

LIKE AND LIKE.

[FROM THE GERMAN OF GOETHE.]

A blue-bell dainty
From earthy womb
Was early budded
In lovely bloom ;
A bee alighted
And gently sipped —
They must for each other
Have been equipped.

MIGNON.

[FROM THE GERMAN OF GOETHE.]

Only he my pain has known
Who feels heart yearning!
Separated and alone,
In grief and mourning,
Far beyond this earth I'm prone,
To Heaven turning.
Him by whom I'm loved and known
There's no discerning ;
Sick and giddy I have grown,
My heart is burning.
Only he my pain has known
Who feels heart yearning!