

No. 2. Ditto for Duties and Licences under the Act of the 14th of His Majesty, between ditto and ditto.

No. 3. Ditto, arising from Fines imposed by the Courts of Justice, between ditto and ditto.

No. 4. Ditto for duties under the Act of the Province, between ditto and ditto.

No. 5. An Annual Statement to shew the nett remain of Duty after the expence of the collection, compared with what is taken out of the pocket of the Subject, with the progress of the diminution before and after it gets into the public coffers, between ditto and ditto.

No. 6 & 7. Accounts of part of the Civil Expenditure of last year and by which it will appear, that the Expences have exceeded the Revenues in the sum of sixteen thousand one hundred twenty-two pounds twelve shillings and two pence three farthings.

No. 8. Estimate of such part of the civil expenditure for the ensuing year as may enable the House of Assembly to calculate the ways and means for the most necessary supplies, all the pensions amounting to one Thousand seven hundred eighty two pounds, six shillings and seven pence sterling, though chiefly granted for services rendered to Canada, are deducted, these services being considered as rendered to the Empire at large, it is from thence therefore their reward with other Acts of Benevolence may be expected to flow. The salaries of sundry Officers to the amount of seven hundred eighty two pounds ten shillings appearing to belong to the Military rather than the civil expenditure are also deducted.

The Governor doubts not the readiness of the House to grant such aids on account of this expenditure, as may be most easily raised by imposts on articles of luxury without being injurious to commerce.

No. 9. to 20. The Governor has also directed to be laid before the House of Assembly, the accounts of duties received by the collector of the customs, by virtue of several Acts of Parliament passed in the 25th year of Charles the 2d. chap. 7th, 6th, George the 2d, chap. 13, 4th George 3d chap. 15th, and 6th, George 3d chap. 52, for the years 1792 1793 and 1794, which shew the several articles of commerce on which duties at present are laid, the nett proceeds whereof, amounting to six hundred eighty eight pounds, one shilling and one penny farthing per annum as per Statement; are paid into the receipt of His Majesty's Exchequer in Great Britain, " to be there entered separate and apart from " all other monies, to be reserved to be from time to time disposed of by " Par-
