

The MacDougall Challenge Cup, competed for, for the fifth time, was won by Private Mitchell, 13th Battalion, with a score of 33 points.

The London Merchants' Cup was a new feature in the prize list for this year, introduced in lieu of the Provincial Match, under somewhat similar conditions, and was won this year by the Province of Quebec, the five competitors scoring a total of 279 points.

The number of Entries for the several Prizes were as under,—

1st Stage, All-Comers Match.....	124
2nd " " "	22
1st " Dominion "	121
2nd " " "	20
Senate and House of Commons.....	97
Battalion	12
London Merchants' Cup.....	4 Provinces.
MacDougall Challenge Cup.....	93

Competitors from the four Provinces of Ontario, Quebec, New Brunswick, Nova Scotia, were present, several of whom had represented Canada at Wimbledon this year. Some of these from a distance occupied tents pitched near the Ranges.

The weather during the Meeting was very changeable, and on the whole not conducive to good shooting, yet the scores made at this Meeting were of a very high average,

The marking in the Butts was well carried out by men from A Battery, School of Gunnery, Kingston, under charge of Lieut. Holmes of that Battery.

No accident occurred during the Meeting.
