& at the same time informed the Indians that he was an officer of the law himself, but that he did not want anyone to come to them with new laws from the Gov't. At another point, Kitspione, the Ind.
Ag't was informed that the aforesaid Ind. Constable Lunis had sent advice to the Indians to oppose whatever he shd. say to ^{Indians} ~~them~~. No result was that those Indians declined to give up the ^{Celebration of the} "Potlach" feasts on the ground that they were advised by Capt. Fitzgibbon, Constable that the law had no power to punish it as an offence & that they might so on as they had been doing.

The undersigned begs to state that the
