

CONTENTS

Frontispiece—Major Justus Willson. More Decorations Won by Forty-Niners for Heroism and Service 1 Edmonton Proud of the Record Made by her Regiment 5 Sick Parade 6 The Colonel Missing. A Story from the Somme Battlefield 7 Things as They Are. By the Chaplain of the Regiment 9 Women of Britain 11 Transport Notes 11	The Colonel's Message to the Men of his Regiment 13 Things We Want to Know 16 For Prisoners in Germany 16 The Grenade Platoon... .. 18 The Mother of the Regiment... .. 20 The Experiences of a Conscientious Objector. By "Sandbag" 21 Do Your Best 22 With the Band 22 That Fifty Franc Pay... .. 24 Correspondence 25 Christmas Dinner of Officers' Mess... .. 27
-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

"In this world where much is to be done, and little is to be known, help us to play the man. Give us to go blithely about our daily task, eager to be happy if happiness is to be our lot; or, if the day be marked with sorrow, strong to endure."