

THE EDMONTON BULLETIN (SEMI-WEEKLY) DAILY-Delivered in City, 84 per year...

MONDAY, MARCH 30, 1908. THE FALL FAIR.

The Exhibition Association announce that a fall fair will be held in Edmonton early in October.

The record of the Association is an assurance that so far as they are concerned nothing will be left undone to make the fair a success.

The time to plan exhibits for the fair is now. It will not be enough that we have a good display.

CIVIL SERVICE REFORM. New Brunswick Conservatives expressed their views of Mr. Borden's 'civil service reform' suggestion.

The Whittier Government has been practicing that even the Toronto News could not stretch its wide charity for the Provincial Administration.

In Manitoba is historical. When Mr. Borden came into power a large number of his friends and associates were speedily let out.

In British Columbia the advent of the party system was signalized by the advent of the partisan employee.

It is a signal and significant circumstance that the Opposition learned the evils of the 'spoils system' only when they became an Opposition.

That the patronage system, when abused, has evils, is true. That some measure will be adopted for mitigating those evils is practically certain.

Even Fielding could not produce enough revenue to carry on business under the 'National' policy in the year he was forced to try to do so.

THE 'RISING TIDE.' Mr. Foster consoles himself with the idea that the former Government really did not do so badly as appeared.

It will occur to the reader that a policy which takes seventeen years to get under way must produce some remarkable results when it does begin to bear fruit.

THE NEW COMERS. Rev. James Woodworth, of Winnipeg, appears to have been either very badly reported or very badly mistaken.

The homestead returns reflect perhaps better than the immigration figures the progress of settlement in the West.

From the United States, and 34,000 from all other countries. During the calendar year of 1907 the incoming numbered 289,000.

1890 4,410 1891 4,355 1892 4,549 1893 4,067 1894 3,209 1895 3,384 1896 1,857

1897 a deficit of $1,210,333 1898 a deficit of 4,158,870 1899 a deficit of 339,531

1897 a deficit of $1,210,333 1898 a surplus of 1,722,712 1899 a surplus of 8,554,714

At North Sydney to points in Canada: At Halifax 18,192 At St. John 11,631 At Quebec 41,537

Clearly the immigration tide has been rising in a direction different from that of the early nineties.

That Canada was not prosperous in the ten years preceding 1896 does not need to be said.

possessed of a steadily growing confidence in the future of the country held for themselves.

TO THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT. To the Federal Government more than to any other agency belongs the credit for arousing this public spirit.
