Midgets Made Strong But Hopeless Attack On Falcons' Big Lead

Won From Westerners 7-2, But Fell Short Three Goals—Game Was Rough Throughout.

TORONTO, March 27.—Stratford juniors last night defeated the Falcons of Windsor, 7 goals to 2, in a game which was a real test of the midgets' strength. The Falcons, who were the favorites, were defeated by a score of nine goals to two and the round, 11 to 2.

Stratford could not overcome the lead in the first game, but did make a strong comeback, and gave their conquerors of the first game a sound beating.

From the beginning of the game Stratford forced the pace. All the same, entering the game seven goals behind at the beginning of the third period, they still wanted five tallies to equal the score on the Falcons. They were not to be so easily outdone, and they would have pulled out the most sensational victory in the history of the game, but the breaks went against them and the Falcons' goal-keeper was too good.

From the commencement of the game the midgets forced the pace. In each period they had at least 90 per cent of the play. By close checking and heavy body checking, they stopped the rushes of the speedy westerners and, bit by bit, backed them into defensive tactics. At the end of the second period they had won the Falcons to a show of the team which was in such an outstanding fashion Thursday night. In the third period, the Falcons got coastly four shots on goal, but the midgets' defense was too strong. The Falcons' goal-keeper was too good.

"NO JOKE FOR THE ADDICTED PLAYERS THIS TIME"—CROWE

144 Indictments Against 18 Persons in Second Cook County Investigation.

CHICAGO, March 26.—One hundred and forty-four indictments, naming eighteen men, were returned by the Cook County grand jury as a result of the second investigation into the alleged throwing of the 1913 world's series to Cincinnati by the Chicago White Sox players. Eighty-nine indictments were returned against each player.

The indictments named the thirteen men indicted at the first trial, and also five men charged with taking part in arranging the game. The men were Carl Zerk and Ben Franklin of St. Louis, Ben and Louis Levi, said to be from St. Paul, and Ed and Ed Zeiler, address unknown.

The men indicted were: Eddie Cicotte, pitcher; Claude Williams, pitcher; Joe Jackson, outfielder; Fred McMurphy, utility infielder; "Chick" Gandil, first baseman; "Swede" Osterberg, shortstop; Oscar "Doc" Fisk, catcher; "Buck" Weaver, third baseman; Hal Chase, Bill Burns, Abe Attel, one-time champion featherweight pugilist; Joe Sullivan, alleged gambler; and Rachel Brown, 19-year-old girl.

Robert E. Crowe, state's attorney, announced that after the indictments were returned that he already had started extradition proceedings against the men named, and that he would make every effort to apprehend them at once.

There will be no jokes about this investigation, and no dropping of the charges brought in these indictments, said Mr. Crowe. "We have proceeded carefully, made sure of every legal detail, and we will not miss our mark when we bring these men to trial."

Mr. Crowe refused to say when the men might be brought to trial, but indicated that the trial would not start immediately.
