

Qualification
of voters and proceedings at elections in British Columbia.

11. In the Province of British Columbia, the qualification of voters shall, in places (if any) for which voters' lists have been made for the Legislative Assembly under any Provincial law in that behalf, then in force, be the same as that established by such law, and such lists shall be used at the elections; but if no such lists have been made, and in places for which such lists have not been made, the qualification shall be the same as at the last election of Members of the House of Commons, and in all other respects the like laws and rules shall be observed, and the like instructions given, for the conduct of and the proceedings at elections of Members of the House of Commons, as were observed and given at the now last elections of Members of the House of Commons in the said Province.

GENERAL PROVISION.

Penalty for corruption on candidates not elected.

12. If any candidate who shall not have been returned is proved guilty before the proper tribunal for using during any such election means of corruption, he shall be incapable of being a candidate or being elected or returned during the Parliament for which such election was held.

EBP. XV.

An Act to compel Members of the Local Legislature in any Province where dual representation is not allowed, to resign their Seats before becoming Candidates for Seats in the Dominion Parliament.

[Assented to 14th June, 1872.]

reamble.

HER MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

A Member of any Local Legislature,
in which
Members of Canadian Parliament are not allowed to sit, not to be eligible as a Member of House of Commons.

1. No person shall be eligible to, or be capable of being nominated to or voted for, or of being elected to, or of sitting or voting in the House of Commons, who, on the day of the Nomination at any election to the House of Commons, is a Member of the Legislative Council or Assembly of any Province in which, by Law, Members of the Senate or House of Commons are rendered incapable of being appointed to, or of sitting or voting in the Legislative Council, or of being elected to, or of sitting or voting in the House of Assembly thereof, or who, on the day of any such Nomination is a Member of the Legislative Assembly in any Province in which, by Law, after the dissolution of the present
