FRATERNAL VISITS.

I attended as your representative the ession of the Grand Division of the Sons of Temperance, held in the city of St. John, last November, and was very cordially received by that body. A suggestion made for closer co-operation in temperance work and the elimina. tion of unnecessary rivalry between the two organizations was heartily approved and a suitable resolution was passed committing the Grand Division to the course suggested by your representative. I trust the most generous and friendly relations will continue to exist between the two grand bodies and between our subordinate divisions and lodges and members. Co-operation, not
