

Waite Goes to Tombs; Insanity His Defence

to other points in Kings county and adjoining counties. Thus Mr. Titus became as almost as well known to the other counties as in his native county of Kings. His cheerful and friendly greeting and kind and helpful disposition won him many friends wherever he went.

MRS. MARGARET HORTON, who now denies she is the "other woman," Mrs. Horton had a studio at a New York hotel, where she and Waite, the self-confessed poisoner of his father and mother-in-law, studied languages.

New York, April 12.—Pale, with down-cast head and eyes, that never were raised to look elsewhere than at the floor, Dr. Arthur Warren Waite was taken before Judge Crane in general sessions court, yesterday morning to plead to an indictment charging murder in the first degree. Waite said no word. His attorney, Walter H. Deane, entered a plea of not guilty with leave to withdraw or amend within ten days.

Waite's defence will be mental irresponsibility. His counsel made that plain yesterday, though he declined to discuss the subject. The prisoner's appearance in court was distinctly that of a negative personality. His face bore no expression beyond a slightly silly squint as if he were frightened and trying to

OBITUARY

Mrs. Mary Gray. In the death of Mrs. Mary Gray, of Springfield, Kings county, the community lost one of its most valued members. Her character was one of those rare combinations of self-sacrificing kindness, great energy and deep spirituality that makes the ideal woman. Her last illness was marked by suffering which was borne with Christian patience and resignation which made her closing days a benediction to those who ministered to her. She was 79 years of age and leaves her husband and four daughters.

Nelson Gough. At North View, Victoria county, on March 20, after a short illness, he passed away an old and respected resident of that place. Nelson Gough, aged ninety years, leaving two sons, Captain Fred Gough of St. Martins (N. B.), and George E. of North View. Mr. Gough was born at New Horton, Albert county, and resided there till about twenty years ago. He then moved to Victoria county (N. B.).

David Andrews. Very early yesterday morning David Andrews passed away at his residence, 42 Victoria street. He had reached the advanced age of ninety-eight years. For sixty years he was one of the best known captains of the coasting trade of St. John. He had been a resident of the North End for about forty years. He was twice married and by his first wife leaves a son, Wellington Andrews, of this city; and by the surviving wife, two children, J. Walker Andrews and Miss Janie Andrews, also of St. John. He was one of the best known men in the North End. He was a highly respected member of the Victoria street Baptist church. He was a man known for his love of law and honesty. The funeral services will be held at his late home in Victoria street this evening at 8 o'clock, and burial will be at Brown's Plots tomorrow morning.

Mrs. David E. Morris. Tuesday, April 11. The death occurred yesterday, at her residence, Brunswick street, of Mrs. David E. Morris in her sixty-fifth year. The funeral will be held on Wednesday from her late residence, service beginning at 2.30 o'clock.

Douglas H. Winchester. The death of Douglas H. Winchester occurred Monday at the residence of his father, Sergt. Winchester, 32 Britain street, of the 118th battalion. He was in the fourth year of his age and leaves beside his father, his mother, three brothers and one sister.

Mrs. Wm. J. Ferris. At her residence, 16 Autumn street, on Sunday evening, April 9, Ellen, beloved wife of William John Ferris died, aged 84 years. She was a life-long resident of this city. Besides her husband she is survived by five daughters and four sons. The daughters are Mrs. James Wood of Auburn, Maine; Mrs. Baldick Smith of Hampton Station, to other points in Kings county and adjoining counties. Thus Mr. Titus became as almost as well known to the other counties as in his native county of Kings. His cheerful and friendly greeting and kind and helpful disposition won him many friends wherever he went.

Mrs. Robert Drake. Salisbury, April 11.—Mrs. G. Allison Drake was called to her former home at Sydney, N. S., where she was living, by the sudden illness of her mother, Mrs. Robert Drake. Mrs. Drake, who was about 80 years of age, was stricken with paralysis which she did not rally and her death occurred on the 10th inst. at her late home. She was survived by her husband, two daughters and four sons. Mrs. Drake being the youngest of the children will take possession of the estate at Sydney on Wednesday.

Mrs. Alice A. Roberts. Hopewell Hill, April 9.—Intelligence was received here last night of the death, at the home of her father, Mr. Wm. A. Roberts, Albert county, and widow of John Roberts, at one time manager of the stone quarries at the Point. Mrs. Roberts was 89 years of age and had been ill a short time. She was a woman of the most estimable qualities of heart and life, kindly and sympathetic in disposition and was beloved by all who knew her. Many old friends in this country, where she lived all her life, will be sorry to hear of her death with deep regret. Mrs. Roberts was a daughter of William Nichol, a well-known resident of Hopewell, and resided at this village during her childhood. She was twice married, her first husband being James Stevens. Some years after her death she was married to Mr. Roberts, who passed away a few years ago at an advanced age. The deceased lady was a devoted adherent of the Church of England. She leaves two daughters, Mrs. E. C. and Mrs. E. C. who was with her mother at the time of her death, and one son, Albert Stevens, of Charlottetown. Another son, George Stevens, of Harvey, died some years ago. Mrs. Roberts was one of a large family of brothers and sisters and of these the following are still living: George Nichol, of Charlottetown; Mrs. E. C. Nichol, of St. John; Mrs. Charlotte Russell, of New Hampshire; and Mrs. Amelia Underhill, of Onset (Mass.). The members of the family who have lived in this country are: James and Douglas Nichol, of Moncton; Mrs. Maria Berry, of Harvey; Mrs. Jane Acorn, of Boston, and Mrs. Lavinia Bell, of Sydney.

Patrick Byrne. Thursday, April 13. The death of Patrick Byrne occurred early last evening at his residence, 175 Erie street. Mr. Byrne was one of the best known of the eastern part of the city. For many years he was engaged in a grocery and feed business near the Marsh bridge, but of late year he had been engaged in a hay and feed business. He was a native of Ireland and was especially well read. Mr. Byrne had reached the advanced age of seventy-six years and was in excellent health for the past year. One son, Joseph, of the C. P. R. telegraph staff, and two daughters, Miss Agnes of the Murray and Miss Margaret of the Gertrude at home survive. The funeral will be held Thursday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock.

George H. Warren. Sussex, April 13.—George H. Warren, of the I. C. R. freight department here, received word today of the death at Lynn (Mass.) of his father, James Warren, after a short illness of pneumonia. Mr. Warren was about 84 years of age and was well known in Sussex, having lived here for many years before going to Lynn. He leaves to mourn, besides his wife, who before marrying Mr. Warren was the wife of William Lauchner, two sons, George H. of Sussex, and James, of Lynn, and three daughters, Mrs. Dinkley, of Florida; Miss May and Miss Helen, both at home. George Warren left today for Lynn to attend the funeral which will be held there Friday.

Richard Harding Davis. Mount Kisco, N. Y., April 12.—Richard Harding Davis, author and war correspondent, died at his home here late last night from heart trouble. His body was found early this morning. He had apparently been stricken while at his telephone. Richard Harding Davis was born in Philadelphia in 1864. He was educated at Lehigh and Johns Hopkins universities. He entered newspaper work in New York in 1888. He had been editor of the New York Sun. He was also a contributor of Harper's Weekly and was famous as a war correspondent. He has written many volumes of short stories and some novels. He was one of the most interesting correspondents in the present war and his famous war picture of the march of the German army through Brussels will not soon be forgotten. Mr. Davis was a very strong advocate of American intervention on the part of the Allies, and no writer has more bitterly arraigned the Germans for their conduct throughout the war.

Dr. M. L. Macfarland. Thursday, April 13. General regret was expressed yesterday morning when it was learned that Dr. Macfarland, M. D., a highly and respected citizen of the West Side, had passed suddenly away. Dr. Macfarland was the son of the late Charles Macfarland of Dromore, Tyrone county, Ireland, who came to this country and settled at White Head, Kings county, where Dr. Macfarland was born. The latter, after studying at the Harvard Medical School from which he was graduated in 1872. He started practicing his profession in this city.

N. B. Lieutenant Killed; Several Others Wounded

Ottawa, April 13.—The names of six Maritime Province men appear in the midnight casualty list; three from New Brunswick and three from Nova Scotia. The New Brunswick casualties are reported as follows: "Missing, believed killed," Lieutenant Frank Edwin Lockhart, kin at Pettitodice (N. B.); Lance Corporal Raymond Beever, kin at Carleton street, Fredericton (N. B.); reported "wounded," and Lieutenant Charles Irving Douglas, kin at Pettitodice (N. B.). The Nova Scotia casualties are: "Died," Burton Allan Simms, kin at Liverpool (N. S.); "wounded," Nelson Edward Brown, kin at Windsor (N. S.), and also "wounded," Lieutenant Dennis Stairs, kin at Halifax (N. S.), and Herbert Marshall Hoffman, kin at 25 North Park street, Halifax "wounded," Driver Cyril Walter Bruce-Moore, kin at Stellarton (N. S.). In an earlier list of thirty names, but one of those appearing has kin in Canada, the remainder all coming from some part of the British Isles.

NEW PRODUCE ON LOCAL MARKET AT MODERATE PRICES

Market prices have again undergone a revision, particularly in the case of molasses and sugar, both of which show substantial advances. New produce is making its appearance in the market and has been in good demand. Prevailing prices are as follows:

Table with columns for various commodities and their prices. Includes sections for COUNTRY MARKET, GROCERIES, and PROVISIONS.

WAR SUMMARY

Private Thomas L. Coram, whose death was announced Wednesday.

GERMAN MORALS

Waves of A of Meuse. No Cessation Canadians Sector—Run but Meet S

DRASTIC ACTION, SAYS WASHINGTON IN SUSSEX CASE

from Calcutta from Elbow. Her gross tonnage was 3,819. She was built in 1904, and owned in Dundee.

WEDDINGS

Lewis-Cameron. At the home of the officiating clergyman, Rev. E. S. Porter, last evening, a quiet wedding was celebrated.

WEDDINGS

Burke-Tracy. At the home of the bride's parents, Bridgewater Boundary, Carleton county, on the afternoon of Wednesday, March 29, Stanley Burke, eldest son of George Burke of Knoxford, and Miss Tracy, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Archibald Tracy, were united in marriage by Rev. W. J. Kelly, of the United Baptist church.

WEDDINGS

Stevens-Smith. A very pretty wedding took place at Andover (N. B.) on Tuesday, April 4.

N. B. Lieutenant Killed; Several Others Wounded

Ottawa, April 13.—The names of six Maritime Province men appear in the midnight casualty list; three from New Brunswick and three from Nova Scotia.

NEW PRODUCE ON LOCAL MARKET AT MODERATE PRICES

Market prices have again undergone a revision, particularly in the case of molasses and sugar, both of which show substantial advances.

Table with columns for various commodities and their prices. Includes sections for COUNTRY MARKET, GROCERIES, and PROVISIONS.

WAR SUMMARY

Private Thomas L. Coram, whose death was announced Wednesday.

GERMAN MORALS

Waves of A of Meuse. No Cessation Canadians Sector—Run but Meet S

DRASTIC ACTION, SAYS WASHINGTON IN SUSSEX CASE

from Calcutta from Elbow. Her gross tonnage was 3,819. She was built in 1904, and owned in Dundee.

WEDDINGS

Lewis-Cameron. At the home of the officiating clergyman, Rev. E. S. Porter, last evening, a quiet wedding was celebrated.

WEDDINGS

Burke-Tracy. At the home of the bride's parents, Bridgewater Boundary, Carleton county, on the afternoon of Wednesday, March 29, Stanley Burke, eldest son of George Burke of Knoxford, and Miss Tracy, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Archibald Tracy, were united in marriage by Rev. W. J. Kelly, of the United Baptist church.

WEDDINGS

Stevens-Smith. A very pretty wedding took place at Andover (N. B.) on Tuesday, April 4.

Advertisement for GIVEN FREE, featuring a watch and promotional text.