The Roxborough, Ottawa,

xxxxxxx July 4th, 1913.

Right Honourable Lewis Harcourt, Secretary of State for the Colonies,
House of Commons,
London, England.

My dear Mr. Harcourt:

May I have the pleasure of introducing to you Mr. H.W. Rowell, the Leader of the Liberal party in the Province of Ontario.

Mr. Rowell intends making a brief stay in England during the summer and I have thought that if he could be so fortunate as to meet with yourself and one or two of your colleagues it would be not less profitable and pleasurable to him than to you.

As Leader of the Liberal party in the province of Ontario, Mr. Rowell has the confidence and hearty support of the entire party and we have few citizens in the Dominion of whom Canadians are more justly proud.

With kind regards, believe me,

Yours very sincerely,
