

The Boston... The annual general meeting of the Stockholders of the Bank of New Brunswick took place in the Bank Building on Monday...

The Renowned Remedy HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT.

A MOST ASTONISHING CURE OF SCROFULOUS EYES.—A CASE CERTIFIED BY THE MAYOR OF BOSTON. Copy of a Letter from J. Noble, Esq., Mayor of Boston, Lincolnshire.

To Professor Holloway. Dear Sir—Mrs Sarah Dixon, of Lymington, Boston, has this day deposited before me...

On Wednesday afternoon, about four o'clock, the body of a female child about a month old was discovered in the ledge on the late Chief Justice Chalmers's premises, Union Street.

We are not guilty in error when we state that the Sheriff's return of the approaching Elections will be limited to the first of July.

The gentleman hitherto announced either by themselves or friends as candidates at the approaching Election, in this County, are, besides the four "old ones," Hon. Charles Fisher, W. H. Needham, James S. Beck, Esq., Col. Hayes, D. S. Kerr, John A. Beckwith, and George F. H. Minchin, Esq.

Yesterday was strictly observed by the Protestant inhabitants of this city as a day of fasting and humiliation. The following sums were collected in aid of the relief of the poor and the children of British soldiers serving in the Eastern war:

English Cathedral, £73 5 3 170 7 3
St. Andrew's Church, £12 0 0 17 0 0
St. Matthew's Chapel, £6 1 0 6 1 0
Westman Chapel, £11 10 0 11 10 0
St. Andrew's Church, £11 10 0 11 10 0

The London Times has been cited to answer a charge of breach of privilege. Its conductor, Mr. Morley Morris, was summoned before a committee of the House of Commons, and was examined at great length.

LANCASHIRE.—Our file of Kingston papers are to the 12th inst., yet contain little to interest the general reader. The bill for the better government of the island, and for raising a revenue in support thereof, has received the assent of the Governor, and is to be forwarded to the Home Department for ratification.

NEW YORK, April 26.—The brigantine Napoleon, from Madeira, arrived this morning, she brings 150 passengers, who are all religious exiles, to the colony already established in Illinois. They, in consequence of having been expelled from the Kingdom, and joined the Protestant Church, have been obliged to leave the country.

The steamer Cleopatra, which sailed from Liverpool on the 14th April, for Montreal, arrived at Portland last evening, not being able to enter the St. Lawrence on account of the ice. She had 300 passengers and a full freight.

THE GREAT LAKES.—A few days ago, a vessel called the Canada, of 1100 tons burthen, arrived at Cleveland from Buffalo, with 50,000 bushels of grain.

GERMANY.—The Legislature of New-Fundland has elected "The New York, New-Fundland and London Telegraph Company," the object of which is to construct a telegraph from the Canadian to Ireland. The Patent Office of the company, and Prof. Morse, Vice President.

The steamship Asia sailed from New York on Wednesday last for Liverpool, with 180 passengers and 2500 tons of specie.

TENNESSEE.—The city of Chicago has just decided by popular vote, to have a tunnel constructed under the river, to supplant the bridges at present used. The latter cost $12,000 to build and the expense of repairs and tenders for 1853, was about $2000 for each. It is thought that in ten years the tunnel will prove a saving of money to the city, beyond abolishing the bridges.
