

LIST.

	Page
I.—United States Arctic Expedition in Search of Sir John Franklin	3. 188
II.—Proceedings of Sir John Ross.—“Felix” Discovery Vessel	4
III.—Letter from Hudson’s Bay Company with intelligence of Captain Collinson’s Expedition, and arrangements for supplies on the coast of America	11
IV.—Dr. Rae’s Expedition	15
V.—Proceedings of Commander Pullen’s Boat Expedition	23
VI.—Proceedings of Her Majesty’s Ship “Enterprise,” Captain Collinson, C.B.	65
VII.—Proceedings of Her Majesty’s Ships “Dædalus” and “Plover”	79
VIII.—Journal of Mr. John Simpson, Surgeon of Her Majesty’s Ship “Plover,” in command of a detached Party to the Eastern Head of Hotham’s Inlet, Kotzebue Sound, in May 1850	91
IX.—Lieutenant Pim’s Proposal to conduct an Expedition to proceed through Siberia to the Mouth of the River Kolyma, and to explore the Arctic Shore from Cape Sievero Vostotchini Nos to the North Cape of Captain Cook	94
X.—Lieutenant Hooper’s Offer of Service to conduct an Expedition from the Mouth of the Coppermine River across to Victoria Land, and to explore the Eastern Coast of that Land from Cape Colborne (the last known Point), striking North, toward Lieutenant Sherard Osborn’s furthest in Latitude 71° 52’, Longitude 103° W.	99
XI.—Captain Penny’s Offer of Service to continue the Exploration of Queen Victoria Channel, discovered by him, to the North-west	101
XII.—Lieutenant Sherard Osborn’s Plan of Search	102
XIII.—Commander Rochfort Maguire’s Proposal to communicate with Behring’s Straits with an Auxiliary Screw Steam Vessel	105
XIV.—Letters from Captain Austin and Commander Pullen, containing Suggestions for the Equipment of an Arctic Travelling Party	106
XV.—Report from Officers appointed to examine Captain Penny and the Officers of the “Lady Franklin” and “Sophia” at Woolwich, on the Subject of their Discoveries	111
XVI.—Miscellaneous	125
Report of Researches made by order of the Russian Government	125
Geological Remarks, and List of Specimens collected in Captain Austin’s Expedition	127
Letter from Mr. Lee, of the “Prince of Wales,” respecting the Inlet explored by him in 1848	128
Letter from Major Bentham, containing Suggestions for depositing Notices	129
Letter from Sir James C. Ross on the subject of the missing Expedition	130
Ditto from Mr. Roome	130
Ditto from Shillinglaw	130
Ditto from Mr. Christophers	133
Letter from Lieut. Col. Smith, suggesting that Balloons should be stained bright red	134
Letter from Lieut. Gilmore, offering Suggestions	134
Letter from Hudson’s Bay Company, transmitting English version of the German translation of the Deposition of Adam Beck	135
XVII.—Additional Papers	137
Mr. M’Cormick’s plan of search by boat and sledge	137
Commander Pullen’s plan of search	140
Sir John Ross’s ditto	141
Mr. Petermann’s ditto	142
Instructions to Admiral Moresby to send supplies to the “Plover”	147
Lieutenant Hooper’s Journal	148
Letter of approval to Captain Moore, Her Majesty’s Ship “Plover,” informing him of his promotion	186
Orders to Commander Maguire appointed to command Her Majesty’s Discovery Ship “Plover”	187
Report of the American Arctic Expedition, by Lieutenant De Haven of the United States Navy, 5th February 1852	188
Further Proceedings of Captain Collinson, C.B.	200
Mr. Beatson’s Steam Expedition by Behring’s Straits	215