THE COLD WEATHER that has prevailed during the month of April (usually one of the best months of the year for Dress Goods Selling) has left us with an unusually heavy stock, and we must unload, even at a sacrifice of profit. We're going to dispose of this Surplus Stock in Ten Days. The prices will do it. You'll find the entire lot on the third floor. Don't miss this opportunity to save money on your Dress Goods Purchases.

We have not room to give you full particulars, but can only quote a few representative lines. You'll have to see them to appreciate the value we are giving. Among the lines we are offering are:

HOMESPUNS—Venetians, Plaids, Shadow Check Cheviots, Serges, Tweeds, Basket Cloths.

The reduction in price which we quote you here is only a sample of what you may expect throughout the entire list of our offerings.

At the regular price, $1.25, it is special value, and at the sale price—75c—it is a snap.

25c Table 25c 50c Black Dress Goods 50c 37 1-2c Table 37 1-2c

At this popular price we will show a whole table full of choice lines, many of which were regularly as high as 50 cents per yard. We haven't room to describe them, but you'll find a big assortment of good things at this very low figure.

There is always a big demand for a BLACK DRESS GOODS BARGAIN, especially if it happens to be cloths that are right in style. The value in this lot at the sale price—50c—is simply marvellous. You'll say so, too, when you see them. Among the cloths are Panamas, canvas cloths, and some beautiful effects. They are all wool and 44 in. wide.

Another full table of surprising values. In this lot you'll find a lot of good lines suitable for house dresses, black skirts, or for misses' and children's wear. You'll wonder how we can afford to give you such big values for so little money. We can't afford it, but we'll do it.

Engine Plunged Through Bridge West of Schreiber

Another Bad Accident on North Shore—Three Trainmen Killed

Fort William, May 1.—Another serious accident occurred on the Canadian Pacific Railway about 75 miles east of here Monday night, in which three employees lost their lives. The dead are: William Firture, engineer; E. J. Vesudry, fireman; Valancourt, brakeman.

The train was the second section of No. 120, regular freight, and left here, eastbound, at 5.30 on Monday. The accident happened at Fire Hill, a small station east of Nipigon, the bridge over a small creek being washed out, and the engine plunged into the opening, going at regulation speed. The bodies of the fireman and brakeman were probably buried under the engine.

The body of the engineer, William Firture, was found yesterday, but bodies of the fireman and brakeman are still in the wreck. Firture leaves a widow, but no children. He has been a resident of Schreiber for 22 years, and was making preparations to abandon railroading and take up a farm in the West. The three injured are progressing favorably.

FRED BRISCO HAS SKATING CHALLENGE

Since the roller rink opened, a great deal of friendly rivalry has sprung up among some of the patrons as to which is the fastest skater. It is said that there are already a number of races in contemplation. "Irish Jack" is busy arranging a professional race between Harry Massey and J. W. Webb. Mr. Massey says he will back up Mr. Webb, and runner has it that "Shorty" is in for the contest. Mr. Webb and Mr. Massey are among the best skaters on the rink. Eric Chief Richard Fitchard is another "old-timer" who is doing some boasting. Dick has a challenge ready, and says that he is prepared to enter a contest fancy skating with any of the boys.

But by far the most interesting of all the races is what will be known as the "green" trot. The contestants in this race are not only fast and fancy skaters, but they have proven that they can do things heretofore unknown in the skating world, even to turning a somersault—sometimes when they have no intention of entertaining anyone. The gentlemen who are scheduled to take part in the "green" trot are Fred Brisco, E. Freeman, Charles Hicklin, Art Green and Abbie Owens. Each of the various contestants has his individual merits, and if the management of the rink will put up a prize worth while they say that the "green" trot will become a reality.

"Anyway, Fred," Brisco says to the sporting editor of the G. H. J. this morning, when he said that he wanted to challenge any or all of the aforementioned gentlemen. "My strong point is on turning the corners," says Fred. "I have had a great deal of practice during my life in turning corners quickly, and I think I ought to be an asset in this race."

"I'm game," is all Charlie Hicklin had to say. The big-hearted superintendent of The Planet pressroom evidently believes that weight will count some.

If the "green" trot is pulled off, there is no doubt about the big attendance which will go over to see it.

GRAND MARCH WAS A GREAT SUCCESS

There must have been about three hundred people on the floor of the Tecumseh Roller Rink last night, and it is estimated that there were about one hundred onlookers in the galleries.

The occasion was the Grand March, which has been looked forward to with a great deal of interest for some time. The March commenced at nine o'clock, and lasted for about half an hour. About seventy-five couples took part, and the March was led by Mrs. W. R. Landon and Geo. Watt, Jr. The event proved a unique success, and everyone was enthusiastic over it. A band was in attendance, and everything went along without a hitch. For the first Grand March held on the local rink, it must be said that all those taking part did exceptionally well.

BLenheim MAN FINED

Blenheim, April 30.—Dave McLeod, owner of a 1900-11 Clydesdale, led his horse through town on the sidewalk the other evening after six o'clock. Citizens were amazed to see the big beast walk right through the business portion of the town. An information was laid before P. M. Greenwood and he was fined a dollar and costs.

HUSBAND WAS TRAITOR

Tragic Story of Russian Woman Revolutionary

Plotted to Betray His Wife—Her Accidental Discovery

St. Petersburg, May 1.—The funeral yesterday of Mme. Madzhda Baradina, a well-known revolutionist, who committed suicide abroad, aroused the greatest interest in revolutionary circles on account of her romantic history.

Mme. Baradina was the daughter of a rich manufacturer, of good social position, and left her home to engage in the revolutionary propaganda. She was sent to Kiev, where she was arrested and imprisoned for two years, being released in October, 1905, on condition that she went abroad, where she met M. Baradina, who was known as an energetic member of the organization, and married him.

A few days ago Mme. Baradina accidentally opened a letter showing that her husband was a traitor, who had successfully planned the arrest of an important group of terrorists and even proposed to bring his wife back to Russia, in order to deliver her into the hands of the police. The police advised him to delay the latter step in order to avert suspicion. Mme. Baradina, after reading the letter, took poison. Her body was brought to St. Petersburg and was interred here yesterday, the coffin being buried under wreaths of crimson flowers.

SAD DEATH IN WINDSOR

A very sad death occurred in Windsor on Sunday morning last, when Henry Harrow Barnes, billing clerk at the C. P. R., suddenly passed away at his father's residence, 22 Goyeau street, in the 22nd year of his age. The young man's death seems all the more and from the fact that he had just been nursed through a siege of typhoid fever, was feeling in the very best of spirits and counting on the joys and pleasures of restored health and strength, when he suddenly took ill again and died in a short time.

Mr. Barnes was a splendid type of vigorous young manhood, of exemplary character, liked by everyone who had the privilege of his acquaintance, and held in the highest esteem by his employers. The young man's death falls heavily upon the shoulders of his aged father and mother, who have not only the genuine sympathy of the citizens of Windsor, but of a number of relatives and friends in the Maple City.

The funeral took place yesterday, and was very largely attended indeed, No. 1 Company of the 21st Regiment following the remains to their last resting place.

The deceased young man was a nephew of Mrs. Hugh Kerr, Lorne Ave., and a cousin of Messrs. Hugh Kerr, Jr., J. G. Kerr, Mrs. Thomas Scullard, Mrs. Wm. Anderson, and Mrs. R. J. Birch, of this city.

CLARENCE TRUDELL LOST ON CITY STREETS

Clarence Trudell, the three-year-old son of William Trudell, who resides on the corner of Queen St. and Lorne Ave., strayed away from home this morning, and no trace had been found of him up till eleven o'clock.

The little boy was dressed in a blue suit and a toque. When last seen he was following a man along Lorne Avenue. The father of the lad had quite an anxious time looking for him this morning.
