

DETECTIVE KILLED A BURGLAR.

Shorty Billy" Drops in His Tracks in London.

Outcome of Housebreaking and Robbery.

Desperate Struggle With a Man Named "Texas."

A London report: While resisting arrest this afternoon a notorious character, known as "Shorty Billy," was shot and almost instantly killed by city detectives, and his "pal," known to the police as "Texas," is in the police cells charged with burglary.

During the past couple of months a number of midnight house breakings and robberies have been perpetrated in the city. The cracksmen as a rule have chosen hotels as their places of operations, and Saturday night was the time, and the local detectives have been on a still hunt for the perpetrators ever since. The latest robbery took place on Saturday night last, when Cole's turning factory on Bathurst street was broken into and a quantity of tools stolen. Yesterday, two brothers named Frank and James Watson, and Fred Meeley were arrested on suspicion of being concerned in this last crime. This morning two of the prisoners, Meeley and Frank Watson, pleaded guilty to housebreaking, and a quantity of the stolen tools were recovered.

The detectives' visit. This afternoon detectives Nickle and Egleton were detailed to search Meeley's home on Ridout street north for the rest of the stuff. They knocked on the door of the house not being answered, the officers entered unbidden, and were confronted by Meeley's mother, Mrs. Richardson. The woman accompanied Egleton upstairs, Nickle remaining below. The latter had not waited long when he walked "Texas." As Nickle gave no evidence that he recognized the newcomer, the latter was taken off his guard. Shortly afterwards Egleton came downstairs, and Nickle imparted to him in a whisper the information that "Texas" was in the house, and the two approached the room where "Texas" was putting fuel in the stove. "Texas" saw the two officers coming, he realized that he had been trapped, and instantly he whipped out a revolver from his left hip pocket. But the officers were too quick for him. They knocked the revolver from his hand, and soon had him upon the floor, where they were not overcautious to preserve his health. The struggle was a desperate one. Blood on the floor, on the walls, and on the officers' hats, and the confusion of these are among the proofs that the fight was to a finish.

Exchange of shots. "Texas" understood that he was being worsted, and he called "Billy, Billy, give it to them." Nickle had previously seen the man to whom "Texas" called, but "Shorty Billy" had put on his coat and had gone away. But he was not far away, for almost as soon as the call was made the officers saw the board shutters on the window of the room torn aside from the outside, heard the crash of glass, and at the same moment saw a revolver pointed through a window. Instantly a shot rang out, and the detectives instinctively crouched, but at the same moment pulled their revolvers from their pockets and used them. Two bullets tore through the window at the desperado. Nickle saw "Shorty" run away, and, supposing that he was preparing to enter the house to continue the fighting, called out in warning tones that he must not attempt to enter or he would be shot dead. But as he called "Shorty" had fallen in his tracks in the room and was dead, having only covered fifty feet on his way to the front of the house when death overtook him. When the detectives, a few minutes later, found "Shorty" lying dead on the snow, he still grasped in each hand a seven-shooter. "Shorty's" death was announced to the detectives by Mrs. Richardson crying out that "Freddie" had been killed. Egleton it turned out, had had a very close call, the rim of his stiff hat showing a bullet hole.

Tried to Shoot Again. Meanwhile Egleton was kept busy holding down the struggling "Texas." The revolver which the latter drew had been taken from him and was at a safe distance, so that Egleton did not fear any fresh difficulty in this quarter, when suddenly the man, having for the moment freed one arm free, drew from beneath his waistcoat another loaded weapon. "This man has another revolver," Egleton cried to his fellow-detective. Nickle and Egleton together quickly disarmed "Texas" a second time, but a moment of laxity on the part of Egleton would probably have cost him his life, for "Texas" doubtless intended to use the revolver in his fit of desperation. "Texas" was handcuffed and Officer Brown transferred to the patrol wagon and not long after was placed within the confines of a cell.

Both desperados are believed to have had records. "Texas" some three or four years ago broke jail there, where he was serving a term for robbery, and a warrant has been out for his arrest ever since. On the body of the dead man were found hidden in the lining of his coat a small steel saw, such as is used by burglars in their nocturnal raids. The collection of articles taken from the clothing of "Shorty" and found in the cottage were of a miscellaneous nature. From around his waist was taken a belt in which were fifty loaded cartridges, while a quantity of revolver ammunition was also taken from his pockets. An interesting article in the shape of a pocket electric search lamp was also found. By pressing a button this instrument gives forth a light which is very useful in penetrating the depths of keyholes when any nefarious job is being performed. Another article was the handle of a file or chisel. In addition, a diamond pin, which has been recognized as that stolen from Obernesser's hotel at the time a safe was carried bodily from that place. The safe was recovered a few weeks ago hidden in a shed a mile west of the city. "Shorty" was wearing the pin when found. The dead man also wore a fur cap resembling one stolen recently with other goods from a Glencoe store.

ALCOHOL IN MEDICINE.

Royal Templars Denounce the Practice. Toronto de p. 24. At yesterday's session the Ontario Council of the Royal Templars, again discussed the quantity of alcohol in patent medicines. An expert analysis was said to show that some of the most popular sorts contained from 10 to 25 per cent. alcohol, and that several of those with the higher percentage were purchased purely for the legislation prohibiting the sale of all such medicines which contained more than a certain percentage of alcohol. It was decided to seek legislation to prevent the sale of candies in which intoxicating liquors were used.

During the session the following alternate delegates to the Dominion Council were elected: Rev. J. Noble, Arthur; A. B. Spencer, Colingwood; T. H. McCallum, Exeter; Lewis House, Ridgeway; and W. C. Davidson, Stratford.

The afternoon session was practically devoted to the election of officers for the coming year. The delegates decided to continue to meet yearly in February, instead of in May, as some delegates proposed. The next convention will be held in Toronto.

A collection among the delegates realized almost $500, and this, with other sums from local sources, will be used to defray the expenses of the current year. The motto for new members and what to have will be "We'll hold." It was decided to have a collection among the employees of the Grand Council practically voted down all proposed amendments to the constitution.

Officers for the term are: J. A. Austin, Toronto, Grand Councilor; R. D. Venable, Trenton, Grand Vice-Councilor; Rev. W. P. Fletcher, Drayton, Grand Chaplain; W. M. McMillan, Hamilton, Grand Secretary; Clarence Mallory, Bloomfield, Grand Herald; W. J. Armstrong, Milton, Grand Treasurer; L. C. Penke, Toronto, Grand Auditor; Dr. W. C. Crawford, Hamilton, Grand Medical Examiner; J. H. Pocock, Milton; George M. Baird, Blenheim, and Jas. Hales, Toronto, with the officers named above, from the Executive.

Mrs. J. Sheppard, editor of the Royal Templar, was awarded a hearty vote of thanks for his contributions to the press and for the assistance he gave the delegates in their work.

What is done with zest is best done. There is as much devotion in duty done as in prayer said.

FIBROID TUMORS CURED.

Mrs. Hayes' First Letter Appealing to Mrs. Pinkham for Help: "DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I have been under Boston doctors' treatment for a long time without any relief. They told me I have a fibroid tumor. I can't sit down without great pain, and the soreness extends up my spine. I have bearing-down pains both back and front. My abdomen is swollen, and I have had flowing spells for three years. My appetite is not good. I cannot walk or be on my feet for any length of time.

"The symptoms of Fibroid Tumor given in your little book accurately describe my case, so I write to you for advice."—(Signed) Mrs. E. F. HAYES, 252 Dudley St. (Roxbury), Boston, Mass.

Mrs. Hayes' Second Letter:

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—Sometime ago I wrote to you describing my symptoms and asked your advice. You replied, and I followed all your directions carefully, and to-day I am a well woman.

"The use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound entirely expelled the tumor and strengthened my whole system. I can walk miles now. "Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is worth five dollars a drop. I advise all women who are afflicted with tumors, or female trouble of any kind to give it a faithful trial."—(Signed) Mrs. E. F. HAYES, 252 Dudley St. (Roxbury), Boston, Mass. —$699.90. If original of above letters proving genuineness cannot be produced.

Sunday School.

INTERNATIONAL LESSON NO. 31
FEBRUARY 25, 1934.

Healers and Doors of the Word.
Commentary.—A. Mere profession is sufficient (vs. 21, 22). A. not every one. He had just told them that they must enter in through a narrow gate and walk a narrow way, and now he intimates that many will seek to gain admittance on the ground of mere profession. That is, "Lord, Lord, true religion is faith," "Lord, Lord, true religion is more than a profession. We may acknowledge the authority of Christ, we may believe in his divinity and accept his teachings, yet truth and still withhold the love of God in the heart, we will be shut out of the kingdom. Kingdom of heaven. Defined by Paul as being "righteousness and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost" (Rom. 14, 17). He that doeth Christ's followings are "doers of the word and not hearers only" (James 1, 22). See Rev. 22, 14. The word etc. That is, the ground of more profession. That is, "Lord, Lord, true religion is more than a profession. We may acknowledge the authority of Christ, we may believe in his divinity and accept his teachings, yet truth and still withhold the love of God in the heart, we will be shut out of the kingdom. Kingdom of heaven. Defined by Paul as being "righteousness and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost" (Rom. 14, 17). He that doeth Christ's followings are "doers of the word and not hearers only" (James 1, 22). See Rev. 22, 14. The word etc. That is, the ground of more profession. That is, "Lord, Lord, true religion is more than a profession. We may acknowledge the authority of Christ, we may believe in his divinity and accept his teachings, yet truth and still withhold the love of God in the heart, we will be shut out of the kingdom. Kingdom of heaven. Defined by Paul as being "righteousness and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost" (Rom. 14, 17). He that doeth Christ's followings are "doers of the word and not hearers only" (James 1, 22). See Rev. 22, 14. The word etc. That is, the ground of more profession. That is, "Lord, Lord, true religion is more than a profession. We may acknowledge the authority of Christ, we may believe in his divinity and accept his teachings, yet truth and still withhold the love of God in the heart, we will be shut out of the kingdom. Kingdom of heaven. Defined by Paul as being "righteousness and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost" (Rom. 14, 17). He that doeth Christ's followings are "doers of the word and not hearers only" (James 1, 22). See Rev. 22, 14. The word etc. That is, the ground of more profession. That is, "Lord, Lord, true religion is more than a profession. We may acknowledge the authority of Christ, we may believe in his divinity and accept his teachings, yet truth and still withhold the love of God in the heart, we will be shut out of the kingdom. Kingdom of heaven. Defined by Paul as being "righteousness and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost" (Rom. 14, 17). He that doeth Christ's followings are "doers of the word and not hearers only" (James 1, 22). See Rev. 22, 14. The word etc. That is, the ground of more profession. That is, "Lord, Lord, true religion is more than a profession. We may acknowledge the authority of Christ, we may believe in his divinity and accept his teachings, yet truth and still withhold the love of God in the heart, we will be shut out of the kingdom. Kingdom of heaven. Defined by Paul as being "righteousness and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost" (Rom. 14, 17). He that doeth Christ's followings are "doers of the word and not hearers only" (James 1, 22). See Rev. 22, 14. The word etc. That is, the ground of more profession. That is, "Lord, Lord, true religion is more than a profession. We may acknowledge the authority of Christ, we may believe in his divinity and accept his teachings, yet truth and still withhold the love of God in the heart, we will be shut out of the kingdom. Kingdom of heaven. Defined by Paul as being "righteousness and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost" (Rom. 14, 17). He that doeth Christ's followings are "doers of the word and not hearers only" (James 1, 22). See Rev. 22, 14. The word etc. That is, the ground of more profession. That is, "Lord, Lord, true religion is more than a profession. We may acknowledge the authority of Christ, we may believe in his divinity and accept his teachings, yet truth and still withhold the love of God in the heart, we will be shut out of the kingdom. Kingdom of heaven. Defined by Paul as being "righteousness and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost" (Rom. 14, 17). He that doeth Christ's followings are "doers of the word and not hearers only" (James 1, 22). See Rev. 22, 14. The word etc. That is, the ground of more profession. That is, "Lord, Lord, true religion is more than a profession. We may acknowledge the authority of Christ, we may believe in his divinity and accept his teachings, yet truth and still withhold the love of God in the heart, we will be shut out of the kingdom. Kingdom of heaven. Defined by Paul as being "righteousness and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost" (Rom. 14, 17). He that doeth Christ's followings are "doers of the word and not hearers only" (James 1, 22). See Rev. 22, 14. The word etc. That is, the ground of more profession. That is, "Lord, Lord, true religion is more than a profession. We may acknowledge the authority of Christ, we may believe in his divinity and accept his teachings, yet truth and still withhold the love of God in the heart, we will be shut out of the kingdom. Kingdom of heaven. Defined by Paul as being "righteousness and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost" (Rom. 14, 17). He that doeth Christ's followings are "doers of the word and not hearers only" (James 1, 22). See Rev. 22, 14. The word etc. That is, the ground of more profession. That is, "Lord, Lord, true religion is more than a profession. We may acknowledge the authority of Christ, we may believe in his divinity and accept his teachings, yet truth and still withhold the love of God in the heart, we will be shut out of the kingdom. Kingdom of heaven. Defined by Paul as being "righteousness and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost" (Rom. 14, 17). He that doeth Christ's followings are "doers of the word and not hearers only" (James 1, 22). See Rev. 22, 14. The word etc. That is, the ground of more profession. That is, "Lord, Lord, true religion is more than a profession. We may acknowledge the authority of Christ, we may believe in his divinity and accept his teachings, yet truth and still withhold the love of God in the heart, we will be shut out of the kingdom. Kingdom of heaven. Defined by Paul as being "righteousness and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost" (Rom. 14, 17). He that doeth Christ's followings are "doers of the word and not hearers only" (James 1, 22). See Rev. 22, 14. The word etc. That is, the ground of more profession. That is, "Lord, Lord, true religion is more than a profession. We may acknowledge the authority of Christ, we may believe in his divinity and accept his teachings, yet truth and still withhold the love of God in the heart, we will be shut out of the kingdom. Kingdom of heaven. Defined by Paul as being "righteousness and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost" (Rom. 14, 17). He that doeth Christ's followings are "doers of the word and not hearers only" (James 1, 22). See Rev. 22, 14. The word etc. That is, the ground of more profession. That is, "Lord, Lord, true religion is more than a profession. We may acknowledge the authority of Christ, we may believe in his divinity and accept his teachings, yet truth and still withhold the love of God in the heart, we will be shut out of the kingdom. Kingdom of heaven. Defined by Paul as being "righteousness and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost" (Rom. 14, 17). He that doeth Christ's followings are "doers of the word and not hearers only" (James 1, 22). See Rev. 22, 14. The word etc. That is, the ground of more profession. That is, "Lord, Lord, true religion is more than a profession. We may acknowledge the authority of Christ, we may believe in his divinity and accept his teachings, yet truth and still withhold the love of God in the heart, we will be shut out of the kingdom. Kingdom of heaven. Defined by Paul as being "righteousness and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost" (Rom. 14, 17). He that doeth Christ's followings are "doers of the word and not hearers only" (James 1, 22). See Rev. 22, 14. The word etc. That is, the ground of more profession. That is, "Lord, Lord, true religion is more than a profession. We may acknowledge the authority of Christ, we may believe in his divinity and accept his teachings, yet truth and still withhold the love of God in the heart, we will be shut out of the kingdom. Kingdom of heaven. Defined by Paul as being "righteousness and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost" (Rom. 14, 17). He that doeth Christ's followings are "doers of the word and not hearers only" (James 1, 22). See Rev. 22, 14. The word etc. That is, the ground of more profession. That is, "Lord, Lord, true religion is more than a profession. We may acknowledge the authority of Christ, we may believe in his divinity and accept his teachings, yet truth and still withhold the love of God in the heart, we will be shut out of the kingdom. Kingdom of heaven. Defined by Paul as being "righteousness and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost" (Rom. 14, 17). He that doeth Christ's followings are "doers of the word and not hearers only" (James 1, 22). See Rev. 22, 14. The word etc. That is, the ground of more profession. That is, "Lord, Lord, true religion is more than a profession. We may acknowledge the authority of Christ, we may believe in his divinity and accept his teachings, yet truth and still withhold the love of God in the heart, we will be shut out of the kingdom. Kingdom of heaven. Defined by Paul as being "righteousness and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost" (Rom. 14, 17). He that doeth Christ's followings are "doers of the word and not hearers only" (James 1, 22). See Rev. 22, 14. The word etc. That is, the ground of more profession. That is, "Lord, Lord, true religion is more than a profession. We may acknowledge the authority of Christ, we may believe in his divinity and accept his teachings, yet truth and still withhold the love of God in the heart, we will be shut out of the kingdom. Kingdom of heaven. Defined by Paul as being "righteousness and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost" (Rom. 14, 17). He that doeth Christ's followings are "doers of the word and not hearers only" (James 1, 22). See Rev. 22, 14. The word etc. That is, the ground of more profession. That is, "Lord, Lord, true religion is more than a profession. We may acknowledge the authority of Christ, we may believe in his divinity and accept his teachings, yet truth and still withhold the love of God in the heart, we will be shut out of the kingdom. Kingdom of heaven. Defined by Paul as being "righteousness and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost" (Rom. 14, 17). He that doeth Christ's followings are "doers of the word and not hearers only" (James 1, 22). See Rev. 22, 14. The word etc. That is, the ground of more profession. That is, "Lord, Lord, true religion is more than a profession. We may acknowledge the authority of Christ, we may believe in his divinity and accept his teachings, yet truth and still withhold the love of God in the heart, we will be shut out of the kingdom. Kingdom of heaven. Defined by Paul as being "righteousness and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost" (Rom. 14, 17). He that doeth Christ's followings are "doers of the word and not hearers only" (James 1, 22). See Rev. 22, 14. The word etc. That is, the ground of more profession. That is, "Lord, Lord, true religion is more than a profession. We may acknowledge the authority of Christ, we may believe in his divinity and accept his teachings, yet truth and still withhold the love of God in the heart, we will be shut out of the kingdom. Kingdom of heaven. Defined by Paul as being "righteousness and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost" (Rom. 14, 17). He that doeth Christ's followings are "doers of the word and not hearers only" (James 1, 22). See Rev. 22, 14. The word etc. That is, the ground of more profession. That is, "Lord, Lord, true religion is more than a profession. We may acknowledge the authority of Christ, we may believe in his divinity and accept his teachings, yet truth and still withhold the love of God in the heart, we will be shut out of the kingdom. Kingdom of heaven. Defined by Paul as being "righteousness and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost" (Rom. 14, 17). He that doeth Christ's followings are "doers of the word and not hearers only" (James 1, 22). See Rev. 22, 14. The word etc. That is, the ground of more profession. That is, "Lord, Lord, true religion is more than a profession. We may acknowledge the authority of Christ, we may believe in his divinity and accept his teachings, yet truth and still withhold the love of God in the heart, we will be shut out of the kingdom. Kingdom of heaven. Defined by Paul as being "righteousness and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost" (Rom. 14, 17). He that doeth Christ's followings are "doers of the word and not hearers only" (James 1, 22). See Rev. 22, 14. The word etc. That is, the ground of more profession. That is, "Lord, Lord, true religion is more than a profession. We may acknowledge the authority of Christ, we may believe in his divinity and accept his teachings, yet truth and still withhold the love of God in the heart, we will be shut out of the kingdom. Kingdom of heaven. Defined by Paul as being "righteousness and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost" (Rom. 14, 17). He that doeth Christ's followings are "doers of the word and not hearers only" (James 1, 22). See Rev. 22, 14. The word etc. That is, the ground of more profession. That is, "Lord, Lord, true religion is more than a profession. We may acknowledge the authority of Christ, we may believe in his divinity and accept his teachings, yet truth and still withhold the love of God in the heart, we will be shut out of the kingdom. Kingdom of heaven. Defined by Paul as being "righteousness and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost" (Rom. 14, 17). He that doeth Christ's followings are "doers of the word and not hearers only" (James 1, 22). See Rev. 22, 14. The word etc. That is, the ground of more profession. That is, "Lord, Lord, true religion is more than a profession. We may acknowledge the authority of Christ, we may believe in his divinity and accept his teachings, yet truth and still withhold the love of God in the heart, we will be shut out of the kingdom. Kingdom of heaven. Defined by Paul as being "righteousness and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost" (Rom. 14, 17). He that doeth Christ's followings are "doers of the word and not hearers only" (James 1, 22). See Rev. 22, 14. The word etc. That is, the ground of more profession. That is, "Lord, Lord, true religion is more than a profession. We may acknowledge the authority of Christ, we may believe in his divinity and accept his teachings, yet truth and still withhold the love of God in the heart, we will be shut out of the kingdom. Kingdom of heaven. Defined by Paul as being "righteousness and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost" (Rom. 14, 17). He that doeth Christ's followings are "doers of the word and not hearers only" (James 1, 22). See Rev. 22, 14. The word etc. That is, the ground of more profession. That is, "Lord, Lord, true religion is more than a profession. We may acknowledge the authority of Christ, we may believe in his divinity and accept his teachings, yet truth and still withhold the love of God in the heart, we will be shut out of the kingdom. Kingdom of heaven. Defined by Paul as being "righteousness and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost" (Rom. 14, 17). He that doeth Christ's followings are "doers of the word and not hearers only" (James 1, 22). See Rev. 22, 14. The word etc. That is, the ground of more profession. That is, "Lord, Lord, true religion is more than a profession. We may acknowledge the authority of Christ, we may believe in his divinity and accept his teachings, yet truth and still withhold the love of God in the heart, we will be shut out of the kingdom. Kingdom of heaven. Defined by Paul as being "righteousness and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost" (Rom. 14, 17). He that doeth Christ's followings are "doers of the word and not hearers only" (James 1, 22). See Rev. 22, 14. The word etc. That is, the ground of more profession. That is, "Lord, Lord, true religion is more than a profession. We may acknowledge the authority of Christ, we may believe in his divinity and accept his teachings, yet truth and still withhold the love of God in the heart, we will be shut out of the kingdom. Kingdom of heaven. Defined by Paul as being "righteousness and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost" (Rom. 14, 17). He that doeth Christ's followings are "doers of the word and not hearers only" (James 1, 22). See Rev. 22, 14. The word etc. That is, the ground of more profession. That is, "Lord, Lord, true religion is more than a profession. We may acknowledge the authority of Christ, we may believe in his divinity and accept his teachings, yet truth and still withhold the love of God in the heart, we will be shut out of the kingdom. Kingdom of heaven. Defined by Paul as being "righteousness and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost" (Rom. 14, 17). He that doeth Christ's followings are "doers of the word and not hearers only" (James 1, 22). See Rev. 22, 14. The word etc. That is, the ground of more profession. That is, "Lord, Lord, true religion is more than a profession. We may acknowledge the authority of Christ, we may believe in his divinity and accept his teachings, yet truth and still withhold the love of God in the heart, we will be shut out of the kingdom. Kingdom of heaven. Defined by Paul as being "righteousness and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost" (Rom. 14, 17). He that doeth Christ's followings are "doers of the word and not hearers only" (James 1, 22). See Rev. 22, 14. The word etc. That is, the ground of more profession. That is, "Lord, Lord, true religion is more than a profession. We may acknowledge the authority of Christ, we may believe in his divinity and accept his teachings, yet truth and still withhold the love of God in the heart, we will be shut out of the kingdom. Kingdom of heaven. Defined by Paul as being "righteousness and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost" (Rom. 14, 17). He that doeth Christ's followings are "doers of the word and not hearers only" (James 1, 22). See Rev. 22, 14. The word etc. That is, the ground of more profession. That is, "Lord, Lord, true religion is more than a profession. We may acknowledge the authority of Christ, we may believe in his divinity and accept his teachings, yet truth and still withhold the love of God in the heart, we will be shut out of the kingdom. Kingdom of heaven. Defined by Paul as being "righteousness and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost" (Rom. 14, 17). He that doeth Christ's followings are "doers of the word and not hearers only" (James 1, 22). See Rev. 22, 14. The word etc. That is, the ground of more profession. That is, "Lord, Lord, true religion is more than a profession. We may acknowledge the authority of Christ, we may believe in his divinity and accept his teachings, yet truth and still withhold the love of God in the heart, we will be shut out of the kingdom. Kingdom of heaven. Defined by Paul as being "righteousness and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost" (Rom. 14, 17). He that doeth Christ's followings are "doers of the word and not hearers only" (James 1, 22). See Rev. 22, 14. The word etc. That is, the ground of more profession. That is, "Lord, Lord, true religion is more than a profession. We may acknowledge the authority of Christ, we may believe in his divinity and accept his teachings, yet truth and still withhold the love of God in the heart, we will be shut out of the kingdom. Kingdom of heaven. Defined by Paul as being "righteousness and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost" (Rom. 14, 17). He that doeth Christ's followings are "doers of the word and not hearers only" (James 1, 22). See Rev. 22, 14. The word etc. That is, the ground of more profession. That is, "Lord, Lord, true religion is more than a profession. We may acknowledge the authority of Christ, we may believe in his divinity and accept his teachings, yet truth and still withhold the love of God in the heart, we will be shut out of the kingdom. Kingdom of heaven. Defined by Paul as being "righteousness and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost" (Rom. 14, 17). He that doeth Christ's followings are "doers of the word and not hearers only" (James 1, 22). See Rev. 22, 14. The word etc. That is, the ground of more profession. That is, "Lord, Lord, true religion is more than a profession. We may acknowledge the authority of Christ, we may believe in his divinity and accept his teachings, yet truth and still withhold the love of God in the heart, we will be shut out of the kingdom. Kingdom of heaven. Defined by Paul as being "righteousness and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost" (Rom. 14, 17). He that doeth Christ's followings are "doers of the word and not hearers only" (James 1, 22). See Rev. 22, 14. The word etc. That is, the ground of more profession. That is, "Lord, Lord, true religion is more than a profession. We may acknowledge the authority of Christ, we may believe in his divinity and accept his teachings, yet truth and still withhold the love of God in the heart, we will be shut out of the kingdom. Kingdom of heaven. Defined by Paul as being "righteousness and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost" (Rom. 14, 17). He that doeth Christ's followings are "doers of the word and not hearers only" (James 1, 22). See Rev. 22, 14. The word etc. That is, the ground of more profession. That is, "Lord, Lord, true religion is more than a profession. We may acknowledge the authority of Christ, we may believe in his divinity and accept his teachings, yet truth and still withhold the love of God in the heart, we will be shut out of the kingdom. Kingdom of heaven. Defined by Paul as being "righteousness and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost" (Rom. 14, 17). He that doeth Christ's followings are "doers of the word and not hearers only" (James 1, 22). See Rev. 22, 14. The word etc. That is, the ground of more profession. That is, "Lord, Lord, true religion is more than a profession. We may acknowledge the authority of Christ, we may believe in his divinity and accept his teachings, yet truth and still withhold the love of God in the heart, we will be shut out of the kingdom. Kingdom of heaven. Defined by Paul as being "righteousness and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost" (Rom. 14, 17). He that doeth Christ's followings are "doers of the word and not hearers only" (James 1, 22). See Rev. 22, 14. The word etc. That is, the ground of more profession. That is, "Lord, Lord, true religion is more than a profession. We may acknowledge the authority of Christ, we may believe in his divinity and accept his teachings, yet truth and still withhold the love of God in the heart, we will be shut out of the kingdom. Kingdom of heaven. Defined by Paul as being "righteousness and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost" (Rom. 14, 17). He that doeth Christ's followings are "doers of the word and not hearers only" (James 1, 22). See Rev. 22, 14. The word etc. That is, the ground of more profession. That is, "Lord, Lord, true religion is more than a profession. We may acknowledge the authority of Christ, we may believe in his divinity and accept his teachings, yet truth and still withhold the love of God in the heart, we will be shut out of the kingdom. Kingdom of heaven. Defined by Paul as being "righteousness and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost" (Rom. 14, 17). He that doeth Christ's followings are "doers of the word and not hearers only" (James 1, 22). See Rev. 22, 14. The word etc. That is, the ground of more profession. That is, "Lord, Lord, true religion is more than a profession. We may acknowledge the authority of Christ, we may believe in his divinity and accept his teachings, yet truth and still withhold the love of God in the heart, we will be shut out of the kingdom. Kingdom of heaven. Defined by Paul as being "righteousness and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost" (Rom. 14, 17). He that doeth Christ's followings are "doers of the word and not hearers only" (James 1, 22). See Rev. 22, 14. The word etc. That is, the ground of more profession. That is, "Lord, Lord, true religion is more than a profession. We may acknowledge the authority of Christ, we may believe in his divinity and accept his teachings, yet truth and still withhold the love of God in the heart, we will be shut out of the kingdom. Kingdom of heaven. Defined by Paul as being "righteousness and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost" (Rom. 14, 17). He that doeth Christ's followings are "doers of the word and not hearers only" (James 1, 22). See Rev. 22, 14. The word etc. That is, the ground of more profession. That is, "Lord, Lord, true religion is more than a profession. We may acknowledge the authority of Christ, we may believe in his divinity and accept his teachings, yet truth and still withhold the love of God in the heart, we will be shut out of the kingdom. Kingdom of heaven. Defined by Paul as being "righteousness and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost" (Rom. 14, 17). He that doeth Christ's followings are "doers of the word and not hearers only" (James 1, 22). See Rev. 22, 14. The word etc. That is, the ground of more profession. That is, "Lord, Lord, true religion is more than a profession. We may acknowledge the authority of Christ, we may believe in his divinity and accept his teachings, yet truth and still withhold the love of God in the heart, we will be shut out of the kingdom. Kingdom of heaven. Defined by Paul as being "righteousness and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost" (Rom. 14, 17). He that doeth Christ's followings are "doers of the word and not hearers only" (James 1, 22). See Rev. 22, 14. The word etc. That is, the ground of more profession. That is, "Lord, Lord, true religion is more than a profession. We may acknowledge the authority of Christ, we may believe in his divinity and accept his teachings, yet truth and still withhold the love of God in the heart, we will be shut out of the kingdom. Kingdom of heaven. Defined by Paul as being "righteousness and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost" (Rom. 14, 17). He that doeth Christ's followings are "doers of the word and not hearers only" (James 1, 22). See Rev. 22, 14. The word etc. That is, the ground of more profession. That is, "Lord, Lord, true religion is more than a profession. We may acknowledge the authority of Christ, we may believe in his divinity and accept his teachings, yet truth and still withhold the love of God in the heart, we will be shut out of the kingdom. Kingdom of heaven. Defined by Paul as being "righteousness and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost" (Rom. 14, 17). He that doeth Christ's followings are "doers of the word and not hearers only" (James 1, 22). See Rev. 22, 14. The word etc. That is, the ground of more profession. That is, "Lord, Lord, true religion is more than a profession. We may acknowledge the authority of Christ, we may believe in his divinity and accept his teachings, yet truth and still withhold the love of God in the heart, we will be shut out of the kingdom. Kingdom of heaven. Defined by Paul as being "righteousness and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost" (Rom. 14, 17). He that doeth Christ's followings are "doers of the word and not hearers only" (James 1, 22). See Rev. 22, 14. The word etc. That is, the ground of more profession. That is, "Lord, Lord, true religion is more than a profession. We may acknowledge the authority of Christ, we may believe in his divinity and accept his teachings, yet truth and still withhold the love of God in the heart, we will be shut out of the kingdom. Kingdom of heaven. Defined by Paul as being "righteousness and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost" (Rom. 14, 17). He that doeth Christ's followings are "doers of the word and not hearers only" (James 1, 22). See Rev. 22, 14. The word etc. That is, the ground of more profession. That is, "Lord, Lord, true religion is more than a profession. We may acknowledge the authority of Christ, we may believe in his divinity and accept his teachings, yet truth and still withhold the love of God in the heart, we will be shut out of the kingdom. Kingdom of heaven. Defined by Paul as being "righteousness and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost" (Rom. 14, 17). He that doeth Christ's followings are "doers of the word and not hearers only" (James 1, 22). See Rev. 22, 14. The word etc. That is, the ground of more profession. That is, "Lord, Lord, true religion is more than a profession. We may acknowledge the authority of Christ, we may believe in his divinity and accept his teachings, yet truth and still withhold the love of God in the heart, we will be shut out of the kingdom. Kingdom of heaven. Defined by Paul as being "righteousness and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost" (Rom. 14, 17). He that doeth Christ's followings are "doers of the word and not hearers only" (James 1, 22). See Rev. 22, 14. The word etc. That is, the ground of more profession. That is, "Lord, Lord, true religion is more than a profession. We may acknowledge the authority of Christ, we may believe in his divinity and accept his teachings, yet truth and still withhold the love of God in the heart, we will be shut out of the kingdom. Kingdom of heaven. Defined by Paul as being "righteousness and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost" (Rom. 14, 17). He that doeth Christ's followings are "doers of the word and not hearers only" (James 1, 22). See Rev. 22, 14. The word etc. That is, the ground of more profession. That is, "Lord, Lord, true religion is more than a profession. We may acknowledge the authority of Christ, we may believe in his divinity and accept his teachings, yet truth and still withhold the love of God in the heart, we will be shut out of the kingdom. Kingdom of heaven. Defined by Paul as being "righteousness and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost" (Rom. 14, 17). He that doeth Christ's followings are "doers of the word and not hearers only" (James 1, 22). See Rev. 22, 14. The word etc. That is, the ground of more profession. That is, "Lord, Lord, true religion is more than a profession. We may acknowledge the authority of Christ, we may believe in his divinity and accept his teachings, yet truth and still withhold the love of God in the heart, we will be shut out of the kingdom. Kingdom of heaven. Defined by Paul as being "righteousness and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost" (Rom. 14, 17). He that doeth Christ's followings are "doers of the word and not hearers only" (James 1, 22). See Rev. 22, 14. The word etc. That is, the ground of more profession. That is, "Lord, Lord, true religion is more than a profession. We may acknowledge the authority of Christ, we may believe in his divinity and accept his teachings, yet truth and still withhold the love of God in the heart, we will be shut out of the kingdom. Kingdom of heaven. Defined by Paul as being "righteousness and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost" (Rom. 14, 17). He that doeth Christ's followings are "doers of the word and not hearers only" (James 1, 22). See Rev. 22, 14. The word etc. That is, the ground of more profession. That is, "Lord, Lord, true religion is more than a profession. We may acknowledge the authority of Christ, we may believe in his divinity and accept his teachings, yet truth and still withhold the love of God in the heart, we will be shut out of the kingdom. Kingdom of heaven. Defined by Paul as being "righteousness and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost" (Rom. 14, 17). He that doeth Christ's followings are "doers of the word and not hearers only" (James 1, 22). See Rev. 22, 14. The word etc. That is, the ground of more profession. That is, "Lord, Lord, true religion is more than a profession. We may acknowledge the authority of Christ, we may believe in his divinity and accept his teachings, yet truth and still withhold the love of God in the heart, we will be shut out of the kingdom. Kingdom of heaven. Defined by Paul as being "righteousness and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost" (Rom. 14, 17). He that doeth Christ's followings are "doers of the word and not hearers only" (James 1, 22). See Rev. 22, 14. The word etc. That is, the ground of more profession. That is, "Lord, Lord, true religion is more than a profession. We may acknowledge the authority of Christ, we may believe in his divinity and accept his teachings, yet truth and still withhold the love of God in the heart, we will be shut out of the kingdom. Kingdom of heaven. Defined by Paul as being "righteousness and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost" (Rom. 14, 17). He that doeth Christ's followings are "doers of the word and not hearers only" (James 1, 22). See Rev. 22, 14. The word etc. That is, the ground of more profession. That is, "Lord, Lord, true religion is more than a profession. We may acknowledge the authority of Christ, we may believe in his divinity and accept his teachings, yet truth and still withhold the love of God in the heart, we will be shut out of the kingdom. Kingdom of heaven. Defined by Paul as