Obituaries

Caleb R. Masters

Word has been received here of the death at Nanaimo B. C. of Caleb R. Masters, son of the late C. A. Masters, of Kentville. He leaves a wife and one son. His brothers and sisters are F. A. Masters, Mrs. R. A. Masters, and Mrs. John Publicover, of Kentville, Miss Rose Masters, and Mr. J. F. Masters, of Boston, and Mrs. Henry Thomas, of Melrose Mass and many here will learn with sorrow of his death.

Mr. Masters, has been absent from Kentville, over 25 years and was engaged in the dry goods business. He was visiting his relatives here three years ago. At that time he went to Chicago Hospital for treatment and was informed there was nothing malignant in the condition of his throat, the third time while there under treatment about a year ago he was informed that an operation was necessary to save his life and the larynx and a cancerous growth was removed. He gradually grew worse after the operation and never recovered his speech. He died on Sept 19th.

Woodville is again saddened by the death of one of her boys Lance Corporal Herbert Freeman Beach, who nobly and gallantly gave his life in defence of the empire on August 27th.

Herbert and his brother Gordon, the only sons of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Beach enlisted in Woodville Hall on Dec. 6th. 1915 in the 112th., Battalion and trained in Kentville, later in Windsor until July 1916 when the Batt. sailed "Overseas," where they were transferred to the 25th. Both brothers fought side by side until Gordon was called upon to make the supreme sacrifice on Aug. 15th, 1917 During the siege of Vimy Ridge, Herbert was shelled shocked, but to that time he had escaped the Prussian shells.

Lance Corporal Herbert was a highly esteemed member of the I. O. O. F. M. U. He was a man and soldier of sterling qualities and the bad intelligence of him being killed in Action has left a vacancy in the home and community, which can never be filled. He has given his all and his name will ever be revered and handed down from generation to generation as being among those, who have fallen for the Great Cause. Heartfelt sympathy is extended to the bereaved parents and sister.

Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friend John XV. 13

Asahael Taylor

Berwick, Sept. 27.—The death took place yesterday at his home in South Berwick, Kings County, only a week's illness of Asahael Taylor. He was one of the oldest residents in the community, and was highly respected by all who knew him. He was taken ill a week ago with Spanish influenza which developed into blood poisoning and pneumonia. Mrs. Taylor died several years ago. A granddaughter kept house for him, his sons and daughters being residents in the United States. The funeral was held this afternoon and was conducted by Rev. Charles H. Johnson, pastor of Wesley Church, of which the deceased was a member.

Emily M. Allison

Mrs. Emily M. Allison formerly of Avondale died at Billtown on Sept. 16th. Service was held at Billtown by Dr. A. C. Bordea and the remains taken to Avondale.

Mrs. Allison leaves one daughter Mrs. Jas. A. Ross at Billtown. She had before her death been undergoing treatment at the Infirmary Halifax.

Mrs. B. A. Weston.

Halifax, Sept. 21.—Mrs. B. A. Weston, wife of Colonel Weston, died last evening. Mrs. Weston was prominent in Halifax social circles. Her son, Colonel Arthur Weston, went overseas with the 25th Battalion. Colonel Weston is general manager of the Eastern Trust Company.

Rally Day Service

The Annual Rally Day was observed Sunday morning in St. Paul's Presbyterian Church. The church was prettily decorated with Red and yellow maple leaves while every pupil wore a red maple, the service opening with the chorus "The Maple Leaf" Mr. Weaver, the superintendent conducted the service. The responsive readings were well read while the memorized passages of scripture were very well recited by Miss Betty Thompson, Miss Winnie McGill and Master George Weaver. The juvenile choir rendered special music. A special Rally Day offering was taken. The service closed with the National Anthem and God save our boys. In the evening Capt. F. A. Sawes, Chaplain at Camp Aldershot, preached. Capt. Sawes is a very pleasant speaker and was much enjoyed by those who heard him.
