THE ST. JOHN INVESTIGATION.

During the last session of the legislature Mr. Smith M. P. P. for St. John stated practically that he had reason to believe that the contactors who repaired the suspension bridge under the supervision of the Public Works Department, had swindled the government out of quite a large amount of money, and in response to his men received two dollars per day and were | will go on. charged at exorbitant prices, but the evifriends of the government squeezed all manic votes and influence. they possibly could for the goods pur-

It is clear from the evidence, however, that made a margin from certain purchases, and these parties with two other contractors, have no reason to feel proud of their share in the transaction. Mr. Emmerson has given the widest latitude to the enquiry and the Government have nothing to fear from the fullest investigation, but the reputations of some of the persons concerned, suffered as the enquiry went forward. Perhaps Hon. Mr. Ryan put the whole thing in a nut shell when he stated in his evidence, that, like the man in the Scripture who journeyed from Jerusalem to Jerico, he fell among thieves. he was dealing with honest men - men | will be present and address the electors. who had been recommended to him by advisers of the Government in St. John, but the evidence discloses that he was somewhat mistaken in his estimate. It has not been shown that the Government or any person under its direction were guilty of misconduct or malfeasance in the Bathurst. affair, and the efforts of the opposition press to shoulder the responsibility of the dishonesty practised, on the department, have most signally failed. The Government were swindled by men in whom they placed confidence, and their experience will place them on their guard in the future, especially when undertaking the expenditure of money in St. John.

No doubt when Dr. Stockton and his client, Mr. Smith, went into the investigation, they anticipated the development of a large sized scandal against the government, but in this, they have been very cruelly disappointed. Like all other political fishing expeditions in which the Opposition Leader has been engaged for the last three years, with a view to convicting the Government of dishonesty, Dr. Stockton's latest venture in that line has collapsed, doubtless very much to his chagrin.

CHRISTIAN REUNION.

The Anglican conference at St. John

this week, presented the unusual spectacle of a Presbyterian, a Methodist and a Baptist clergyman speaking from the same platform with the clergymen of the Church of England. The subject was Christian reunion, and was introduced through a paper prepared by Principal Sheraton, of Wycliffe college, strongly favoring union of all Protestant denominations. Discussion followed by Rev. Dr. Macrae, Presbyterian; Rev. C. H. Paisley, Methodist; Rev. J. A. Gordon, Baptist. Dr. Macrae favored the union and thought concessions could be made on all sides. Rev.
