(Vancouver World.) On Wednesday H. H. Allingham leaves on the Imperial Limited with his daughter, Miss Allingham, for Montreal, en route to London, England, and on Friday Mrs. Allingham, with her mother, Mrs. O'Dell, and her Younger daughter. Miss Hazel Allingham, leave for the same destination. via the Northern Pacific and Chicago.

Mr. Allingham goes to London to take a responsible position with the Western Union Cable Co. at their European headquarters, the chief executive of the London offices being General Superintendent T. W. Golding, who was recently appointed to the position and who is also a Vancouverite. Mr. Allingham is thoroughly qualified for any promotion that may reach him the profession he has followed for the past 25 years, 10 of which have been spent in Vancouver in the service of the C. P. R. Since he began telegraphy 25 years ago Mr. Allingham has ecome familiar with the theory and practice of every branch of the profestion. He has performed the duties of station agent, has operated in the disiliar with both Associated Press and commercial telegraphy.

Mr. Allingham came to Vancouver over 10 years ago, in April, 1894, and s now the oldest operator in the C. P. R. telegraph office, which he is about don't always win out. alive and chopping their heads off. This is not one of those mythical jobs like catching mosquitoes and pulling their teeth. There is really a big demand for men, women and children who want to make a little pin money capturing rattlers. England has suddenly taken a great fancy to American rattlesnake bags, belts and novelties. On this account the rattlesnake skin has gone up in value during the last 30 days more than 50 per cent. One professional snake catcher in Pike county, Pa., says he has an order for 10,000 skins.

"Pike county can tell so many big ones," said the senior member of a Newark farm who makes a specialty of tanning snake and alligator skins, "I hardly know whether to swallow this one or not, but I do know England is sending in some vary large orders for snake skins. The demand is sudden and I don't know what has created it, but from present appearances the rattlesnake crop will be more than exhausted this year by the export trade. "This is the time of year the snake catchers go to work, as the snakes are now putting on their ligt fall overcoats and taking long strolls through the mountains. Their suply of poison is at its lowest now, and they will not strike unless they are forced into a corner. The snake catchers can therefore work with more freedom, and as tured goods. Their children will come highly colored they can get good the skins in the fall are very fine and prices."

Few people have any idea of what an immense trade is carried on in America in snake skins. Men in all parts of the country follow snake catching
