CHARLOTTETOWN, PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND, WEDNESDAY, MARCH 16, 1921

VOL. XLIX. NO. 11

Look. Read. Realize!

We cater to the men's trade, and no other. If you were sick you wouldn't call to see a Tailor, or a Blacksmith, about the condition of your health. Of course not; you would call to see a Doctor.

If you wanted a Suit or an Overcoat would you go to see a Doctor, or a Shoemaker? Not at all. You would go to see a First Class Tailor.

WELL, there's where we shine!!!
We study the business. We know what suits a young man

we know what suits a middle-aged man, and we know what suits the old gentleman—both in goods and in style. It does not make any difference whether you want your clothes Ready-to-Wear, or Made-to-Order. We are equally in a position to suit you. We do not let a suit or overcoat leave our establishment until it suits and fits the man who is buying. Our prices are always right when you take the quality into consideration.

Do not forget that we are sole agents for the famous W H Leishman & Co., Wholesale Custom Tailors. We have an elegant stock of Overcoats to show you at the present time.

Overcoats, Made-to-Order-from... $30.00 to $48.00

Overcoats, Ready-to-Wear..... $15.00 to $36.00

Success Is a Habit

Our habits make us. We are creatures of habit. Whether we are a success or a failure is a question of how we do things without thinking. To Save is the only way to success

Gloves

We have just the kind of Gloves you need, lined and unlined. Also Wool Gloves for this time of year. Suedes and Tans—both combination. Price..... $1.00 to $4.00

Leprosy in Japan

The Director of Koyama Leper Hospital, Japan, has gotten out a booklet describing the institution and giving some important facts regarding the leper and his disease.

"Japan is no doubt, one of the countries most contaminated by leprosy. How many lepers are there in Japan? Official statistics give 23,000 for the year 1898, and this number is certainly far below the real one, and probably it ought to be doubled.

"In short, it seems difficult not to look upon leprosy as a national danger for Japan.

"The Koyama Leper Hospital was the first of its kind to be established in Japan in the year 1889 by Rev. Father Testewide, a Catholic missionary. It is five miles from Gotemba, at the foot of the famous volcano Fuji.

"The missionary has no stipends from the hospital, and there are no nurses. Two lepers chosen from the most intelligent are in charge of dealing out the drugs and of dressing the wounds; they discharge their duty as skillfully as trained nurses.

"Life in such a hospital would be unbearably monotonous if these unfortunate inmates were not now and then treated to some distractions and relaxations. One of their greatest pleasures is stage playing; they make it a rule to organize two or three theatrical shows every year.

"The plays are generally taken from the Old and New Testament. The scenes and costumes which they make out of any rags they can lay hands on keep them busy for several months during their leisure moments, and they have the honor and pleasure to play before a large audience, for on such occasions hundreds of people from the neighboring villages come flocking to attend the performance.

"Another occasion for pleasure, and which is a great feast for them, is the Christmas lottery, the prizes of which consist in general of old clothes, and some times even new ones, contributed by charitable persons. What a joy and what bursts of laughter when a male leper happens to get a lady's kimono, or a woman a jockey cap!

"We have found out by experience that working in the fields in the open air is the best remedy against leprosy. Those who work in this way have but few ulcers, whilst those who are too sick to work before long find themselves covered with wounds."

The President's Wife

(By N. C. W. C. News Service.)

From the land of the midnight sun, where a few Ursuline Sisters are struggling to implant the true faith in the hearts of the spiritually-starved Eskimo children, to the portals of the White House, is a far cry, but through the Little Flower of the Child Jesus, the two were linked last week.

Mrs. Woodrow Wilson's interest in the work being done by the Ursulines, who are endeavoring to build a hospital in Alaska for the Eskimo children, was manifested at the "white elephant" sale held in Washington under the auspices of the Little Flower of the Child Jesus, the patroness of Alaska, by the gift of a handsome vase, which netted a substantial sum at auction in the final day of the sale.

Constipation Headaches.

When your liver gets sluggish and inactive your whole health suffers. Your bowels become constipated, head-aches, tongue coated, breath bad, spots lost before your eyes, you are bilious, have heartburn, water brash, jaundice, etc.

Use Milburn's Lax-Liver Pills to make the liver resume its proper functions by removing the bile that is circulating in the blood and poisoning the system. Mr. Le Roy Allen, Springfield, N. S., writes: "I desire to express my thanks for the relief Milburn's Lax-Liver Pills have given me."

Mrs. F. A. Delano and Miss Elizabeth Davis of Washington were also liberal contributors to the "white elephant" tables. Mrs. Delano presenting a satin and cloth of gold dress embroidered with rhinestones, and Miss Davis giving a unique collection of Japanese curios.

Good Will

Did you ever pause to wonder why "good will" is usually valued on the balance sheet at one dollar? The reason is simply that "good will" is an asset, the worth of which cannot be estimated even approximately. It is the most valuable asset a business man has. Take away the "good will" of a house and it will summarily disappear into the oblivion of failure.

"Good will" is the result of satisfactory dealings extending over a period of time. The practical application of the principle of the "square deal" makes for "good will."

Some years ago the old Latin maxim, "caveat emptor" (let the buyer beware) was quite popular among a certain class of sellers. The merchant or manufacturer who was successful in deceiving his customers proudly boasted of his shrewdness—business ability. In those olden days the autocrat of the mart displayed his wares with the "take 'em or leave 'em" attitude.

Today, however, all that is changed. The exponent of the "caveat emptor" and "take 'em or leave 'em" policies is a curiosity, and the breed is fast dying out. Business for the most part is conducted along strictly honorable lines, and courtesy is universally practiced.

The progressive business house realizes that its customers are its friends. The mission of its sales force is to retain established friendship and create new ones. The basis of lasting friendship is confidence, and the "good will" of a house is the reflection of the confidence in which it is held by its customers.

A Little Black Hero

A little Catholic negro boy was taking care of a flock of goats in the mountains. Before he was aware of it he had strayed with them far from his native village, and suddenly found himself in the territory of a neighboring Mohammedan tribe that was at war with his own people.

He was soon surrounded by hostile menacing faces. His enemies determined to make him apostatize.

"You are a Christian?" said one.

"Yes, I am a Christian," answered the child. "Don't you see the cross on my breast?"

"Yes, but, nevertheless, you

The African Missions' Organization

established at Lyons, during these past six months has opened in France seven new houses designed for the training of missionaries; a seminary of philosophy, three preparatory seminaries and three novitiates for the Brothers. All these various houses are well provided with their personnel, and studies are already begun. Very important information regarding the progress of evangelization in Africa and the needs of the apostleship is contained in the appeal published by the Missions for the recruiting of new missionaries. In the Benin many conversions are to be registered. Since 1917 twenty new churches and twenty-two secondary stations were built.

Terrible Sufferer From Her Kidneys.

When the kidneys get out of order the back is sure to become affected. Mrs. John Smith, sharp pains, quick wings all points to the fact that the kidneys need attention.

Flashes and lightning may relieve a short time, but to get rid of these pains you must get right at the seat of the trouble. You can do this by using Doan's Kidney Pills and thus obtain permanent relief.

Mrs. John Stephenson, 115 Stephen St., Kingston, Ont., writes: "I certainly must praise your Doan's Kidney Pills, as I was a terrible sufferer from my kidneys. I would have severe pains in my back and awful headaches. I became very weak, and just felt as if I were being dragged down. I tried one box of Doan's Kidney Pills, and to my surprise I felt better. I could work hard all day, and my back would not pain me at all. I can't praise them too much."
