

Despatches from points of Interest in different parts of the World—Domestic and Foreign events—The Dark and Sunny Side of Life.

FOREIGN.

of the treasury have been engaged for some time in an effort to secure the United States' gold. Mr. Radford, H. P. A. Vermont, has been a satisfactory representative of certain disinterested parties by him on account of the relief of distressed American sailors, but so far without result. Consul Ford is a native of Vermont.

Manchester, Jan. 4.—There were deaths Tuesday from the beer poison disease, making a total of twenty deaths up to date. Ten more brewers are under arrest, with the use of arsenic in beer charged.

Boston, Jan. 4.—Luigi Storti, the man convicted of killing Michael C. Hall with an axe during the night of Nov. 1899, has been released by the court, the superior criminal court this afternoon to stand punishment by death in the electric chair some time during the week ending Sunday, April 15.

London, Jan. 4.—Lord Roberts has communicated to the public expressing his thanks for the reception tendered him, endorses the soldiers in South Africa, and expresses his appreciation of the soldiers and sailors accompanying, and the efforts of the Prince of Wales to help out of the families of the men who have died.

Boston, Jan. 4.—The police of Dorchester have been notified that Mrs. Harry W. of Dorchester, has been receiving anonymous letters threatening her life. The letters threaten she leaves a certain sum of money at stated place her nine-year-old daughter at the Dorchester station, after sending an officer to investigate, expresses the opinion that the letters are sent by a person who is knowing the nervous condition of the wife, and has taken mean advantage.

Yreka, Ore., Jan. 4.—Snow to the depth of three feet fell on Thursday, and the storm has not ceased. Buildings have collapsed under the tremendous weight. North and south, about nine miles in length, the snowed in the mountains in the points on the line of the railroad. The fort Jones and Elma are isolated, and the soldiers are trying to cover a distance of 18 miles.

Boston, Jan. 4.—Geo. Von M. has recently appointed ambassador from the United States to Italy, left Boston yesterday for Rome, accompanied by his wife, children and a corps of servants. They will sail from New York tomorrow on the steamer Europa, and will reach Rome in four days and by the way of Gibraltar.

Philadelphia, Jan. 4.—A frightful explosion of powder occurred today at the powder machine house of the Republic Powder Works, at the foot of the street of Thompson Point, N. J., 12 miles below the city. The building was annihilated, the three workmen in it at the time killed. The explosion was caused by John Byrne, Walter White and John Kirk. Several workmen in other buildings hurt by the force of the explosion.

Sing Sing, N. Y., Jan. 5.—The electric chair which has been idle for several months, will be put in operation in execution room at this place early today. The first man to be executed will suffer the death penalty for the murder of his fellow countryman Vincenzo agnes, a baker, who was employed as a clerk-drug store in New York when on December 11, 1898, he shot Garaguso in a revenge for a quarrel over a woman.

Richmond, Wis., Jan. 4.—Bishop C. of Richmond, who presided over the American House of Bishops, is attending the Living Church, the organ of the Unitarian party in the city.

St. Louis, Mo., Jan. 4.—The usual coronation ceremonies at Fond du Lac, Wis. Clarke is charged with assuming authority equal to that claimed for the pope, and is charged with the violation of the law. It is intimated that charges will be filed today to bring the matter before the general convention of the church at St. Paul.

Boston, Jan. 4.—The U. S. Rubber company has cut the prices of its products beginning today, five per cent, and the company will relate to its jobbers and retailers the same reduction. Negotiations which have been pending of the 14 independent companies have been declared off, and no further effort will be made to bring about a combination, it is said. The present cut in prices is accompanied by the announcement that other and more severe cut will be in April.

is gasping and choking with croup. If you haven't it get a bottle. I will save your child's life.

"Shiloh always cured my baby of croup coughs and colds. I would not be without it."

MRS. ROBINSON, Fort Erie.

Shiloh's Consumption Cure is sold by a druggists in Canada and United States at 25c, 50c, $1.00 a bottle. In Great Britain at 1s. 2d., 2s. 3d., and 4s. 6d. A printed guarantee goes with every bottle. If you are not satisfied go to your druggist and get your money back.

Write for illustrated book on Consumption sent to you free. S. C. Wells & Co., Toronto.

The house was built in 1890 and cost $50,000. The interior was handsomely furnished at a cost of $15,000.

---

Another Calais Fire.

St. Stephen, Jan. 6.—(Special)—Sunday morning about 3 o'clock fire was discovered in W. A. Colmer's restaurant. Synthetic brick block, Calais, considerable damage was done in the place as well as to other stores in the block, mostly by smoke and water. The loss is covered by insurance.

Tired Feeling.—“Was all run down and had no appetite. Was tired all the time. Hood's Sarsaparilla was suggested, and trial benefited me so much that now I would not be without the medicine.” MRS. G. D. HUNNETT, Central Norton, N. B.

Hood's Sarsaparilla
Never Disappoints

Hood's Pills cure liver ills, the non-irritating and only cathartic to take with Hood's Sarsaparilla.

An Insurgent Governor Has Been Captured.

Monday, the twelfth day of January next, at 10 o'clock a.m.

Meetings for the selection of delegates, the convention will be held in each Polling District, and will be called by the local chairman.

Each Polling District will be entitled to choose one delegate for every fifty votes (or fraction thereof) cast for the governing candidate at the election held on the 27th of September last.

All Supporters of the government are cordially invited to attend the District Meeting and take part in the selection of delegates.

Will be the 27th day of November, A.D. 1890.

WILLIAM PUGSEY,
GEORGE G. SCOVILL,