Dame Rumor reports a wedding on church street.

Mr. and Mrs. Gray, of Elma, visited Wm. Johnston last week.

A. McLaughlin and sister of Derking, were the guests of Miss N. Johnston on Sunday.

The cheese factory of this place is booming under the management of Mr. Louder.

James Wood, of Napanee, has returned home on a visit to his friends before leaving for Detroit.

The Sabbath evenings appear to be greatly enjoyed by the young folk driving around the block.

One of our 10th line nimrods has been seen loitering around the post office at nights lately. Are you trying to learn the operating, Andy?

The Methodist church of this place has been undergoing some cleaning of late. We think if a little paint were added it would make things look still brighter.

Mr. Miller, our popular hotel-keeper, has laid a sidewalk in front of his house which was much needed, and if one were to be put all along to the bride it would be very creditable to the citizens.

Rev. Mr. Amy preached a very beautiful and instructive sermon on Sunday, the 31st ult., on the death of the late Mrs. B. Johnston. He displayed some very clear and beautiful points, and urged upon all, young and old, to "prepare to meet their God."

Grey.

Reeve Milne and Deputy-Reeves Oliver and Bryan are attending County Council this week.

A log barn belonging to John Roddick, 14th con., was burned Friday night May 29th. The cause of the fire was a spark from a burning pile of brush.

The cheese factories are complaining that, owing to the large number of calves being raised by the farmers, the milk supply is not nearly so large as it should be this year.

Mrs. French, of Hamilton, was visiting her sister, Mrs. George Crooks, and other relatives in this locality last week. She came up to attend the funeral of her brother, Wm. Armstrong, 3rd line, Morris.

On Monday night of last week during the heavy rain storm a wire fence on the farm of Wm. Taylor, 10th con., was struck by lightning. The four top wires were stripped off and several posts split. This is unusual.

An association of Patrons of Industry was organized on Wednesday evening of last week at Whitfield's school house. The following officers were duly elected:—Wm. Carnochan, President; Isaac Lake, Vice-President; Joseph Whitfield, Secretary; John Whitfield, Treasurer; Elizabeth Whitfield, Minerva; Sarah Dougherty, Demeter; John Patterson, Guide; Wm. Buttery, Sentinel.

STATISTICAL.—The following is a recapitulation of the Township Assessment Roll for 1891, as furnished by Clerk Spence:—Value of real property, $1,696,470; Personal property, $4,300; Real and personal property, $1,700,770; No. of acres, 64,606 3/4; acres cleared, 38,793; Children between 5 and 16 years, 975; between 5 and 13, 571; over 16 and under 21, 245; Dogs, 396; Persons in family, 3,744; Cattle, 6,470; Sheep, 3,282; Hogs, 1,709; Horses, 2,036; Acres wood land, 7,050; Acres swamp, 17,700 1/2; acres orchard, 451 1/4; acres wheat, 3,551 1/2.

Turnberry.

Mr. and Miss McGee, of Wawanosh, were visiting friends in the village last week.

Mrs. Wylie, who has been suffering from a sprained ankle, is now able to be about again.

Just within the meadow,
Underneath the tree,
Near the snow-white daisy,
Eager sings the bee.

The Bluevale Ironsides played a game of football with the Gorrie Rangers in Wingham on 25th of May, for a silver cup. The Ironsides succeeded in carrying off the cup, defeating the Rangers by 1 to 0.

MAKE A STAND FOR PROHIBITION.
Yes, I'm 'gainst that politician,
Who with cool and calm derision
Seeks to hinder prohibition
Every time.

True, he holds a high position,
Yet this is no proper reason
Why he talks 'gainst prohibition
All the time.

Yes, we find in each division
Men for sake of opposition,
Who oppose grand prohibition
Every time.

Then ye men for prohibition,
Fight against this superstition,
And the anti-prohibition
All the time.

What! not fight for prohibition,
And against a coalition
Formed to ruin, prohibition,
Every time?

Bring the cabinet to decision,
Make them give their needed sanction
To a bill for prohibition,
Every time.

Cast your vote for prohibition,
You shall never rue the action,
But will hasten prohibition
All the time.

Live no longer 'neath delusion,
And you'll gain the approbation
Of all men for prohibition,
Every time.

Rum has been the ruination
Of young men, by its temptation,
What we want is prohibition
All the time.

If we wish a land Elysian,
We must have that one condition
Namely, "total prohibition"
All the time.

Elma.

What about T. M. W.'s family group? Newry cheese factory made a large shipment of May cheese on Tuesday last.

A very pleasant social gathering was held at the residence of John Morrison, Newry, last Friday evening. Over fifty couples were present.

It is the intention of many of the teachers of our township to attend the International Teachers' Convention, to be held in Toronto July 14th to 17th.

J. T. Anderson, of Donegal, says he took in 700 dozen eggs in five days recently. This is certainly an enormous gathering and dealers in hen fruit will have to "get a move on" to beat it.

Andrew Robb, 12th con., east, who underwent an operation in Listowel under the treatment of Messrs. Rutherford and Parke, is speedily recovering. We hope soon to welcome him back to our midst.

Logging bees are now the chief amusement for the young men of our township. In most instances they are allowed to shake the dust off their feet by "tripping the light fantastic" until the wee sma' hours.

Messrs. Robt. and Eli Moore and sister, of Trowbridge, spent Saturday night and Sunday with W. R. Humphrey, of Newry. There seems to be some strong attraction in the neighboring village of Atwood for the former young gentleman.

The managing committee of the monster picnic, to be held on the 12th con., on Friday, 19th inst., are working with might and main to have a successful gathering. Everybody come, you will be made welcome. Refreshments will be served on the ground.

On Wednesday, of last week, Wm. Hamilton, 14th con., raised the framework of a large barn. The same day Geo. Nichol, 10th con., west, also placed the timbers of a barn 50x60 in their places. It is gratifying to see the farmers progressing as they are the back-bone of our country.

On Tuesday last a 13 year old son of Andrew Peebles, 8th con., had the misfortune to get kicked in the face by a horse he was walking behind. The shoe left an ugly wound which may disfigure him for life. Dr. Hamilton was immediately summoned, who sewed up the wound and attended to his other injuries.

The many friends will regret to learn the death of Mrs. John Shatford, 8th con., aged 37 years and two months. Consumption was the cause of her untimely end, which took place on Monday of this week. A husband and three small children are left to mourn her loss. Funeral took place on Wednesday, interment in the Donegal cemetery.

A remarkable coincidence is related of Sir John Macdonald's memory. Many years ago Moses Harvey, the worthy Treasurer of Elma township, was a delegate to the Conservative convention, held in Toronto, and, among others, he was introduced to the Premier. During Sir John's recent visit to Listowel hundreds of people took occasion to shake hands with the Old Man, and when Mr. Harvey's turn came to reach forth his hand the veteran Premier at once recognized the face he had seen long years before and fervently grasped both of Mr. Harvey's hands in his own with that warmth of genuine friendship and common brotherhood which was a pleasing and winning characteristic of the distinguished man all through life. Sir John seldom, if ever, forgot faces.

OBIT.—The announcement of the death of the wife of Wm. Ingles, 8th con., at 6 o'clock Thursday evening, June 4th, filled the breasts of her many friends with an unfeigned sorrow. Many circumstances combined to make the death of the deceased a peculiarly affecting one. She was but 25 years of age with bright prospects. She had been married only four years; the four happy years seem but as yesterday when they are past. Two little boys, one a mere infant the other but two years of age, are left without a mother. How we are reminded that those that can be least spared on earth are most wanted in heaven. As far as will be proper let us draw aside the curtain that hid the private life of our departed friend. Mrs. Ingles was the eldest daughter of Thos. Forman, 4th con. of Elma. Mary was the favorite of the family. Father and mother could confide in her their anxieties. The elder brother and sisters found in her a loving companion. The younger members of the family one who could sympathize with their childish griefs. The sweet influence of her life filled the home with a continual sunshine. While special services were being held in Listowel by Messrs. Crossly and Hunter Mrs. Ingles was led to the Saviour and she has since been a consistent follower of her Master. She will long be remembered in this school section where she received her education. At the Public school entertainments and in the Sabbath school her voice was heard leading in song. Her cheerful manner and contented disposition made for her friends wherever she went. During her last illness deceased showed a fortitude, a patience, a submission, that is known only to the child of God. In her last hours the name of Christ was often on her lips. The dying words spoken to the now lonely husband and stricken father and mother will be to them an inspiration through life. The last hours were spent in song. That beautiful hymn "Lift me higher, higher" that we have heard her sing in the happy days as the family circled around the father at home was a favorite. As she sang in sweet clear tones, Higher! Higher! Christ did lift her up to God. Thenceforth that voice shall join in the celestial choir in the songs of Moses and the Lamb. The burial took place on Saturday at 2:30 p. m. The Rev. A. Henderson, M. A., conducted an impressive service at her late residence and all that was mortal of Mrs. Ingles was borne to the Elma Centre cemetery accompanied by a large procession of sorrowing and sympathizing friends.
