June 24-d aw-w8t

crop, owing to the want of rain and the unusual lateness of the season together. In Kentucky the weather is reported favorable during the last two weeks, but the most encouraging estimates do not go beyond one fourth of last year's crop. As a consequence, the grades of leaf that at the end of May sold from $4 to $5, had by the end of June advanced to from $7 to $8; while grades bringing from $7 to $8 at the former time brought $12 at the latter. European dealers have taken the alarm, and a Liverpool house not long ago informed its customers that it could not fill their orders, giving as a reason the fact that holders of stocks had withdrawn them from the market. Liverpool agents in receipt of consignments are instructed by their principals to prepare to hold back during the entire year, in anticipation of a great scarcity and high range of value in 1875. The season is now far advanced, and the policy of the large dealers to compel a rise is so general and so pronounced, that a year or more of unusually high prices for tobacco may be considered a certainty.—Mail.

The duty on tobacco collected at the Port of Montreal for the year ending 30th June, amounts to $120,511. The quantity of tobacco and cigars imported through the Port of Montreal from the 1st of July, 1873, to the 30th of June, 1874, was 17,359,825 cigars, weighing 204,211 lbs., on which duties were collected to the amount of $11,152,455; 10,451 lbs. of cut tobacco were received, the duties on which amounted to $233,230; 33,876 lbs. of plug tobacco were imported the duty collected being $665,490, the total revenue amounting to $12,051,175.

A correspondent of the Times says that at Wiedenbrunn, Prussian Westphalia, a man named Von Nagel Hingen has been sentenced to a year's imprisonment for reflecting on King Victor Emmanuel in a speech delivered at the Mayence Catholic Union. He compared the occupation of Rome by the King to the forcible entrance of the burglar through a hole in the wall, whereas honest people entered by the door, and described him as having intruded the Pope and the religious orders out of their own houses. The State Prosecutor asked for a sentence of six months' imprisonment, but the Court inflicted double that punishment.

SCROFULA.—For the cure of Scrofula and other skin diseases there has never yet been found a remedy to equal in completely eradicating the disease, Fowler's File and Humor Cure. Every bottle is warranted to give satisfaction; give it a trial; it has cured hundreds, it might cure you.

A mare belonging to Mr. John Curry, con. 11, Hibbert, has given birth to a colt of rather an unusual shape. It had neither shoulders, front legs, nor breast. The neck sprang right out from the front part of the ribs. Under the neck, near the body, was a small leg, about the size of a lamb's, with a perfectly formed hoof on it. The colt in every respect was fully developed and perfect. Shortly after it was born, it could stand on its hind feet with a person holding up its front part, and appeared strong and smart.

The 6:30 train on the Kingston and Peterboro' Railway proceeded as far as Harrowsmith on Wednesday.
