To the Hon. W. Lyon Mackenzie King Roxborough Apartment

I wonder whether you will care to accept congratulation from me, on your acceptance of the leadership of the leadership of the Liberal Party. I think you will, if only from the point of view of its novelty of expression, although I would have you do so also from the point of view of its sincerity, a sincerity that has been driven in by the hammer of bitter experience, as you will see -

One year ago I was stricken down suddenly with that dread disease T.B.
After many months in bed, my wife placed in my hands Dr. McDougall King's book on the complaint. I studied it, learned its principles and came to regard it as a perfect direction for the patient. I have not found it wrong
