REV. TERENCE MAGUIRE PASSES AWAY

Beloved Priest. Well Known On the Miramichi Passes Peacefully to His Reward

The death of Rev. Father Maguire in Chatham hospital yesterday after two days illness from acute obstruction of the bowels removes a clergyman well known and well beloved in Newcastle where from 1901 till last August he was the trusted and efficient assistant of Rev. Father Dixon of this parish.

Rev. Terence Maguire was born about 50 years ago in County Cavan, Ireland. He studied philosophy and theology in All Hallows, Dublin, to fit himself for work in Salford diocese under Bishop (afterwards Cardinal) Vaughan. Being too young for ordination he went to Salford and continued his studies in Scholastic theology in the Bishop's palace there. On reaching the proper age he was ordained and remained in St. Patrick's church Manchester, some five or six years. He was then sent by Bishop Vaughan to America to collect for an orphanage asylum and because Manchester air did not agree with his health he received leave of absence and remained in America, taking up pastoral work in New Jersey under Bishop Wigger. Upon the latter's death, Father Maguire was admitted to Chatham diocese, where Bishop Rogers assigned him to New castle, where he labored with great success and acceptance for nine years, when he was appointed parish priest of St. Margarets.

Rev. Father Maguire took suddenly ill from acute obstruction of the intestines on Saturday last; he could not officiate in church on Sunday and was brought to Hotel Dieu, Chatham yesterday at 3 p. m., but was unable to stand an operation, and died at 5.30.

He leaves a mother and several sisters at home in Ireland and two brothers, prominent in shipping and insurance circles, in New York and New Jersey.

Rev. Father Maguire's work in Newcastle and all places where he was stationed was of a helpful and permanent nature. He was a sincere and kindly man and will long be remembered and his good deeds will follow him. May he rest in peace.

SERIOUS FIRE

AT RENOUS BRIDGE

The residence of Mr. P. J. Young, of Renous Bridge, the well known member of the Renous Bridge Lumber Co., was practically destroyed by fire on the 19th and Mr. Young himself was badly burned about the face and hands. The loss will exceed $1,000, and is partially covered by insurance. It was necessary to summon medical aid to care for Mr. Young's injuries. The fire was discovered about eight o'clock and had gained considerable headway. There was sickness in the house and a large fire was burning in the stove. It is supposed that the pipes became hot and caught on the ceiling and roof. Efforts to save the house proved futile, but a quantity of furniture was saved.

WARREN C. WINSLOW DIED SUDDENLY

Well Known Chatham Barrister and Politician Passes Away On Christmas Day

Chatham, N. B., Dec. 26—Warren C. Winslow, a leading barrister and a former mayor of Chatham, passed away at his home Christmas morning at 8.30. Mr. Winslow was born at Chatham, January 6th, 1862. He leaves a widow and six children to mourn his demise. Mrs. Winslow was formerly Miss Carville of St. John, and the children are Pelham E., of the Bank of Montreal, Toronto; Frank Warren, of Vancouver; Arthur O., of Regina; Margaret, Mary and Edith at home. One brother and three sisters also survive. These are E. P. Winslow, Bank of Montreal inspector of Toronto; Mrs. H. Montgomery Campbell, of Sussex, N. B., Mrs.

Wm. A. Park Newcastle, and Miss Constance Winslow, Toronto. The late Mr. Winslow was a graduate in law of Harvard University. He had been alderman for the town of Chatham and was mayor for two terms, 1897 and 1898. In the last local election he was a member of the then government ticket. He was a Liberal in politics and since the beginning of the construction on the I. C. R. between Chatham and Nelson had represented the Government in their dealings with property owners. Mr. Winslow was a prominent member of the Knights of Columbus. The funeral will be held tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock.

FEDORENKO FREED BUT RE-ARRESTED

Winnipeg, December 19—Savva Fedorenko, who has been held under an extradition warrant here, and whose case has attracted wide attention, was on Saturday discharged from custody by Judge Robson, under a writ of habeas corpus. He enjoyed his liberty only a few moments, however, as he was immediately placed under arrest again on a charge of attempted murder, preferred against him by the Russian Government.

It looks as if the case had just begun, as the Russian Government has seven other charges to prefer against Fedorenko. Should he be finally committed for extradition, however, the Minister of Justice may step in and refuse to give him up, if he has reason to believe that he is wanted for a political offence.

WOULD ABOLISH THE BAR ROOM

"Columbia", in the Catholic Record of the 10th instant, denounces the Bar Room, and advocates shutting out of liquor selling from all places except where food is eaten. He says in part: The abolition of the bar room is the remedy being advocated in Ireland. And it is the remedy advocated by Archbishop Bruchesi, who knows the extent of the evil, and of whom his worst enemies cannot say he is a fanatic. You may pass early closing bills—you may fight about local option—you may cut down licenses, but all this is but tinkering with the disease. The cause of the disease is the institution itself, and if we want a permanent cure the cause must be removed. So long as people can slide into a bar-room and drink behind closed doors, so long will we have drunkards. It is the bar-room makes drunkards. Very few are so lost to self respect that they will sit down under the public gaze and make beasts of themselves. Let the light shine on these hidden haunts and, like the vermin that aggregate under a stone, they will fly from the light of day.

The abolition of the bar, and the substitution of the café, where the poor as well as the rich can dine at convenient hours, is the surest, the only effective cure for the drink evil. Let no intoxicating drink be sold except in such cafés. This project may seem exaggerated and absurd. But it is one that deserves the serious consideration of temperance reformers.
