The interest in the Johnson-Burns fight has been renewed here by the presentation of the pictures of the great battle in the Grand yesterday. There is quite a diversity of opinion among the fistic fans as to whether the referee was right in awarding the title to Johnson. Burns did all the leading and was strong and on his feet when the police linter bred. He was badly punished however, while the colored man seemed unharmed. The pictures show one thing—that the open, clean break-style of boxing which prevails in Canada is better than the hitting in clinches rule under which the pair met. The fight was a poor—one from the spectators' point of view.

Charlie Conkle is still undecided as to what action he will take in regard to Al, Ackerman's two challenges. He is loth to put up the forfeit demanded by the Ohio man that he will obey the

In fifteen years the get of the stallion Sir Dixon, whose death was reported on Thursday, won more than $1,000,000 on the turf. His best year was in 1901, when his sons and daughters won $206, 26. He was purchased as a yearling by V. S. Barnes, who sold him to G. B. lorris, and he in turn sold him to the Dwyer Brothers in the spring of 1888. A notable event of that spring was practically a match between the two sons of Billet—Sir Dixon and Raceland. The race was a walking affair for five furlongs, then became a sprint, and Sir Dixon won, Blue Girl, Butterflies, Blues, George Arnold, Kilmarnock, Runni Water and Agile were among the mo

From the London Advertiser: A writer takes a column and a half in an American paper to prove that ball players make good actors. However, as he did not name one real ball player that developed into a real actor, the whole question is still open for argument. We have seen some of them attempt to act, but we dare not use the Allan Studholme method of expression in giving vent to our feelings, as they will not stand for it around here.

BILLY JAKE'S

SAD DEATH.

Toronto, March 30.—A prisoner at the jail, who gave the name of William Jakes, died early yesterday morning aged 63 years. The man claimed to have been at one time the champion billiard player of Canada. He had been in custody about ten times for drunkenness and other offences. When admitted on December 12 last at the jail he gave his address as Cobourg, and his ocgave his address as Cobourg, and his cupation that of bartender. Twice si cupation that or barteneer. I were since then he has been sentenced to two terms of 30 days each, the last time being on March 15. He gave no address or occu-pation, but he left the impression with the jail officials that he had friends in around Cobourg. Inquiries made last night show that number of years ago Jakes was a bril a number of years ago Jakes was a brilliant billiard player, and won many matches in Canada, besides giving exhibitions. There are a number of billiard players in Toronto and Hamilton who remember his expertness with the cue before he entered upon the path leading to his sad death.

ROGERS AND MOHL.

Yankee Rogers and Fritz Mohl will appear in a wrestling match at the Grand on Friday night. Mohl will be ready to do his bowling alley stunt this time, as he has quite recovered from the injury to his leg. He is a good sport, and a fine, gentlemany fellow, but when wrestling is always ready to mix things if his opponent wants it all his own way. Mohl's manager reports he will get the best of Rogers this time, and says if he does not he will make Yankee know that he has taken part in a wrestling match. Special arrangements are being made for ringside and stage seats. Vankee Rogers and Fritz Mohl will

T. A. A. C. Secures Old Rosedale Grounds.

The Hamilton Gun Club team put up a new mark in the novice five-men teams in the Canadian Bowling Association's tournament at the H. B. & A. C. alleys late last night. The team roiled a total of 2,595. In the same class the Maple Leafs, of Guelph, rolled a nice score of 2,140. Both these teams went ahead of the Parkdale Elites, who were ahead of the Class for several days.

The hit of the day was made by the Syracuse Pajamas, who appeared on the alleys-with gaudy pajamas.

CHOSING REFEREES FOR SOCCER GAMES.

Above all things, a referee must be conversant with the rules, and must be quick in action and mind, but not quick-tempered. He must be strong-willed, and at all times firm when giving a de-

It is likely that the league have not It is likely that the league have not enough good men to go around. This may be so at first, but a good executive would see to it that the poorer men are gradually replaced by the better. This will take some time, but by patient, watchful work, an exemplary board must finally be secured. It would be advisable to hear all complaints regarding referees fully and dismissal whould follow if needful to the general welfare of the league. With a strong executive and with a representative of the referees on that executive which would take time to deal with this department, an improvement in the officials is bound to be noticeable.

If all referees were good officials

Too much importance cannot be attached to the referee in any game. A high standard prevails in most of the sports with the possible exception of soccer, says the Toronto News.

According to the rules of the Toronto and District League, there wil be a certain board of competent men licensed to handle a game, and these men only can be used. Enough names will be on the referee's roll to insure against a possible shortage. At every meeting candidates for the board of referees are being heard—they have to pass a reguler examination and that some are occasionally rejected shows that there is a certain basis.

Above all things, a referee must be conversant with the rules, and must be quick in action and mind, but not quick tempered. He must be strong-willed, and at all times firm when giving a decided for second rate men. Clubs might kick

FIGHT PICTURES.

Large Crowd at the Grand Last Night.

Hamilton has the distinction of being the first Canadian city to see the original motion pictures of the Burns-Johnon fight, which took place in Australia, when the Texas Smoke took the world's championship away from the Canadian, Tommy Burns. They were shown at the Grand yesterday afternoon and evening. There are over 5,000 feet of film and most of the pictures are good and clear—so clear that almost every movement of the fighters can be seen from the time that they enter the ring till the superintendent of police steps on the stage and stops the battle. The pictures show that many of the reports sent out by United States newspaper correspondents did not do Burns' justice. Burns did practically all the leading, and in the opinion of many who saw the pictures Johnson should not have been given the verdict—that the referee should have declared the bout a draw. when the Texas Smoke took the world's draw.

The interest in the pictures yesterday The interest in the pictures yestering, was greatly enhanced by the running account given by Hugh D. McIntosh, the man who promoted the fight and who was the third man in the ring. His story was quite interesting. At the afwho was the third man in the ring. His story was quite interesting. At the afternoon performance Mr. McIntosh was introduced to the spectators by the sporting editor of the Times and in the evening Billy Carroll had the honor. The pictures will be shown again this evening and to-morrow afternoon and evening.

They are trespassing upon our preserves."

The C. A. A. U.'s action will be confined to dealing with the Garrison Association, which is an affiliation of the C. A. A. U., and to the individual members of the team which played against the Maple Leafs Saturday night. Of the Garrison team, the C. A. A. U.'s action can only affect three or four, for Taylor, Cadman, Hardy and a couple more are already pro. ball players.

The C. A. A. U. are after the Garrison people because Sergt. Nichols, the accredited Garrison representative, made the arrangements for the event.
