

Spring flowers, ferns and pine were used in profusion to decorate St. Paul's Church on Wednesday, for the marriage of Miss Lucy Barclay, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry B. Robinson, German street, and Mr. Campbell MacKay, son of Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm MacKay, Routhway. The bride as she entered the church on the arm of her father, and accompanied by her bridesmaids, Miss Barbara Jack and Miss Nina Carrithers, Detroit, was met by the surprised choir, who as they preceded her up the aisle, sang "The Voice That Breathed O'er Eden."

The groom was supported by Mr. Cecil West. The bride wore a wedding gown of lustrous white satin embroidered with pearls, with a long court train lined with pale pink georgette. The tulle veil was arranged in cap effect and was fastened with a coronet of orange blossoms. The bridal bouquet was of sweetheart roses, Anemones, Crowfoot, and other flowers. The bridesmaids wore a pink tulle gown and a flower crown. Miss Carrithers wore a tulle gown with a long court train lined with pale pink georgette. Both carried old-fashioned bouquets of pink carnations. The ushers were Mr. Darrell Peters, Mr. Guy Short and Mr. Bayard Coster. Mr. Percy Bourne presided at the organ and during the singing of the marriage officers, the hymn "O Perfect Love." After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. The house had been beautifully decorated for the occasion with ferns and cut flowers. In the dining room the artistic arrangement of the bride's table was much admired. In the centre was the wedding cake with a miniature basket of orange blossoms and sweet heart roses on the top for decoration, and concealed among these flowers was a ring from which streamers of pale pink and white ribbons led to the appropriate favors at the place of the bride party. Pink tulle and small vases containing pink snapdragons completed the dainty effect. Mr. and Mrs. MacKay left on the Boston train for New York and Atlantic City, and on their return will reside at 84 Orange street.

THE BEST MEDICINE FOR LITTLE ONES

Thousands of mothers state positively that Baby's Own Tablets are the best medicine they know of for little ones. Their experience has taught them that the Tablets always do just what is claimed for them and that they can be given with perfect safety to children of all ages. Concerning that Mrs. Joseph Thorstein, St. Gabriel de Brandon, Que., writes: "Baby's Own Tablets are the best medicine I know of for little ones. I thought I would lose my baby before trying the Tablets but they soon made him healthy and happy and now I would not be without them. The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont."
