

The Trustees have accordingly established strict regulations concerning the attendance of children ; and as it will be the duty of the Trustees, the Superintendent, and the Teachers to enforce them, Parents are entreated to perform their duty by taking care that their children attend school regularly every day, and punctually at the appointed hours.

If Parents neglect so simple and easy a duty, they inflict an injury upon the Schools as well as upon their own children : and they must not afterwards complain if the habitual irregularity of their children be punished by suspension or dismissal, as the only way in which the discipline of the Schools can be protected and maintained.

A daily record of the attendance of each child will be kept, so as to enable the Trustees to enforce these regulations, and a copy of the same will be issued to the Parents or Guardians of every pupil, for their information and guidance.
