Mr lessier desired the hon Receiver General to inform the House as to the means he would propose for paying the subsidy.

Hon Receiver General supposed that the country was pretty well informed that this railroad was not a present. It means the payment of an annual subsidy of $100,000 for a period of thirty-five years, after its construction. The ho-Premier in his estima e stated there would be an increase of population, ex c'us.ve of immigration, during the next three or four years, to the extent of ten thousand souls.
