Newfoundland Postal Telegraphs.

Tenders Wanted.

For Two Thousand (more or less) Telegraph Poles, to be delivered as follows, along the railway surveyed track: One pole every forty-four yards, from North Harbor, Flacencia Bay, to the Postal Telegraph Office at Terenceville, Fortune Bay. Delivery to be taken in April, 1919.

SPECIFICATION.

To square eighteen feet long, five inches diameter at top, rounded, black spruce or fir, straight sound timber. No pole will be accepted that is not up to specification. All tenders to be addressed to me by Wednesday, January 15th, 1919.

The department is not bound to accept the lowest nor any tender.

DAVID STOTT, Superintendent.

PUBLIC NOTICE!

On and after 1st January next the prohibition of the use of abbreviated addresses registered since the 1st July, 1914, will be withdrawn, and such addresses will be permitted in all cablegrams in which registered addresses may be used. From the 1st January new addresses will be registered for persons or firms for whom an address is not already registered. The above regulation does not cancel the rule which prevents the use of registered address as signature. The removal of the restriction as above will not apply for the present to countries between which the use of registered addresses is not permitted.
