—200 dozen Stamped Socket Shovels, 30 dozen long-handled IRON SPADS. Just received—1 cask Carpenters' Patent Locks. April 10. W. H. ADAMS.

Ship Chandlery &c., &c. LANDING BY 'LIBERIA'—4 boxes Sheet LEAD, 3 to 5 lbs, 1 box Palm LEATHER, 300 coils Cordage, assorted, from 1/4 to 5 inch, 60 do. Bolting Rope, assorted; 3 packages Iron and Copper Pump Tacks; 3 pipes Patent WOOD OIL, 5 lbs. Buckhorn TAIL; 6 do. Black Varnish; 10 bundles Ballast and Coal Shovels; 3 cases Ensigns—Union Jack's and Bunting; 2 trusses T-ender; 200 lbs. Thirus; 1 bale Mops; 24 extra Cook Penders; 4 casks containing Lamps, Lanterns, Speaking Trumpets, Coffee Mills, &c. Deck Lights, Deck and Paint Scrubbers, &c. 2 crates Compasses; 1 case Telescopes, &c. And 'Bianchi'—2 lbs. Speru Oil; 6 lbs. Wicking; 1 cask containing a splendid assortment of Lamps; for sale by JOHN WALKER, April 19. Corner Peters' Wharf & Hard Street.

JARDINE & CO. Are now receiving part of their supply of Agricultural Implements, Sec'ds, &c. PLOUGHS of all descriptions; HARROWS, SEEDSOWS, CULTIVATORS, Garden Rakes, Manure Forks, Border Knives, Hay Cutters, &c.; Fresh Root and White Clover SEED; Harrowed and Tilled SEED; And Field, Garden and Flower SEEDS of every description. Also, on hand and to arrive—10 tons best Peruvian GUANO; 10 do. Bone Manure; &c. &c. St. John, April 2, 1853. JARDINE & CO.

By the "Middleton," From Liverpool, just Arrived—500 LBS ground Mustard and Ginger; 7 casks Bread and Washing SODA; 3 barrels Cream of Tartar and Salt Petre; 2 cases refined H. ACK LEAD; 2 cases Epsom SALTS; 5 cases SALAD OIL; 2 cases CASTOR OIL; 500 lbs. Blue STARCH.

48 kegs Ad., 50, 60, 6d, and 9d. HORSE NAILS.—For sale by JOHN KINNEAR, March 6.

GILCHRIST & INCHES ARE NOW OPENING AT THE GOLDEN FLEECE, Prince William Street, PART OF THEIR Spring and Summer Stock, Received per Packet Ship Liberia. St. John, April 19, 1853.

LONDON HOUSE, Market Square, April 9, 1853. Per Steamer 'Niagara'—A FEW cases of SCOTCH GOODS containing Paisley, Cashmere, and French Barage LONG AND SQUARE SHAWLS; Persian and Silk Striped LAINES; Brocade and Embroidered ROBES; Fancy Printed CAMBRICS; Fancy Printed ORLEANS; HABITS, Chemizettes, Collars, Sleeves, &c. &c. E. W. DANIEL.

LANDING, per Brig 'Macon' from New York—20 chests FINE SUEWING TEA; 23 chests FINE WELLS & READING; GILMOUR'S First Prize Tailoring Establishment, No. 4, Bragg's Building, King Street.

First Spring Importation of Rich and Elegant Fancy VESTINGS and TWEEDS, per Steamer 'Canada'—Rich Embroidered VELVET, Fancy Figured SATIN and Embroidered English and German COLTON VESTINGS—all the very latest styles. A few choice White and Pink flowered SATIN VESTINGS, for special purposes. Also—a good article of TWEEDS for Summer Shooting Coats, Paletots and Sacks. Remainder of Spring Stock, consisting of best West of England Wool Dye CLOTHS, FANCY DRESSINGS, BLACK CASHMERE, TWEEDS, and VESTINGS, in first Spring ships.

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT. A MOST MIRACULOUS CURE OF HAD LEGS, AFTER 13 YEARS' SUFFERING. Extract of a Letter from Mr. William Galpin, of 70, St. Mary's Street, Weymouth, dated May 16th, 1851.

Dear Sir,—At the age of 13 my wife (who is now 61) caught a violent cold, which settled in her legs, and ever since that time they have been more or less sore, and greatly increased her agonies when walking, and fully proved together she was deprived entirely of rest and sleep. Every remedy that medical men advised was tried, but without any benefit. Her legs were so sore that she could not walk, and she was obliged to use crutches, and her sleep was so disturbed, that she could not rest. I had often read your Advertisement, and advised her to try your Pills and Ointment; and, as a last resource, I determined to use your Pills and Ointment, she consented to do so. She commenced six weeks ago, and, strange to relate, is now in good health. Her legs are painless, without sores or scars, and her sleep is sound and undisturbed. Could you have witnessed the sufferings of my wife during the last 13 years, and contrast them with her present enjoyment of health, you would not deem it too much to say that your Pills and Ointment had done what no other medicine could do. I feel it my duty to state that I have followed your directions, and I feel that I have been cured. I feel that I have been cured. I feel that I have been cured. WILLIAM GALPIN.

A PERSON 70 YEARS OF AGE CURED OF A BAD LEG, OF THIRTY YEARS' STANDING. Copy of a Letter from Mr. William Galpin, of 70, St. Mary's Street, Weymouth, dated May 16th, 1851.

Dear Sir,—I suffered for a period of thirty years from a bad leg, the result of two or three different accidents at Gas Works, accompanied by rheumatic symptoms. I had received various medical attentions, but without any benefit, and was even told that the leg must be amputated, yet, in opposition to that opinion, your Pills and Ointment effected a complete cure in so short a time, that few who had not witnessed it would credit the fact. WILLIAM GALPIN.

A DREAFUL BAD BREAST CURED IN ONE MONTH. Extract of a Letter from Frederick Turner, of Pains Hill, Kent, dated Dec. 13th, 1850.

Dear Sir,—My wife had suffered from Bad Breast, for more than six months, during the whole period had the best medical attendance, but all in vain. Having before long an awful wound in my own leg, by your invaluable medicine, I determined to use your Pills and Ointment, and therefore gave them a trial in her case, and fortunate it was I did so, for in less than a month a perfect cure was effected, and the benefit of your Pills and Ointment to my family have derived from their use is really astonishing. I now strongly recommend them to all my friends. FREDERICK TURNER.

A WONDERFUL CURE OF A DANGEROUS SWELLING OF THE KNEE. Copy of a Letter from John Forfar, an Agriculturist, residing at Newborough, near Heston, May 15, 1850.

Dear Sir,—I was afflicted with a swelling on each side of the knee, rather above the knee, for nearly two years, which increased to a great size. I had the advice of three eminent surgeons here, and was an inmate of the New-castle Infirmary for four weeks. After various modes of treatment had been tried, I was discharged as incurable. Having heard so much of your Pills and Ointment, I determined to try them, and in less than a month I was completely cured. What is more remarkable, I engaged twelve hours a day in the hay harvest, and although I have followed my laborious occupation throughout the winter, I have had no return whatever of my complaint. (Signed) JOHN FORFAR.

AN INFLAMMATION IN THE SIDE PERFECTLY CURED. Copy of a Letter from Mr. Francis Arnot, of Brechin, Lethian Road, Edinburgh, dated April 20th, 1851.

Dear Sir,—Some twenty years ago my wife has been subject, from time to time, to attacks of inflammation in the side, for which she was bled and bled to a great extent, still the pain could not be removed. About four years ago she was, in the papers, the wonderful cure effected by your Pills and Ointment, and thought she would give them a trial. To her great astonishment and delight she got immediate relief from their use, and after persevering for three weeks, the pain in her side was completely cured, and she has enjoyed the best of health for the last four years. (Signed) FRANCIS ARNOT.

The Pills should be used conjointly with the Ointment in most of the following cases—Bad Legs, Chancres, Skin Diseases, Bad Breasts, Chills, Scars, Burns, Chopped hands, Scars, Hemorrhoids, Cancers, Sore heads, Bites of Mosquitoes, Contracted and Ulcers, and Stiff Joints, Glands, Swellings, Fistulas, Gout, Glands, Swellings, Lumbago, Pains, Glands, Swellings, Rheumatism, Elephantiasis, Sore Nipples, Scrofula.

Sold by the Proprietor, 244, Strand, (near Temple Bar), London; and by S. L. TILLEY, Provincial Agent, No. 15, King-street, St. John, N. B. A. Coy & Son, Fredericton; W. T. Baird, Woodstock; Alex. Lockhart, Queen's James River; Bond of Petaliole; O. K. Sayre, Dorchester; John Bell, Shediac; John Lewis, Hillsborough; John Curry, Canning; and James G. White, Belleisle. —In Pots and Boxes, at 1s. 9d., 4s. 6d. and 7s. 6d. There is a very considerable saving in taking the larger size.

Poetry.

LOOK UP! BY JOHN CRICHELL PRINCE.

"Look up!" cried the seaman, with nerves like steel, As skyward his glance he cast, And beheld his own grow gridy, and reel On the top of the tapping mast: "Look up!" and the bold boy lifted his face, And banded his eyes with his hand, Slid down at once from his perilous glance, And leapt in his father's arms.

"Look up!" meek soul, with affliction bent, Nor daily with dull despair; Look up, and in faith, the moment, For heaven and mercy are there. The frail flower droops in the stormy shower, And the shadow of needful night, But it looks to the sun in the after hour, And takes full measure of light.

"Look up!" sad man, by adversity brought From high unto low estate; Play not with the bane of corrosive thought, For the humblest of pure of the moment, Renew thy hopes, look the world in the face, For it helps not those who repine; Press on, and its voice will amend thy pace,—Succeed, and its homage is thine.

"Look up!" great crowd, who are foremost set In the changeable "Battle of Life?" Some days of calm may reward ye yet For years of allotted strife. Look up, for there's your garden there; For the humblest of pure of the moment, Fruition of joys unalloyed by care, Of peace that can never depart.

"Look up!" large spirit, by Heaven inspired, That into an expansive soul Look up! with endeavor and zeal untired, And strive for the loftiest goal. Look up! and encourage the kindred throng Who toil up the slopes behind, To follow, and with triumphant song, The holier regions of mind!

[FOR THE OBSERVER.] EXTRACTS FROM A LETTER FROM AUSTRALIA. Dated Melbourne, Dec. 15, 1852.

No doubt you will expect a long account of my sojourn at the Gold Fields, but how shall I attempt to portray all the varied incidents and hardships of nine months of toil and fatigue. At Forest Creek, Mount Alexander, I left my companions and joined another party, shipmates whom I found there. With these I remained seven months, during which time I was engaged in the search of gold, and the incessant rains of winter, produced more than one hundred ounces of gold. We then separated, dividing the remainder which after all expenses were paid, gave to each only fifteen ounces. My share was only eight ounces, and my provisions during the winter were extravagantly high in consequence of the badness of the roads. As an instance of this I may tell you that at one time at the Eagle Hawk Gulch we were obliged to pay a pound for flour, and four shillings a pound for salt. As to sugar, for months we never tasted it in our tea, and he who could replace his worn out shoes with a second hand pair, at double the ordinary price, considered himself fortunate in the purchase of a pair of boots. Well, after this I joined a gentleman who had been in California, and purchasing a horse we packed our "swag" on his back and proceeded en route to Ballarat, a distance of 80 miles, over a rough and uneven road, and a very long and arduous journey and a narrow escape from robbery by the bush rangers—convicts who turn highwaymen—I saw them distinctly through a vista of trees on a neighboring eminence, but they took no notice of us, and we passed on in safety. At the Eagle Hawk, a rich discovery, to which I had alluded in my letter, was made, and worth several shillings a pound for salt. As to sugar, for months we never tasted it in our tea, and he who could replace his worn out shoes with a second hand pair, at double the ordinary price, considered himself fortunate in the purchase of a pair of boots. Well, after this I joined a gentleman who had been in California, and purchasing a horse we packed our "swag" on his back and proceeded en route to Ballarat, a distance of 80 miles, over a rough and uneven road, and a very long and arduous journey and a narrow escape from robbery by the bush rangers—convicts who turn highwaymen—I saw them distinctly through a vista of trees on a neighboring eminence, but they took no notice of us, and we passed on in safety. At the Eagle Hawk, a rich discovery, to which I had alluded in my letter, was made, and worth several shillings a pound for salt. As to sugar, for months we never tasted it in our tea, and he who could replace his worn out shoes with a second hand pair, at double the ordinary price, considered himself fortunate in the purchase of a pair of boots. Well, after this I joined a gentleman who had been in California, and purchasing a horse we packed our "swag" on his back and proceeded en route to Ballarat, a distance of 80 miles, over a rough and uneven road, and a very long and arduous journey and a narrow escape from robbery by the bush rangers—convicts who turn highwaymen—I saw them distinctly through a vista of trees on a neighboring eminence, but they took no notice of us, and we passed on in safety. At the Eagle Hawk, a rich discovery, to which I had alluded in my letter, was made, and worth several shillings a pound for salt. As to sugar, for months we never tasted it in our tea, and he who could replace his worn out shoes with a second hand pair, at double the ordinary price, considered himself fortunate in the purchase of a pair of boots. Well, after this I joined a gentleman who had been in California, and purchasing a horse we packed our "swag" on his back and proceeded en route to Ballarat, a distance of 80 miles, over a rough and uneven road, and a very long and arduous journey and a narrow escape from robbery by the bush rangers—convicts who turn highwaymen—I saw them distinctly through a vista of trees on a neighboring eminence, but they took no notice of us, and we passed on in safety. At the Eagle Hawk, a rich discovery, to which I had alluded in my letter, was made, and worth several shillings a pound for salt. As to sugar, for months we never tasted it in our tea, and he who could replace his worn out shoes with a second hand pair, at double the ordinary price, considered himself fortunate in the purchase of a pair of boots. Well, after this I joined a gentleman who had been in California, and purchasing a horse we packed our "swag" on his back and proceeded en route to Ballarat, a distance of 80 miles, over a rough and uneven road, and a very long and arduous journey and a narrow escape from robbery by the bush rangers—convicts who turn highwaymen—I saw them distinctly through a vista of trees on a neighboring eminence, but they took no notice of us, and we passed on in safety. At the Eagle Hawk, a rich discovery, to which I had alluded in my letter, was made, and worth several shillings a pound for salt. As to sugar, for months we never tasted it in our tea, and he who could replace his worn out shoes with a second hand pair, at double the ordinary price, considered himself fortunate in the purchase of a pair of boots. Well, after this I joined a gentleman who had been in California, and purchasing a horse we packed our "swag" on his back and proceeded en route to Ballarat, a distance of 80 miles, over a rough and uneven road, and a very long and arduous journey and a narrow escape from robbery by the bush rangers—convicts who turn highwaymen—I saw them distinctly through a vista of trees on a neighboring eminence, but they took no notice of us, and we passed on in safety. At the Eagle Hawk, a rich discovery, to which I had alluded in my letter, was made, and worth several shillings a pound for salt. As to sugar, for months we never tasted it in our tea, and he who could replace his worn out shoes with a second hand pair, at double the ordinary price, considered himself fortunate in the purchase of a pair of boots. Well, after this I joined a gentleman who had been in California, and purchasing a horse we packed our "swag" on his back and proceeded en route to Ballarat, a distance of 80 miles, over a rough and uneven road, and a very long and arduous journey and a narrow escape from robbery by the bush rangers—convicts who turn highwaymen—I saw them distinctly through a vista of trees on a neighboring eminence, but they took no notice of us, and we passed on in safety. At the Eagle Hawk, a rich discovery, to which I had alluded in my letter, was made, and worth several shillings a pound for salt. As to sugar, for months we never tasted it in our tea, and he who could replace his worn out shoes with a second hand pair, at double the ordinary price, considered himself fortunate in the purchase of a pair of boots. Well, after this I joined a gentleman who had been in California, and purchasing a horse we packed our "swag" on his back and proceeded en route to Ballarat, a distance of 80 miles, over a rough and uneven road, and a very long and arduous journey and a narrow escape from robbery by the bush rangers—convicts who turn highwaymen—I saw them distinctly through a vista of trees on a neighboring eminence, but they took no notice of us, and we passed on in safety. At the Eagle Hawk, a rich discovery, to which I had alluded in my letter, was made, and worth several shillings a pound for salt. As to sugar, for months we never tasted it in our tea, and he who could replace his worn out shoes with a second hand pair, at double the ordinary price, considered himself fortunate in the purchase of a pair of boots. Well, after this I joined a gentleman who had been in California, and purchasing a horse we packed our "swag" on his back and proceeded en route to Ballarat, a distance of 80 miles, over a rough and uneven road, and a very long and arduous journey and a narrow escape from robbery by the bush rangers—convicts who turn highwaymen—I saw them distinctly through a vista of trees on a neighboring eminence, but they took no notice of us, and we passed on in safety. At the Eagle Hawk, a rich discovery, to which I had alluded in my letter, was made, and worth several shillings a pound for salt. As to sugar, for months we never tasted it in our tea, and he who could replace his worn out shoes with a second hand pair, at double the ordinary price, considered himself fortunate in the purchase of a pair of boots. Well, after this I joined a gentleman who had been in California, and purchasing a horse we packed our "swag" on his back and proceeded en route to Ballarat, a distance of 80 miles, over a rough and uneven road, and a very long and arduous journey and a narrow escape from robbery by the bush rangers—convicts who turn highwaymen—I saw them distinctly through a vista of trees on a neighboring eminence, but they took no notice of us, and we passed on in safety. At the Eagle Hawk, a rich discovery, to which I had alluded in my letter, was made, and worth several shillings a pound for salt. As to sugar, for months we never tasted it in our tea, and he who could replace his worn out shoes with a second hand pair, at double the ordinary price, considered himself fortunate in the purchase of a pair of boots. Well, after this I joined a gentleman who had been in California, and purchasing a horse we packed our "swag" on his back and proceeded en route to Ballarat, a distance of 80 miles, over a rough and uneven road, and a very long and arduous journey and a narrow escape from robbery by the bush rangers—convicts who turn highwaymen—I saw them distinctly through a vista of trees on a neighboring eminence, but they took no notice of us, and we passed on in safety. At the Eagle Hawk, a rich discovery, to which I had alluded in my letter, was made, and worth several shillings a pound for salt. As to sugar, for months we never tasted it in our tea, and he who could replace his worn out shoes with a second hand pair, at double the ordinary price, considered himself fortunate in the purchase of a pair of boots. Well, after this I joined a gentleman who had been in California, and purchasing a horse we packed our "swag" on his back and proceeded en route to Ballarat, a distance of 80 miles, over a rough and uneven road, and a very long and arduous journey and a narrow escape from robbery by the bush rangers—convicts who turn highwaymen—I saw them distinctly through a vista of trees on a neighboring eminence, but they took no notice of us, and we passed on in safety. At the Eagle Hawk, a rich discovery, to which I had alluded in my letter, was made, and worth several shillings a pound for salt. As to sugar, for months we never tasted it in our tea, and he who could replace his worn out shoes with a second hand pair, at double the ordinary price, considered himself fortunate in the purchase of a pair of boots. Well, after this I joined a gentleman who had been in California, and purchasing a horse we packed our "swag" on his back and proceeded en route to Ballarat, a distance of 80 miles, over a rough and uneven road, and a very long and arduous journey and a narrow escape from robbery by the bush rangers—convicts who turn highwaymen—I saw them distinctly through a vista of trees on a neighboring eminence, but they took no notice of us, and we passed on in safety. At the Eagle Hawk, a rich discovery, to which I had alluded in my letter, was made, and worth several shillings a pound for salt. As to sugar, for months we never tasted it in our tea, and he who could replace his worn out shoes with a second hand pair, at double the ordinary price, considered himself fortunate in the purchase of a pair of boots. Well, after this I joined a gentleman who had been in California, and purchasing a horse we packed our "swag" on his back and proceeded en route to Ballarat, a distance of 80 miles, over a rough and uneven road, and a very long and arduous journey and a narrow escape from robbery by the bush rangers—convicts who turn highwaymen—I saw them distinctly through a vista of trees on a neighboring eminence, but they took no notice of us, and we passed on in safety. At the Eagle Hawk, a rich discovery, to which I had alluded in my letter, was made, and worth several shillings a pound for salt. As to sugar, for months we never tasted it in our tea, and he who could replace his worn out shoes with a second hand pair, at double the ordinary price, considered himself fortunate in the purchase of a pair of boots. Well, after this I joined a gentleman who had been in California, and purchasing a horse we packed our "swag" on his back and proceeded en route to Ballarat, a distance of 80 miles, over a rough and uneven road, and a very long and arduous journey and a narrow escape from robbery by the bush rangers—convicts who turn highwaymen—I saw them distinctly through a vista of trees on a neighboring eminence, but they took no notice of us, and we passed on in safety. At the Eagle Hawk, a rich discovery, to which I had alluded in my letter, was made, and worth several shillings a pound for salt. As to sugar, for months we never tasted it in our tea, and he who could replace his worn out shoes with a second hand pair, at double the ordinary price, considered himself fortunate in the purchase of a pair of boots. Well, after this I joined a gentleman who had been in California, and purchasing a horse we packed our "swag" on his back and proceeded en route to Ballarat, a distance of 80 miles, over a rough and uneven road, and a very long and arduous journey and a narrow escape from robbery by the bush rangers—convicts who turn highwaymen—I saw them distinctly through a vista of trees on a neighboring eminence, but they took no notice of us, and we passed on in safety. At the Eagle Hawk, a rich discovery, to which I had alluded in my letter, was made, and worth several shillings a pound for salt. As to sugar, for months we never tasted it in our tea, and he who could replace his worn out shoes with a second hand pair, at double the ordinary price, considered himself fortunate in the purchase of a pair of boots. Well, after this I joined a gentleman who had been in California, and purchasing a horse we packed our "swag" on his back and proceeded en route to Ballarat, a distance of 80 miles, over a rough and uneven road, and a very long and arduous journey and a narrow escape from robbery by the bush rangers—convicts who turn highwaymen—I saw them distinctly through a vista of trees on a neighboring eminence, but they took no notice of us, and we passed on in safety. At the Eagle Hawk, a rich discovery, to which I had alluded in my letter, was made, and worth several shillings a pound for salt. As to sugar, for months we never tasted it in our tea, and he who could replace his worn out shoes with a second hand pair, at double the ordinary price, considered himself fortunate in the purchase of a pair of boots. Well, after this I joined a gentleman who had been in California, and purchasing a horse we packed our "swag" on his back and proceeded en route to Ballarat, a distance of 80 miles, over a rough and uneven road, and a very long and arduous journey and a narrow escape from robbery by the bush rangers—convicts who turn highwaymen—I saw them distinctly through a vista of trees on a neighboring eminence, but they took no notice of us, and we passed on in safety. At the Eagle Hawk, a rich discovery, to which I had alluded in my letter, was made, and worth several shillings a pound for salt. As to sugar, for months we never tasted it in our tea, and he who could replace his worn out shoes with a second hand pair, at double the ordinary price, considered himself fortunate in the purchase of a pair of boots. Well, after this I joined a gentleman who had been in California, and purchasing a horse we packed our "swag" on his back and proceeded en route to Ballarat, a distance of 80 miles, over a rough and uneven road, and a very long and arduous journey and a narrow escape from robbery by the bush rangers—convicts who turn highwaymen—I saw them distinctly through a vista of trees on a neighboring eminence, but they took no notice of us, and we passed on in safety. At the Eagle Hawk, a rich discovery, to which I had alluded in my letter, was made, and worth several shillings a pound for salt. As to sugar, for months we never tasted it in our tea, and he who could replace his worn out shoes with a second hand pair, at double the ordinary price, considered himself fortunate in the purchase of a pair of boots. Well, after this I joined a gentleman who had been in California, and purchasing a horse we packed our "swag" on his back and proceeded en route to Ballarat, a distance of 80 miles, over a rough and uneven road, and a very long and arduous journey and a narrow escape from robbery by the bush rangers—convicts who turn highwaymen—I saw them distinctly through a vista of trees on a neighboring eminence, but they took no notice of us, and we passed on in safety. At the Eagle Hawk, a rich discovery, to which I had alluded in my letter, was made, and worth several shillings a pound for salt. As to sugar, for months we never tasted it in our tea, and he who could replace his worn out shoes with a second hand pair, at double the ordinary price, considered himself fortunate in the purchase of a pair of boots. Well, after this I joined a gentleman who had been in California, and purchasing a horse we packed our "swag" on his back and proceeded en route to Ballarat, a distance of 80 miles, over a rough and uneven road, and a very long and arduous journey and a narrow escape from robbery by the bush rangers—convicts who turn highwaymen—I saw them distinctly through a vista of trees on a neighboring eminence, but they took no notice of us, and we passed on in safety. At the Eagle Hawk, a rich discovery, to which I had alluded in my letter, was made, and worth several shillings a pound for salt. As to sugar, for months we never tasted it in our tea, and he who could replace his worn out shoes with a second hand pair, at double the ordinary price, considered himself fortunate in the purchase of a pair of boots. Well, after this I joined a gentleman who had been in California, and purchasing a horse we packed our "swag" on his back and proceeded en route to Ballarat, a distance of 80 miles, over a rough and uneven road, and a very long and arduous journey and a narrow escape from robbery by the bush rangers—convicts who turn highwaymen—I saw them distinctly through a vista of trees on a neighboring eminence, but they took no notice of us, and we passed on in safety. At the Eagle Hawk, a rich discovery, to which I had alluded in my letter, was made, and worth several shillings a pound for salt. As to sugar, for months we never tasted it in our tea, and he who could replace his worn out shoes with a second hand pair, at double the ordinary price, considered himself fortunate in the purchase of a pair of boots. Well, after this I joined a gentleman who had been in California, and purchasing a horse we packed our "swag" on his back and proceeded en route to Ballarat, a distance of 80 miles, over a rough and uneven road, and a very long and arduous journey and a narrow escape from robbery by the bush rangers—convicts who turn highwaymen—I saw them distinctly through a vista of trees on a neighboring eminence, but they took no notice of us, and we passed on in safety. At the Eagle Hawk, a rich discovery, to which I had alluded in my letter, was made, and worth several shillings a pound for salt. As to sugar, for months we never tasted it in our tea, and he who could replace his worn out shoes with a second hand pair, at double the ordinary price, considered himself fortunate in the purchase of a pair of boots. Well, after this I joined a gentleman who had been in California, and purchasing a horse we packed our "swag" on his back and proceeded en route to Ballarat, a distance of 80 miles, over a rough and uneven road, and a very long and arduous journey and a narrow escape from robbery by the bush rangers—convicts who turn highwaymen—I saw them distinctly through a vista of trees on a neighboring eminence, but they took no notice of us, and we passed on in safety. At the Eagle Hawk, a rich discovery, to which I had alluded in my letter, was made, and worth several shillings a pound for salt. As to sugar, for months we never tasted it in our tea, and he who could replace his worn out shoes with a second hand pair, at double the ordinary price, considered himself fortunate in the purchase of a pair of boots. Well, after this I joined a gentleman who had been in California, and purchasing a horse we packed our "swag" on his back and proceeded en route to Ballarat, a distance of 80 miles, over a rough and uneven road, and a very long and arduous journey and a narrow escape from robbery by the bush rangers—convicts who turn highwaymen—I saw them distinctly through a vista of trees on a neighboring eminence, but they took no notice of us, and we passed on in safety. At the Eagle Hawk, a rich discovery, to which I had alluded in my letter, was made, and worth several shillings a pound for salt. As to sugar, for months we never tasted it in our tea, and he who could replace his worn out shoes with a second hand pair, at double the ordinary price, considered himself fortunate in the purchase of a pair of boots. Well, after this I joined a gentleman who had been in California, and purchasing a horse we packed our "swag" on his back and proceeded en route to Ballarat, a distance of 80 miles, over a rough and uneven road, and a very long and arduous journey and a narrow escape from robbery by the bush rangers—convicts who turn highwaymen—I saw them distinctly through a vista of trees on a neighboring eminence, but they took no notice of us, and we passed on in safety. At the Eagle Hawk, a rich discovery, to which I had alluded in my letter, was made, and worth several shillings a pound for salt. As to sugar, for months we never tasted it in our tea, and he who could replace his worn out shoes with a second hand pair, at double the ordinary price, considered himself fortunate in the purchase of a pair of boots. Well, after this I joined a gentleman who had been in California, and purchasing a horse we packed our "swag" on his back and proceeded en route to Ballarat, a distance of 80 miles, over a rough and uneven road, and a very long and arduous journey and a narrow escape from robbery by the bush rangers—convicts who turn highwaymen—I saw them distinctly through a vista of trees on a neighboring eminence, but they took no notice of us, and we passed on in safety. At the Eagle Hawk, a rich discovery, to which I had alluded in my letter, was made, and worth several shillings a pound for salt. As to sugar, for months we never tasted it in our tea, and he who could replace his worn out shoes with a second hand pair, at double the ordinary price, considered himself fortunate in the purchase of a pair of boots. Well, after this I joined a gentleman who had been in California, and purchasing a horse we packed our "swag" on his back and proceeded en route to Ballarat, a distance of 80 miles, over a rough and uneven road, and a very long and arduous journey and a narrow escape from robbery by the bush rangers—convicts who turn highwaymen—I saw them distinctly through a vista of trees on a neighboring eminence, but they took no notice of us, and we passed on in safety. At the Eagle Hawk, a rich discovery, to which I had alluded in my letter, was made, and worth several shillings a pound for salt. As to sugar, for months we never tasted it in our tea, and he who could replace his worn out shoes with a second hand pair, at double the ordinary price, considered himself fortunate in the purchase of a pair of boots. Well, after this I joined a gentleman who had been in California, and purchasing a horse we packed our "swag" on his back and proceeded en route to Ballarat, a distance of 80 miles, over a rough and uneven road, and a very long and arduous journey and a narrow escape from robbery by the bush rangers—convicts who turn highwaymen—I saw them distinctly through a vista of trees on a neighboring eminence, but they took no notice of us, and we passed on in safety. At the Eagle Hawk, a rich discovery, to which I had alluded in my letter, was made, and worth several shillings a pound for salt. As to sugar, for months we never tasted it in our tea, and he who could replace his worn out shoes with a second hand pair, at double the ordinary price, considered himself fortunate in the purchase of a pair of boots. Well, after this I joined a gentleman who had been in California, and purchasing a horse we packed our "swag" on his back and proceeded en route to Ballarat, a distance of 80 miles, over a rough and uneven road, and a very long and arduous journey and a narrow escape from robbery by the bush rangers—convicts who turn highwaymen—I saw them distinctly through a vista of trees on a neighboring eminence, but they took no notice of us, and we passed on in safety. At the Eagle Hawk, a rich discovery, to which I had alluded in my letter, was made, and worth several shillings a pound for salt. As to sugar, for months we never tasted it in our tea, and he who could replace his worn out shoes with a second hand pair, at double the ordinary price, considered himself fortunate in the purchase of a pair of boots. Well, after this I joined a gentleman who had been in California, and purchasing a horse we packed our "swag" on his back and proceeded en route to Ballarat, a distance of 80 miles, over a rough and uneven road, and a very long and arduous journey and a narrow escape from robbery by the bush rangers—convicts who turn highwaymen—I saw them distinctly through a vista of trees on a neighboring eminence, but they took no notice of us, and we passed on in safety. At the Eagle Hawk, a rich discovery, to which I had alluded in my letter, was made, and worth several shillings a pound for salt. As to sugar, for months we never tasted it in our tea, and he who could replace his worn out shoes with a second hand pair, at double the ordinary price, considered himself fortunate in the purchase of a pair of boots. Well, after this I joined a gentleman who had been in California, and purchasing a horse we packed our "swag" on his back and proceeded en route to Ballarat, a distance of 80 miles, over a rough and uneven road, and a very long and arduous journey and a narrow escape from robbery by the bush rangers—convicts who turn highwaymen—I saw them distinctly through a vista of trees on a neighboring eminence, but they took no notice of us, and we passed on in safety. At the Eagle Hawk, a rich discovery, to which I had alluded in my letter, was made, and worth several shillings a pound for salt. As to sugar, for months we never tasted it in our tea, and he who could replace his worn out shoes with a second hand pair, at double the ordinary price, considered himself fortunate in the purchase of a pair of boots. Well, after this I joined a gentleman who had been in California, and purchasing a horse we packed our "swag" on his back and proceeded en route to Ballarat, a distance of 80 miles, over a rough and uneven road, and a very long and arduous journey and a narrow escape from robbery by the bush rangers—convicts who turn highwaymen—I saw them distinctly through a vista of trees on a neighboring eminence, but they took no notice of us, and we passed on in safety. At the Eagle Hawk, a rich discovery, to which I had alluded in my letter, was made, and worth several shillings a pound for salt. As to sugar, for months we never tasted it in our tea, and he who could replace his worn out shoes with a second hand pair, at double the ordinary price, considered himself fortunate in the purchase of a pair of boots. Well, after this I joined a gentleman who had been in California, and purchasing a horse we packed our "swag" on his back and proceeded en route to Ballarat, a distance of 80 miles, over a rough and uneven road, and a very long and arduous journey and a narrow escape from robbery by the bush rangers—convicts who turn highwaymen—I saw them distinctly through a vista of trees on a neighboring eminence, but they took no notice of us, and we passed on in safety. At the Eagle Hawk, a rich discovery, to which I had alluded in my letter, was made, and worth several shillings a pound for salt. As to sugar, for months we never tasted it in our tea, and he who could replace his worn out shoes with a second hand pair, at double the ordinary price, considered himself fortunate in the purchase of a pair of boots. Well, after this I joined a gentleman who had been in California, and purchasing a horse we packed our "swag" on his back and proceeded en route to Ballarat, a distance of 80 miles, over a rough and uneven road, and a very long and arduous journey and a narrow escape from robbery by the bush rangers—convicts who turn highwaymen—I saw them distinctly through a vista of trees on a neighboring eminence, but they took no notice of us, and we passed on in safety. At the Eagle Hawk, a rich discovery, to which I had alluded in my letter, was made, and worth several shillings a pound for salt. As to sugar, for months we never tasted it in our tea, and he who could replace his worn out shoes with a second hand pair, at double the ordinary price, considered himself fortunate in the purchase of a pair of boots. Well, after this I joined a gentleman who had been in California, and purchasing a horse we packed our "swag" on his back and proceeded en route to Ballarat, a distance of 80 miles, over a rough and uneven road, and a very long and arduous journey and a narrow escape from robbery by the bush rangers—convicts who turn highwaymen—I saw them distinctly through a vista of trees on a neighboring eminence, but they took no notice of us, and we passed on in safety. At the Eagle Hawk, a rich discovery, to which I had alluded in my letter, was made, and worth several shillings a pound for salt. As to sugar, for months we never tasted it in our tea, and he who could replace his worn out shoes with a second hand pair, at double the ordinary price, considered himself fortunate in the purchase of a pair of boots. Well, after this I joined a gentleman who had been in California, and purchasing a horse we packed our "swag" on his back and proceeded en route to Ballarat, a distance of 80 miles, over a rough and uneven road, and a very long and arduous journey and a narrow escape from robbery by the bush rangers—convicts who turn highwaymen—I saw them distinctly through a vista of trees on a neighboring eminence, but they took no notice of us, and we passed on in safety. At the Eagle Hawk, a rich discovery, to which I had alluded in my letter, was made, and worth several shillings a pound for salt. As to sugar, for months we never tasted it in our tea, and he who could replace his worn out shoes with a second hand pair, at double the ordinary price, considered himself fortunate in the purchase of a pair of boots. Well, after this I joined a gentleman who had been in California, and purchasing a horse we packed our "swag" on his back and proceeded en route to Ballarat, a distance of 80 miles, over a rough and uneven road, and a very long and arduous journey and a narrow escape from robbery by the bush rangers—convicts who turn highwaymen—I saw them distinctly through a vista of trees on a neighboring eminence, but they took no notice of us, and we passed on in safety. At the Eagle Hawk, a rich discovery, to which I had alluded in my letter, was made, and worth several shillings a pound for salt. As to sugar, for months we never tasted it in our tea, and he who could replace his worn out shoes with a second hand pair, at double the ordinary price, considered himself fortunate in the purchase of a pair of boots. Well, after this I joined a gentleman who had been in California, and purchasing a horse we packed our "swag" on his back and proceeded en route to Ballarat, a distance of 80 miles, over a rough and uneven road, and a very long and arduous journey and a narrow escape from robbery by the bush rangers—convicts who turn highwaymen—I saw them distinctly through a vista of trees on a neighboring eminence, but they took no notice of us, and we passed on in safety. At the Eagle Hawk, a rich discovery, to which I had alluded in my letter, was made, and worth several shillings a pound for salt. As to sugar, for