Today matinee and night ...... ..... Quinlan & Walls' Minstrels

Monday ..... "The Billionaire" Everyone who admires humorou Tuesday and Wednesday ...... .....James J. Corbett Saturday matinee and night...... ...... "Way Down East".

THE LONDON.

attractions in London next week. At the Grand some brilliant entertainments are booked, including "The Billionaire" and Marie Wainwright in "Twelfth Night." The ever popular "Way Down East" will be seen on Saturday and "Listic in every way, possesses that tinkle so captivating to the popular early in the same of the control of the same of t ist, and Westcott's well known play, and the costuming brilliant beyond "David Harum" will also be seen dur-description. In the latter feature the

W. C. MANNING,

One-legged bar performer at the London Vauleville

Theater, next week, October 31, for several years, this being his third season with Mr. Quinlan, entertainment of a highly artistic kind, put together for laughter creating purposes and interspersed with Thursday ...... Marie Wainwright bright music, clever specialties and Friday ..... "David Harum" novel ideas, presented by a great com rany noted for its talent, will see ar unusually satisfying one in Klaw Erlanger's production of Harry B Smith and Gus Kerker's new spectacu-lar farce, "The Billionaire," which will All Week ..... First Class Vaudeville be presented for the first time at the Grand Monday night. This production differs in every aspect from any other There will be no dearth of theatrical ever made in this field of entertainment "Jim" Corbett the famous actor-pugil- the scenery is massive, and magnificen staging of this production far excels any musical piece that has ever beer At the London the bill will be no staged in this country, and sets a pace the play because one scene was construed as representing Emperor Wil-liam's dismissal of Bismarck.

Elze discovered that Marlowe's name occurs in ten different spellings, Parker's play, "Agatha," will have its Percival in twenty-nine and Bruce it of Beerbohm Tree, playing the title role. This piece will have its first regler & Co.

he is now preparing to enter the field with a one-act comedy he has written

Elfie Fay, who was the star of "The Southerners," which closed in Philadelphia three weeks ago, after a disastrous tour, has entered suit against pany in "Iris." and will play the part less brilliant, for Manager Fleming which is quite unlikely foreign manof Maldonado, created in this country has booked some of the cleverest peo- agement will ever attain. In the part by Oscar Ashe. Miss Blair's tour opens Malone and other them with certainty, ple known to the Keith, Proctor & of John Doe, Thomas Q. Seabrooke is on Nov. 7. on Nov. 7.

> starring in road companies for the past year, left "The Two Little Sailor Boys" last Saturday night, and will immediately return to the vaudeville ranks. where she was a great favorite. Irene Bentley has not resigned from the cast of "A China Doll," now rehearsing in New York, but was absent from rehearsals on account of illness. which gave rise to the report. Bentley resumed work last Wednesday first afternoon. Philip H. Ryley, leading comedian of "The Tenderfoot' Company, now play-cards as stars in the legitimate. While ing in San Francisco, was recently married there to Miss Daisy L. Slaughter. When "Florodora" was first proill derive the benefit thereof. Some duced. Mr. Ryley played "Tweedle-Failing to secure a suitable play for a tour of this country Olga Nethersole satisfaction, but in this instance, this is now playing the English provinces tri-star attraction's appearance every- in "The Second Mrs. Tanqueray." Thomas Bailey Aldrich's scriptural drama in four acts, "Judith of Bettulia," was recently presented in Boston weight, and the most eminent editors, for the first time by Nance O'Neil and including Furness, have accordingly determined in favor of this spelling. The imperishable controversy as to the correct spelling of Shakespeare's name has burst forth anew. Disraeli in his "Curiosities of Literature" was one anne." This makes seven London theter than to point out that Shakespeare's name is spelled to find the sea wall, to prevent water reaching a depth that play them.

Alice Nielson, the American prima donna who sang her way into fame in the strument is indorsed "Shakespeare" as spelled "Shakespeare" in his will the instrument is indorsed "Shakespeare," as lonna who sang her way into fame in the strument is indorsed "Shakespeare," as lonna who sang her way into fame in the strument is indorsed "Shakespeare," as lonna who sang her way into fame in the strument is indorsed "Shakespeare," as lonna who sang her way into fame in the strument is indorsed "Shakespeare," as lonna who sang her way into fame in the strument is indorsed "Shakespeare," as long the writes:

"The writes:

"The writes:

"The raising of the grade is intended to furnish a solid backing for the sea wall, to prevent water reaching a depth in the city dangerous to life and property, and to afford sufficient elevation for drainage and sewerage from that part of the town lying along the gulf. The writes:

"The writes:

"The writes:

"The raising of the grade is intended to furnish a solid backing for the sea wall, to prevent water reaching a depth in the city dangerous to life and property, and to afford sufficient elevation for drainage and sewerage from that part of the town lying along the could be a sufficient elevation for drainage and sewerage from the course of the structure of the writes." aters Mr. Frohman owns outright, or that Shakespeare's name is spelled has control of the time and attractions "Shakspere" in the register of the lonna, who sang her way into fame in is his bust in Stratford Church, Investi- been declared feasible by eminent enis his bust in Stratford Church. Investigation likewise showed that the poet gation likewise showed the gation likewise sh and the members of the San Carlo Deera Company of Naples.

George H. Broadhurst has completed the manuscript of "The Boss," the Iramatization of Alfred Henry Lewis book, and its first presentation will orobably be in Roston, near the holilays. Thomas W. Wise, now playing an important role with Margaret Angin's "The Eternat Feminine," will have the star part in the new piece.

Oscar Blumenthal's new play, "The Dead Lion," which was problibited in Berlin, was presented for the first time in Hamburg, Germany, last week, the attergoers from all parts of Europe being in attendance, A dramatic triumph is reported. The Berlin police forbade the play because one scene was conSepace of the San Carlo Score Signor Caruso
mony of a curious and confusing nather from the deep water channel between mony of a curious and confusing nather from the deep water channel between mony of a curious and confusing nather from the deep water channel between mony of a curious and confusing nather from the deep water channel between mony of a curious and confusing nather from the deep water channel between mony of a curious and confusing nather from the deep water channel between mony of a curious and confusing nather from the deep water channel between such as the citties of poverance of petales and confusing nather spon petale and series of petale discoverations are ture.

Rallways AND NAVIGATION.

BILIOUS HEADACHE
Is noted the part between between deverse and series operations are
ture,

There are those who have marveled greatly at the variableness on the part of the poet in the spelling of edges, which, after loading and self-propelling dredges, which, after loadin

Dreyden, Dreydon and Driden. Throckmorton in sixteen, Gascoigne in Mrs. Humphrey Warde and Louis N. nineteen, Choimondeley in twenty-five, irst production in London about the thirty-three. But of all, the name of list of December, Viola Tree, daughter our poet is the one which exhibits the greatest number of varieties, no fewer than fifty-five having been counted. In alar production in this country the 1st the records of the town council of of January, Eleanor Robson playing the Stratford, for example, the name of "Agatha" was given in Ro- the poet's father occurs one hundred chester last November for one perform- and sixty-six times and in fourteen difance to protect the copyright by Lieb- ferent forms, viz.: Shakesper, Shakesp spere. Shaksper, Shackspere, Shakes-Leo Ditrichstein is the very latest member of the legitimate forces to arShakespere, Shakespere, Sha range for a vaudeville engagement, and pere and Shaxspeare. Certainly, an old gentleman of orthnographical variety.

If we but knew how the poet himself spelt his name there would be an end to the dispute. There are six of his signatures which are recognized as being genuine. Three of these appear on the will, the fourth on the mortgage deed relating to the house in the Black-Charles Scheuer, one of the backers, friars, the fifth on the deed of bargain and sale relating to the same prop-erty, and the sixth is the autograph in Frank Sheridan has been engaged as leading man for Eugenia Blair's comof "Montaine's Essays." These several signatures are so indistinct that one cannot decipher them with certainty to the form "Shakespeare." As has been pointed out, the first Miss Lizzie Evans, who has been folio has the name spelled speare"; yet, his "Lear," which was published in 1608, and "Two Noble Kinsmen," 1634, it is spelled "Shakespeare." What would seem to add authority to this spelling as being the one intended by the poet is the fact that the editions of "Venus and Adonis," "Lucretia," and the "Sonnets," which were published under the poet's own eye, the name is spelled in the same way. Yet confusion doubly confound-fact that in the commendatory verses, "Shakespeare," the same spelling as the first folio. Milton, it may be taken when he wrote: "What need my Shakespeare," he probably did so advisedly. Again in the five most carefully written Stratford documents, the name occurs five times spelt "Shakespeare." On all the tombstones of the cumstances have proved of decisive

Nora Bayes, who is now playing in vaudeville in Chicago, will do three of the first to take authoritative cogniz- more weeks and then join the Shubert Miss Wainwright has played the ance of the wrangle; but he was satis- forces as one of the principals in their

James J. Corbett,

The Famous Actor-Pugilist, Who Will Be Seen at the Grand Opera House Next Week in "Pals."

N. Y., Ethel Barrymore presented her atest play, "Synday," for the first time in America. This piece ran two years in London. Mrs. James Brown Potter made w start in London last Saturday night. Mrs. Potter has been resting since the failure of George Darling's The Golden Light," three weeks ago. David Belasco's next play for Mrs eslie Carter will be a tragedy picturing the intense life of Lucrezia Borgia. The first production will be made about he first of the year.

Raising City Seventeen Feet The re-establishment of the city of Galveston, which was partly destroyed y a hurricane in 1900, is described by C. Arthur Williams, in The World Today He writes:

discovered a large deposit rich in uranium, the element in which radium usually occurs, and Mr. Laudin has already produced radium from it. The location of the deposit is still kept secret.

Lifebuoy Soap-disinfectant-is strongly recommended by the medical profession as a safeguard against infectious diseases. 22

RAILWAYS AND NAVIGATION.

Michigan Central The Niagara Falls Route

DOMINION ELECTIONS

Return Tickets at Single Fare
Good going on Nov. 2 and 3, limited for return to Nov. 4, 1904. City ticket office, 395 Richmond Street. Phone 205. O. W. RUGGLES, JOHN PAUL

THE DEBUT OF MRS. GILBERT AS A STAR

[Special Letter to The London Adver- art, Hallen Mostyn, William Norris and tiser.1 New York, Oct. 29.-In point of senti-New York, Oct. 29.—In point of senti-ment as well as real dramatic import-sipid, excepting for the work of Mr. ance the foremost event of the week in Norris, whose impersonation of a Cin-New York was the debut of Mrs. Gil-galese lawyer partially educated in bert as a star at the Lyceum Theater, England and speaking a sort of Indo-in a Clyde Fitch adaptation from the Saxon dialect, was a capital piece of French called "Granny." At the age of character drawing. Much of the music y. Yet confusion doubly confound-is added to the question by the emerge for the first time as a full-bloom graceful, and the story, although someindividual attraction, but that is what what thin, was sufficiently adhesive t temporary authors, he is always called has befallen the most popular player of stick the songs together with some conelderly females ever known to this com- tinuity. "The Cingalee" will win much munity. Mrs. Gilbert has long been more upon its own merits than by reatalking more or less vaguely of retiring son of the skill with which its interpoet's wish as to the spelling, and so from the stage and last season her preting company has been organized. manager, Mr. Charles Frohman, said in effect: "Very well then. If you really desire to leave off acting it shall be as ments with the management of the you say, but the event must be proper- Academy of Music for a large block of ly celebrated." So Mr. Fitch was com-missioned to write suitable material for ous and popular playhouse. This period

Gilbert at the end of the evening's en- in that part of town. tertainment. In truth, the whole night was surcharged with emotion, not a loved and lovable woman whose memory is warmly cherished when Allenby falls in love for a second time, Lew Dockstader, after three exceeding to the great consternation and resentingly prosperous weeks at the Herald all probability none now living will see anything of its character approaching it ries the woman to whom he has be- seen in New York. ries the woman to whom he has become attached and she proves an estimable and irreproachable wife, whereat the old lady for whom the story is named acknowledges her error and brings about a reunion between father ing of Mme. Rejane, who was booked address J. A. RICHARDSON, district for the agree with the story is nown. Not a very complicated plot.

and several others, all worthy of comleft as a part of his estate an unex- ing away applicants for admission at nired contract with George Edwardes, every performance. The comedy-drama of London, under which Mr. Daly, "his heirs and assigns" retained an option upon all Edwardes' productions at and it is played with distinction and until Nov. 4. Between all stations in Daly's Theater, London. This option in force in every particular. due course became the property of Mrs. Augustin Daly, whose brother is James | It is probable that the entire season nearest Canadian Pacific agent. W. C. Duff. Duff, in turn, is now enabled to advertise himself as the American producer of "The Cingalee," which is crankle" and Maude Adams in the new crankle as the American producer of "The Cingalee," which is crankle and Maude Adams in the new crankle are the crankle and Maude Adams in the new crankle are the crankl still in its long run in London at the theater established there by the late theater established there by the late Frohman. The Drew engagement shows Mr. Daly—a condition showing how the not the slightest sign of waning, alunexpected may happen in spite of pre- though well along in its second month. cautions. For if there was one human being on earth for whom Mr. Daly entertained cordial and out-spoken dis- Eleanor Robson's engagement in "Merc like, that person was Duff, who naw ly Mary Ann," already once extended, cable finds himself practically in control of may be still further prolonged. The -Fig. the most valuable properties upon American actress has entirely captivat. Third which his former brother-in-law ever ed the London public. why speculate? He didn't live and Edna May's following transferred itthrough the circumstances of his de- self bodily to the Herald Square Thea- Mada sear has celebrated the openmise Duff fell into soft and profitable surroundings. "The Cingalee" is luxurisurroundings. "The Cingalee" is luxurischool Girl" was heard and applauded ously produced with a company includ-ing the Hengler Sisters, Melville Stew
LEANDER RICHARDSON.

MINARD'S

DISTEMPER.

a large number of others, most of Through the Famed Matawhom are unknown on Broadway. The spelt in the same way. The poet's brother Gilbert also wrote his name "Shakespeare." All of these later circumstances have proved of starboad that the same way. The poet's found herself upon the narrowing verge of starboad. It needn't be said (for Bellairs," and Blanche Bates in "The cumstances have proved of the Gods." roar of welcome at the Lyceum when Belasco a metropolitan outlet at Mrs. Gilbert first appeared upon the "popular" prices for his attractions scene of "Granny" on the opening produced uptown at two dollars a seat. night. Neither need I go into the details of the subsequent demonstrations emy is practically virgin soil for the low rates. leading up by ever increasing stages to Belasco representations, which will the great ovation which awaited Mrs. naturally create a profound sensation

> The New York engagement of Mme. alone in the touching passages of the play but in the manner and bearing of greater matter than it looked at the the audience which at more than one outset. The advance sale is very heavy point was moved almost to hysteria. at increased prices, the top figure of John Allenby, the leading male charac- which is $3. No less than five plays ter of "Granny," is a widower with one have been added to the repertoire origson, and a mother-in-law who presides inally prescribed, enabling a constant over his household. The dead wife was change of bill and giving the added ad-

has fallen into the hands of an advenhas fallen into the DockWabash is the best route to go by Allenby's young son leaving with his stader show is everywhere commended cause it saves many hours of travel and grandmother. Allenby promptly mar- as the 'est minstrel performance ever lands passengers right at the main en-and son. Not a very complicated plot, for this establishment long ago, cuts passenger agent, northwest corner King you will perceive, but one that is work-short an engagement that might othered out with delicacy and charm. Mrs. wise have run on indefinitely, for there Gilbert's personation was of course al- can be no disputing the fact that Skintogether delightful. In the supporting ner has made a profound impression cast were Emmett C. King, Frank E. with his interpretation of the happy-Aiken, William Lewers, Dorothy Ham-mond. Marie Dorp, Jennie Reiffarth drama.

David Warfield in "The Music Master" at the Belasco Theater is one of When the late Augustin Daly died he the very few attractions actually turn Thursday, November 3. Single fare for round trip, between all stations in Canada, going Nov. 2 and 3, valid returning until Nov. 4. World's Fair, St. Louis All are delighted with it. Leave Lon-$16.05 Round Trip. For tickets, illustrated literature and full information, call at city ticket office, corner Richmond and Dundas streets, or at depot ticket office.

COMMENCING JULY 3

CANADA'S NEW TRAIN, THE

will leave MONTREAL 7:30

p.m. daily, except Saturday, arriving HALIFAX 8:15 p.m. the following day, making close connection with Prince Edward Island, via Point du Chene.

pedia Valley by Daylight.

Grand Trunk Day Express from Toronto makes direct connection at Montreal.

Toronto Ticket Office, 51 King Street East.

WHITE STAR LINE United States and Royal Mail

Steamers. New York, Queenstown and Liverpool.

...OCT. 28, 7 A.M. ..NOV. 2, NOON. BALTIC ...NOV. 9, 6:30 A.M.

First, second and third class at very Accommodations for all classes of passengers unexcelled.
E. DE LA HOOKE, CLOCK CORNER,
Sole Agent for London.

-TO THE-ST. LOUIS WORLD'S FAIR

Wabash Line.

lands passengers right at the main en-trance World's Fair grounds, before go-

CANADIAN PACIFIC

GENERAL ELECTIONS ReturnTickets at Single Fare

Canada, Port Arthur, Ont., and east. Tickets and full particulars from your ALLAN LINE ROYAL MAIL STEAMERS From Montreal and Quebec every Fri-Moville. upwards. Second cabin, $30 and upwards. Second cabin, $30 and upwards. Glasgow service—First cabin, $40; second cabin, $27 50. Third class, to or from Liverpool, Derry, Belfast and Glasgow at lowest fares.

E. De La Hooke, W. Fulton, F. B.

Clarke, agents

MINARD'S LINIMENT CURES

moving pictures.

Opera House, which will be in charge of a competent operator. The election before, during and after the perform ance of "Twelfth Night," on Nev.

The doors will be open at 6:30, and returns will be given until 8:15, the commence. After that announcements

There are in this world people of all another, yet in their own lines they haven't the ingenuity to invent or produce something new or different, and this is particularly true of comedians.

and especially is it so of minstre-comedians. However, this rule does not regular time for the performance

after the performance is over.

eturns will be received and announced

Miss Helen Dexter, A Famous Beauty Who Will be Seen at hear Mr. Subers is a relief and a Miss Marie Tempest, who will appear treat, and Dan Quinlan was shrewd in a new Cosmo Gordon Lennox comeenough to see the fine points of Mr. dy, entitled, "The Freedom of Suz-

the Grand on Monday Night in

"The Billionaire."

Comedians, among whom is that route to the middle of December. It is based on the "School for Scandal," and its authors are John Kendrick Pangs, Robert Penfield and A. Baldwin Sloane. manners, his little ways, his accent, his make-up, his walk, in fact everything about Mr. Subers' work is de-cidedly not the stereotyped kind of ef another London theater. He has cidedly not the stereotyped kind of of another London theater. He has work most of our minstrel comedians taken over the Criterion in that city for pass over the footlights. To see and the season. The first attraction will be

Shea circuit for the London Vaudeville splendidly equipped with a character Theater. During the present week the suited both to his personality and management of this pretty, cosy play-stage methods. There was a big de-house have proved that if the people mand for tickets when the sale opened of London are given the right kind of yesterday morning. On Tuesday and Wednesday next a vaudeville they will patronize it, and each night the attendance of ladies the Grand Mr. James J. Corbett, asows larger. As each turn goes on Manager Fleming sits in the audience sisted by Mr. Hal Davis and Miss Inez and takes many notes and if it is not Macauley and their great company of sisted by Mr Hal Davis and Miss Inez what he considers clean in all respects metropolitan artists, will open their it is dispensed with at once. Next annual engagement, bringing with week's bill includes the following: Art them their stupendous production of Rondo, eccentric juggling comedian; "Pals." The above artists, each of Chas. Willard, singing, dancing and whom has been for the past five years imtersonations; Knox Brothers, musical comedians; La Tell Brothers, Euclass vaudeville theaters in the leading cal comedians; La Tell Brothers, Eu-ropean gymnasts; Patchen and Clefcities in the United States and Canada, ton, a rube in Chinatown, comedy are proving to be just as big drawing acrobatic sketch: Aloz and Zola, society sketch, "The Handicap," direct they will be a great loss to vaudeville, from Keith Theater, Boston: Adams the patrons of ropular priced theaters Brummel and Kimberley, the fun factory; W. C. Manning, one-legged bar able through their own popularity and member of the famous sextet. the two comical Pecos; the curiosity of a portion of their admirals, to play several cities occasionperformer; the kinetograph with new lly to good business, and give general Manager Kormann has a special C. P. R. wire placed into the Grand where they have played lately has beer a succession of ovations. When she comes to this city, which will be very soon, to play Viola in Twelfth Night." Miss Marie Wainwright, famous the world over for her histrionic versatility, will show how playfully the great Shake speare could will be made between the acts and urn a charming woman into a captivating youth, and mix her up so adly that even she forgets which she kinds, some of one kind and some of role over a thousand times with a delicacy of touch which makes her per.

fermance one of the most delightful

stage creations. "Way Down East" which comes to he Grand next Saturday, matinee and ight, has come to be regarded as a assic among the wholesome and picuresque plays which depict rustic life New England. It will be presented upon a more elaborate scale than last eason, when it tested the capacit; of I the theaters at which it appeared. There is in this deft combining of umor and mathos with incisive dramatic incident, a tremendous amount f human interest. The passions and notions which sway these simple peole of the New Hampshire farm, are the same that have coverned all the people of all ages since the world began. Human nature is pretty much like regardless of environment, and there are heart tragedies among the peaceful granite hills as stirring as those of the brilliant city boulevard. "David Harum," with its New York roduction and an extremely strong ast, will be presented at the Grand Nov. 4. This simple announcement will awaken anticipations of pleasure the minds of many for nearly everyone has read Westcott's brok and found much enjoyment in it. That they will want to see David, Aunt Polly, Deacon Perkins and the other chargeters who move through the story on he stage seems but natural. All of the scenes are laid in Homeville, New York, and the plan is divided into three acts. From appearances it is not unlikely that the play will meet with a warm reception here, and its presentation be largely attended.

Last Monday Lillian Russell signed a five-year contract with the Shubert

On Saturday, Nov. 1, Mr. Charles