(Concluded.)

By the-by, Mr. Rignal, I said, taking up my hat to leave, it is reported that you had a violent quarrel with the deceased the evening before the murder—is it true?

or inequality, there was something which appeared like a trap-door on one side of it, but it fitted so closely, that had not the sun at that moment been shining upon it, I am certain I should not have seen it.

the night you made your way through a trap-door in the ceiling to the roof of the house. You then pursued your way along the roof until you reached Mr. Meredith's house, you then removed the trap-door which opened into his room, and shot the poor gentleman while he was asleep in bed.

ALL CURES MADE EASY!

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT.

Bad Legs, Ulcerous Sores, Bad Breasts, and Old Wounds.

No description of wound, sore or other can resist the healing properties of this excellent Ointment. The worst case readily assumes a healthy appearance whenever this medicinal ointment is applied, a sound flesh springs up from the bottom of the wound, inflammation of the surrounding skin is arrested and a complete and permanent cure quickly follows the use of the ointment.

Rheumatism, Gout and Neuralgia.

Nothing has the power of reducing inflammation and subsiding pain in these complaints in the same degree as Holloway's Ointment, and purifying Pills. When used simultaneously they drive all inflammation and effluvia from the system, subside and remove all enlargement of the glands, leave the sinews and muscles lax and uncontracted. A cure may always be effected, even under the worst circumstances, if the use of these medicines be persevered in.

Sore Throats, Diphtheria, Quinsey, Mumps, and all other Derangements of the Throat.

On the appearance of any of these maladies the Ointment should be well rubbed at least three times a day upon the neck and upper part of the chest, so as to penetrate to the glands, as salt is forced into meat: this course will at once remove inflammation and absorption. The worst cases will yield to this treatment by following the printed directions.

Scrofula or King's Evil and Swelling of the Glands.

This class of cases may be cured by Holloway's purifying Pills and Ointment, as their double action of purifying the blood and strengthening the system, removes all complaints of a scrofulous nature. As the blood is impure, liver, stomach and bowels being much deranged, require purifying medicine to bring about a cure.
