A Dead Circus.

Grandpa—Well, Sammy, where have you been today? Sammy (just back from the Natural History museum)— Oh, we've had a fine time, grandpa.
We've been to a dead circus.

To be instructed in the arts softens the character and makes men gentle.
Ovid.

CHAMBERLAIN'S COLIC, CHOL-ERA AND DIARRHOEA REMEDY.

The uniform success of this remedy has made it the most popular preparation in use for bowel complaints.
It is everywhere recognized as the one remedy that can always be depended upon and that is pleasant to take.
It is especially valuable for summer diarrhoea in children and is undoubtedly the means of saving the lives of a great many children each year.
For sale by All Druggists.

Forthought.

He—If I were thought to lose all my money would you marry me just the same? She—Not quite the same, dear. We should have to invite a few hundred more to bring us presents.

All Druggists will refund your money if you are not satisfied after using Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It is everywhere admitted to be the most successful remedy in use for bowel complaints and the only one that never fails. It is pleasant, safe and reliable.

Conflicting Considerations.

"Don't you sometimes think you ought to give more heed to what posterity will think of you?"

"My dear sir," answered Senator Sorghum, "it's risky. You are in danger of letting it absorb your attention and forgetting what the assessor and the voters and the political bosses may think of you."

IT'S WHAT IT LEADS TO

That makes Catarrh such a dreaded disease. If you have Catarrh taint; drooping in the throat, if you hawk and spit and have a stuffed up feeling in your nostrils, you should use fragrant, healing Catarrh Remedy at once and get cured. Thousands have been saved from Consumption and completely cured by Catarrh Remedy, so there is no reason why you shouldn't stamp out your Catarrh also. Catarrh Remedy will really cure you and prevent the disease from returning.
It's very pleasant, just balsamic medicated vapor, no nauseous drugs. Absolute cure guaranteed to users of Catarrh Remedy; it can't fail, try it.

Wives of Russian Priests.

A White Russian priest must be married, but he cannot marry a second time. If his wife dies he must enter a monastery. Hence the Russians tell many stories of the extraordinary means to which the priests resort in guarding the health of their wives. If the priest's consort sneezes, a mild panic ensues in the household.

Truth is the foundation of all knowledge and the cement of all societies.

Quality and size.

In selecting your lambs for show remember it's not the biggest lamb that wins, but the biggest good lamb. It is always well to select several more than the number which you intend showing, so as to be prepared for accidents, such as sickness and death.

Turkish Conspirators.

Midhat Pasha, formerly a power in Turkey as leader of a reform party, brought about the deposition of Sultan Abdul Aziz. Prince Murad then was proclaimed sultan. Five days later the ex-sultan committed suicide, a fact which was proved by nineteen doctors.
Ten days after the tragedy Sultan Murad became insane and was deposed and Abdul Hamid ascended the throne.
Midhat was banished, but was received with so much favor in Europe that the sultan became nervous and recalled him and appointed him governor of Syria. Here he did much good, but found himself called upon to resign in 1880. He next became governor general of Smyrna, but shortly afterward he was arrested with Mehmet Rushdi Pasha and others on a charge of being concerned in the murder of Abdul Aziz.
The trial dragged on for months, and Midhat, with others, was condemned to death, but on the intervention of the English government his sentence was changed to imprisonment for life. Mid-hat was sent to Taif, in Arabia, where many attempts were made to poison him, which were frustrated by his servant. One night, however, he was dragged from his room by some of the sultan's officials and strangled.

Strategy of the Cuckoo.

The Indian fruit cuckoo, which, like all members of the cuckoo family, lays its eggs in the nests of other birds and thus avoids the trouble of hatching them, is said to exhibit most interesting strategy in dealing with crows, which are its enemies. Whereas the hen, an inconspicuous speckled, gray bird, conceals herself in the foliage, the cock, remarkable for his brilliant black plumage and crimson eyes, places himself on a perch near a crow's nest and makes a great noise. The crows immediately rush out to attack him, and he takes to flight with them in pursuit. The hen meanwhile slips into the nest and deposits an egg. Sometimes the crows get back before the egg is laid, and then the intruding hen cuckoo gets a trouncing.—Youth's Companion.

Origin of the Picture Postal Cards.

The originator of pictorial post cards was a Frenchman, M. Besnard, of Salle-la-Guille, in the department of La Sarthe. To this gentleman occurred the happy thought at the time of the war with Germany that, as there were 40,000 conscripts, most of them somewhat illiterate, in the camp of Conlie, he might as well sell them cards instead of paper and envelopes. He did so, illustrating his cards with pictures of cannons and shells, quickly cleared out his stock and responded to the continuing demand by issuing a second series, with spaces on which soldiers were invited to write the names of any battles in which they might have taken part.—Westminster Gazette.

The Leopard and the Kid.

To illustrate how perfectly he had the animal under control Professor Bach of Berlin once put a live kid in the cage with a leopard. Then the professor fixed his glittering eye on the savage beast and yelled that he should remain quiescent. Then he something wrong with the thought transference, for the leopard immediately changed his spots, and so did the kid. A blast, a growl and a crunch, and the illustration was ruined.

Milk and Bright's Disease.

A physician suffering with Bright's disease and weighing 155 pounds began to restrict himself exclusively to a milk diet, taking one quart at each meal, or three quarts daily. Soon no traces of his former ailment was perceptible. He gained thirty pounds in flesh, and this notwithstanding constant attention to professional duties both day and night.
—Chicago News.

An Experienced Opinion.

Father—Daughter, Algerine, Von Spook wants to marry you. Daughter —What? That man? Why, papa, I wouldn't have him. He hasn't any sense. Father—Of course not; of course not. You don't suppose he would be wanting to get married if he had, do you?

Got It.

"Fact is," said the one man, "I married because I was lonely as much as for any other reason. To put it tersely, I married for sympathy."
"Well," said the other man, "you have mine."

Herculean Labors.

Naggsby—What did he leave to charity? Waggsby—He left it the biggest job it ever tackled—that of covering his multitude of sins.

Sell the Work Goes On.

"Any more germs, doctor?"
"Oh, yes. We are now in hot pursuit of the germs that eat the other germs."

Various Methods.

All men must make their choices.
Some are wise and some are rash.
Some statesmen raise their voices,
And some others raise the cash.

He Had a Perpetual One.

"Riddles," they said, "do not seem to interest you?"
"No," he replied; "I married one."

Thrift.

That quaint old adage ne'er grows sear-—"A penny saved is a penny won."
The white ducks father wore last year Are now the ducklings of his son.

Spoke Too Late.

HURRIED AND WORRIED ALL DAY.

And the worst of it is you are a little run down and have mighty little chance to catch up. Everything seems like a grindstone wearing down your nerves. You are irritable and get less sleep than is absolutely necessary. Better stop before things get worse. Your best plan is to use Fer-rozzone for a while and give your nerves and brain a chance to pick up.
Ferrozzone is the finest tonic a busy man can take. It makes new blood, nourishes the body, strengthens the nerves, improves the appetite and rehabilitates the whole system. Try Ferrozzone. Price 50c.

Dancer Avoided.

Daughter—It is really bad form to go shopping without a chaperon?
Mrs. De Style—Excessively. Young ladies who shop without a chaperon are almost sure to forget themselves and buy things.—New York Weekly.

THE GREATEST FAMILY REMEDY

And one well known in most Canadian homes is Nerviline, a perfect panacea for all internal and external pains. Mrs. M. E. Cartwright, of Morris, says: "I couldn't think of being without Nerviline. When I get toothache Nerviline stops it. If I get a sick headache, have a trouble with my stomach or bowels I can rely on Nerviline to cure me promptly. To equal. It's priceless in any family.

Nerviline is king over all pain and costs 25c.
