Three Champs. Defeated

The year of 1914 was ill-starred for champions of the boxing world. No fewer than three went down to defeat. Willie Ritchie, who had only begun to enjoy the fruits of the lightweight title he tore from the brow of Ad Wolgast, was soundly trounced by Freddie Welsh in London and Johnny Coulan of Chicago who for years ruled the ranks of the bantamweight fighters, was knocked out by "Kid" Williams, from Baltimore. George Chip of Newcastle, Pa, generally recognized as the real champion of the middleweights, was beaten by Al. McCoy of Brooklyn, with one punch. Three Champs. Defeated

$5,000 To Guarantee Expenses.
El Paso, Jan. 3—Before leaving for Chicago and New York, Jack Curley has offered a certified check for $5,000 to guarantee the expenses of the Johnson-Willard fight in Junera. Curley announced that the fight would certainly be held across the river at the Jockey Club of Juares on March 6.

Curley expressed himself as being well satisfied with the arrangements and said that Juneze was an ideal place for thematch. He asa arranged for Willard's training place on this side of the line and has closed with Jim Jeffries and Jim Flynn to train and spar with him. Johnson will reach Juarez at the last of January, to begin his preliminary training at the race track. The fight will be fought under the official auspices of tae villa Government. Advertisements to this effect are to be placed throughout Northern Mexico.

Curley says that it will be the first time on record that troops have been stationed about a fighting arena for the protection of the fighters and spectators.

BASEBALL

Has McGraw of the Giants is assid to have closed a deal whereby he secured Hans Lobert, the great third baseman of Philadelphia National team, to play with the Giants.

McGraw and Lobert went to Philadelphia where they had a conference with Mr. Chandler, one of the largest stockholders of the Phillies.

Later in the day McGraw and Lobert would say anything about the deal.
