In reply to your letter of the 23rd instant, I beg to say that an accountable cheque for $60.00 is being sent you in order that payment may be made to freighters.

In view of the fact that spring operations will soon commence and the probability of additional members of St. Peter's Band removing to their new reserve, it is thought that Mr. Sinclair's services can be fully utilized in addition to Mr. Harper's and he will, therefore, be retained at least for the present.

Your obedient servant,
