THE PROCESSION.

The procession was an imposing affair, and occupied 40 minutes in passing a given point. It was estimated that 2,000 Orange men and women were in line, and a large number of young Orangemen who had brought the indispensable young lady were strictly "in line" on the hotel plazzas as they held red and white and yellow and blue parasols to keep the scorching rays of the sun at a proper distance. A few drops of rain fell about 10 o'clock in the morning, but by 2 o'clock—the time the procession started—the road had had to be watered several times.

The procession formed on the morning in the procession of the procession of cession formed on the market The procession formed on the market square and moved off down Main street to Huron, and down Huron to Suell's Grove, where the speeches were made. In the van came several 'busses containing ladies of the order; following these came the different lodges on foot—seventeen of them from East Middlesex alone. The marshals were Meyers John Searlett, Goderich: were: Messis. John Scarlett, Goderich; Frank Davis, Biddulph; F. H. Logan, second district, Middlesex; F. H. Wright, No. 1 district, Middlesex. J. M. Tedd, county master, of South Huron, called the gathering to order, and asked that the same peaceable and friendly spirit that had hitherto marked such gatherings, should once more prevail. He read letters of regret from Clarke Wallace, G.M., A. F. Campbell, M.P.P., and Prof. Austin, St. Thomas. In conclusion he called upon

REV. MR. JACKSON, pastor of the Main Street Methodist Church, Exteter. Mr. Jackson was greeted with applause. He spoke of the different classes of Orangemen Those who were classes of Orangemen both inwardly and outwardly, and he did not show it, and those who were orangemen both inwardly and outwardly, and he did not doubt that should a struggle come again in defense of the truth, the man who were only Orange in heart would be found standing shoulder to shoulder in defense of truth and rightousness. (Applause.) He had often been asked what Orangeism was, and he was proud to say that Orangeism principally represented the principles further represented were liberty, fidelity, courage and love of right. REV. WM. M'DONAGH, of Exeter, formerly of London, was the person referred to by the previous speaker, and he did not deny the accusation. His parents and ancestors had been Orangemen, and it must have been so. Mr. McDonagh made a foreible speech of over half an hour. He said the priests of the Roman Catholic Church were the faction to be contended against, and not the laity. He welcomed the 12th of July because it reminded rotten and ignorant Protestants, and Protestants who talked about Orangeism being sectarian, that long before they had been born the Prince of Orange secured all the liberty that they now enjoyed. In conclusion he counseled all to refuse to vote for a Roman Catholic as a member of Parliament.

No one need fear cholera or any summer complaint if they have a bottle of Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Dysentery Cordial ready for use. It corrects all looseness of the bowels promptly and causes a healthy-and antural action. This is a medicine adapted for the young and old, rich and poor, and is rapidly becoming the most popular medicine for cholera, dysentery, etc., in the market. No one need fear cholera or any sui Reveling in Space—A lady's arm in a shionable sleeve.

Nothing impure or injurious contaminates the popular antidote to pain, throat and lung remedy and general corrective, Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil. It may be used without the slightest apprehension of any other than salutary consequences. Coughs, rheumatism, earache, bruiss; cuts and sores succumb to its action.

A Man Made Happy.—Gentlemen,—For five years I have been a great sufferer with Dyspepsia; the pain in the pit of my stomach was almost unbearable and life only seemed a drag to me. When I would go to sleep I would have horrible dreams, and my life became very miserable, as there was no rest either day or night. But with the use of only two bottles of Northrop & Lyman's VEGETABLE DISCOVERY this unhappy state has all been changed and I am
