

"HE "Seal Brand" Trademark guarantees three things-full weight, extra strength and delicious flavor. And the largest distributors of high-class coffee in the world are behind the "Seal Brand"

Trademark. Ask your grocer for

Chase Lanborns Seal Brand Coffee

Always in 1 and 2 pound sealed tins-never sold in bulk.

CHASE & SANBORN, - MONTREAL.

You don't have to mix "Black Knight" Stove Polish.

There is no black watery liquid to stain your hands or dirty the floor.

There is no "hard brick" to scrape—no trouble—no waste-no hard rubbing.

"Black Knight" is a firm paste-ready to usequickly applied-and shines quick as a wink.

It's as simple and easy to use as shoe polish, and a big stove can be shined with it almost as easily. Perhaps your dealer does not handle "Black Knight" Stove Pelish. If so, send toc. for a big can, free postpaid. THE F. F. DALLEY CO. LIMITED. Hamilton, Ont. lakers of the famous "2 in 1" Shee Pollsh.

UNDERWEAR

Once Worn-Always Worn

Those who wear 'Ceetee" Underwear are enthusiastic over its perfect fit and comfortable feeling and will wear no other.

In all sizes for men, women and children. Ask your dealer to show you "CEETEE." 1873

The C. Turnbull Co. of Galt, Limited Galt, Ontario

Manufacturers - Established 1859

$+$+$+$+$+$+$+$+$+$+$+$+$+$+$+$+$+$PE GUE'S WIFE ELOPES

have a call to make besides. There is remember it, and to wish that my

'Of course, he will; I tell him so But the old fellow is about the biggest natural rogue in Whittlesford." "Always was, so far as I can re nember," I agreed.

"And always will be-you may rely ipon that. He might behave himself, only for his daughter's sake, the "Poor Lotty! It's a pity she doesn't marry that sweetheart of hers,

"What, Flood, the blacksmith?" cried Yorke, turning upon me those bright frank eyes of his. "That would be a and old Wilde are about in the same dingy waiting-room at Whittlesford hare well enough; and he's a rough clod for a little bit of a thing like the village where two roads met-one leading to the station, the other, which hardly deserved to be called a road, branching off round by the river. The junction made a sort of three-cornered space, and close to a high red wall stood old Wilde's cottage, with a patch of common before it, and its small garden bright with a prolific crop of scarlet and purple poppies. It was a ramshackle old shanty, that cottage, and it seemed to get more lilapidated day by day.

"Well, yes; but he's awfully fond of "Oh. yes—I dare say! I'll get down here, Ned-and thanks."

I watched Yorke knock at the little of Lotty Wilde's rosy childish face and long dark curls, which were always all over her head, as people say. She was a pretty little kittenish creature, a mere baby in looks and ways, and too refined and delicate altogether to be he daughter of that tough old reprobate, her father, who was every whit as bad as Roger Yorke had said.

Some of the discreet dames of Whittlesford had whispered that Miss Lotty was a flirt, and that the way in which she carried on with Phil flood, the young blacksmith, was quite disgraceful, while meek Mrs. Deeping had on one occasion stigmatized her conduct as "really shocking." But I did not think that Lotty was any worse than Mrs. Deeping's daughter, who flirted in the coolest, most matter-ofcourse fashion with every man who came in her way. I rather liked pretty Lotty, and I often wished that she had a better place to live in than that crazy-looking erection, with her drunken old poaching father. "Good-day, Mr. Chavasse, sir. Doctor's there again, I see. He don't spare his trouble, he don't-not there at any rate!"

I gave such a start that I dropped my whip. Sitting quite still, with the reins slack upon the ponles' backs, I gave his cap a sulky touch, close at my side. It was Phil Flood, the olacksmith, a black-browed, swarthy, pad-shouldered fellow, handsome, o, in a certain dark, rough style. He tared at the closed door of old Wilde's ottage, and frowned as he repeated, ot looking at me: "Doctor's there again, then, Mr.

"Yes. Wilde is down again,

"He ain't so bad that he needs the doctor every day, sir," he returned, in the same stolidly sullen way. "There's work enough in Whittlesford for Docor Yorke without his being always "Doctor Yorke doesn't spare himself," I observed, wondering what was wrong with the fellow, brusque and sulky as I knew him to be by nature. "He has pulled old Wilde more than once, you know." "I know that, sir."

"You ought to be glad, for Lotty's sake," I went on, jokingly. He gave me an ugly glance from under his black brows.

"Lotty's no business of his, Mr. Ned." "Everybody is a doctor's business. And, talking of business, how is it you are not at it, Flood? Nothing to do?"
"No; there's plenty to do, sir." "Then, if I were you, I'd do it.

dling isn't the way to get the Wayside Cottage, you know. The Wayside Cottage, a pretty little place at the other end of Whittlesford, belonged to Chavasse, and Flood wanted it to take Lotty Wilde to if he could get her, it was supposed. when he gave up going to the Cap and Bells, and stuck to his forge more -not before; and Flood knew it. He looked sulkier than ever when I said

"There isn't a man in Whittlesford that can do more than I can, Mr. Chavasse, or do it better, though I say it."

he said, still sullenly.

"Of course, when you like — we all know that. Take my advice and do it. The Wayside Cottage is worth having, and so is Lotty. I must be off now. Good-day, Flood; and I won't tell Madame that you were doing nothing at this time of day."

I touched the ponies with the whip, turning them into the road which led the station, and was off at a brisk pace. But I glanced back, as the phaeton swept round a curve, at Phil Flood, still standing at the edge of the patch of common, with his eyes fixed upon the door of Wilde's cottage. 1 could see his face, and there was look of sullen fierceness and anger upon it which somehow gave me an odd shock for the instant, and for the second time I wondered vaguely what was the matter with him. But just then I heard the sound of the coming train, and I whipped up the ponies smartly, knowing that I should be late after all; and the memory of

"Yes; I am going to meet her now." young blacksmith and his lowering "Then give me a lift, will you? I sulky face went out of my head. But have to go back to the surgery, and in a time not far distant I was to barbaric princess, with the heavy chains and bracelets upon her bare brown neck and arms. Then she was pulled aside by someone behind her. and I found myself looking down into a little, dark, delicate face, with pair of the most wonderful eyes that had ever beheld, and knew, with a I feeling of intense relief, that this must be the real Natalie Orme.

CHAPTER V. As well as I can I will give a porsort of leap from the frying-pan into trait of Natalie Orme as she looked the fire, or I'm mistaken. Phil Flood on that hot July afternoon in the boat, I fancy. He knows the taste of Station. Her skin was really brown -not sunburned, but brown, clear, transparent, with every movement of the blood showing plainly beneath it: she was a veritable nut-brown maid Alice Deeping's pink cheeks were quick to color, but not in the curious emotional way in which this girl's flushed have thought it beautiful but for her about midnight. eyes. Those eyes were wonderful; I have never seen any like them, and do not expect to do so. It was not that they were large and black and soft and brilliant, though that was enough to make them lovely. It was a singular trick of dilation which the pupils had, I watched Yorke knock at the little and which gave them a golden tinge. low door, bend his head to get in as When I came to know her better, I found that this peculiarity was strongest whenever she was pleased or excited. She was excited and nervous

> I was quick enough to see that Madame had been right—she was shy, and no mistake about it! For a mo-Revs. G. B. Morley, Bradford; Bernard but the fact that she was obviously more nervous than I was gave me Alexander Williams, Toronto: raised my hat:

"I'm awfully sorry to be late, Miss Orme; you must forgive me for keeping you waiting, which will be more than my mother will do if you tell her. She meant to come and meet you herseif; but unluckily she has a headache: so you must take me as her substitute until we get to Chavasse. and let me bid you welcome to Whittlesford in her place." To Be Continued.

MADAME STEINHEIL TRIES TO BLUFF JUDGE

had not heard an approaching step, and turned, to find the speaker, who the Prisoner Subsides.

> Paris, Nov. 11,-The state rested its case against Mme. Steinheil, accused of the hospital to try and get the injured the murder of her husband, Adolphe in getting it. Steinheil, and her stepmother, Madame Japy, at 2 o'clock this afternoon. The crown official is responsible for the defense at once began the examination statement that two arrests, presumof its witnesses, of whom there will be ably the men with whom he was fightfewer than were called by the state. The close of the prosecution was en> livened by another display of anger on the part of the prisoner. Mme. Steinheil had already insinuated that she Joint Committee of Commons and could tell of things that would be interesting to the public, but not pleasing to persons in high official circles. She is supposed to have referred to her intrigues involving personages whose as-sociations with her would be regarded as a national scandal. This threat she has held over the court from the date of her arrest. Today, in a flash of passion, she cried out, "My past contains interesting chapters." Judge DeValles appeared unmoved by Judge Devanes appeared unmoved by the interruption and promptly and sternly replied: "You are at perfect liberty to say anything that you please."

>
> Mme. Steinheil, however, went no

The first witness introduced by defense was a chauffeur, who testified that Mme. Steinheil gave him four dollars for trying to locate the "Blue lars for trying to locate the "Blue Automobile" which was reported to have been seen in front of Mme. Steinheil's have to go back to the surgery, and have a call to make besides. There is plenty of time. The London train doesn't get in until 4:30, and there goes 4."

AND STARTS TONG WAR

Jim Konk Fook Gets His From the Yee Yuns and Revenge Follows.

I told him to jump in, only too glad to have him with me, and then whipped up the ponies. Not until the High street was behind us did I ask him what he was doing in that direction. "Old Wilde's off his legs again," he told me shortly.

"What, again? What is up with him this time?"

"The old thing, I've no doubt. He declares that he hasn't been out at night for months; but that's humbug. He has been at his old trick of sneak, ing game at Roxborough Chace as sure as my name's what it is, and now he is twisted into a knot with rheumatic gout. He must suffer a martyrdom. Well, serve him right! The game laws are a great mistake, no doubt; but the Roxborough preserves are on Roxbor-Well, serve him right! The game laws are a great mistake, no doubt; but the Roxborough preserves are on Roxborough land, and are no business of his. But he'd sooner act like that than work, any day."

"He'll get caught one of these days"

Toom, to find myself face to face with one of the men fired point blank, killing the On Yick Tong man instantly. The murder of a Chinese at Mountain View last night also is believed to be connected with present Tong war. Two members of the Yee family were killed recently by the On Yicks, and it is asserted by the nolice that at a meeting served by the nolice that at a meeting of the Yee family were that at a meeting of the caught o Natalie Orme? The fates forbid! For a moment I was too taken aback to voted to take triple toll for their dead. The police fear that the war will spread throughout the coast cities.

CONDUCTOR HARRIS DIES

Makes Fifteenth Death in the Vancouver Trolley Disaster. Vancouver, Nov. 11.—The ghastly toil of death in the electric railway accident of yesterday was increased today by the death of Conductor Harris. This makes the fifteenth death as result of the street car disaster.

BURNED TO DEATH

Young Woman Meets Terrible End at Spragueville, Ont.

Ottawa, Nov. 11 .- Mrs. John Dorsey, aged 35, a bride of six months, and thought to hail from Ottawa, was I pulled up the ponies, and he jumped and paled. She was slight in figure, so down. We were just at the end of slight that she looked almost tall, barn milking. Her clothes caught burned to death at Spragueville, near and yet her head, covered with little fire and she ran out of the house ripples and curls of jet-black silky hair, did not reach my shoulder by a band, but got caught in a barb wire good two inches. Her face was small fence. Her husband extricated her, but and delicate, with straight dark brows; was not in time to save her from terbut I do not know that I should rible burns. She died at Spragueville

IMPOSING CEREMONY

Twelve Canons Installed By Anglican Lord Bishop of Toronto.

Toronto, Nov. 11.—An imposing ceremony took place in the St. Alban's Cathedral tonight, when two newlyappointed archdeacons and 12 canons were installed by the lord bishop of now, and so, as her glance met mine, H. Cody, Toronto, was installed venthe diocese of Toronto. Rev. Canon J. erable archdeacon of York, and Rev. Canon C. L. Ingles was installed venerable archdeacon of Simcoe.

ment I hardly knew what to say as I met those great dilating anxious eyes; but the fact that she was obviously burham; Edwin Daniel. Port Hope; Durham; Edwin Daniel. Port Hope; Durham; Edwin Daniel. T. W. confidence to say pretty coolly, as 1 Powell, Eglington; Dr. W. H. Pearson, Toronto: S. Jones. pastor Emeritus. Toronto: Wm. Walsh, Brampton; rural dean of Peel; Oswald Rigby, headmaster Trinity College School, Port Hope.

SHOOTING AFFRAY

Row Near Ottawa That May End Fatally For One. Belleville, Nov. 11:-A shooting affray occurred at Glen Miller, on the banks of the Trent Valley Canal, this morning. It is said that some Italians were in a row, and one of them had a gun which others tried to take from him. In the scuffle the gun was discharged, and the party makes Lawyer's Explanation of Crime discharged, and the party who had it was shot in the leg below the knee. He was brought to the hospital here, and doctors, took his leg off at the knee, the bone being badly shattered. Magistrate Masson, County Attorney Anderson and an interpreter went to man's deposition, but did not succeed

He is said to be very low, and a ing, will be made before long.

TO CENSOR MUSIC HALLS

Lords in Its Favor.

London, Nov. 11 .- The joint committee of the House of Lords and the House of Commons, which was appointed in July to inquire into the censorship of the drama, today reported in favor of continuing the censorship, and of extending the authority of the censor, so as to include a supervision over the music halls.

The joint committee's report favors the retention of the present censorship administration, but recommends self. that it should be legal to perform an and authors of indecent plays. It sugcouncil should decide in cases where there were objectionable features other home in the Impasse Ronsin at 8 o'clock on the evening that the crime was committed. This testimony was introduced to show that Mme. Steinheil was anxious to discover the identity of the assassins.

BACKACHE SIMPLY VANISHES AND YOUR OUT-OF-ORDER KIDNEYS WILL ACT FINE

A Few Doses Will Regulate the your druggist and start taking as directed, with the knowledge that there Kidneys and Cure the Most Severe Bladder Misery.

No man or woman here whose kid- cleansing, healing and vitalizing influneys are out of order, or who suffers ence directly upon the organs and from backache or bladder misery, can glands affected and completes the cur; afford to leave Pape's Diuretic un- before you realize it.

After taking several doses, all pains uretic means clean, healthy, active in the back, sides or loins, rheumatic kidneys, bladder and urinary organs twinges, nervousness, headache, sleep- and you feel fine. lessness, inflamed or swollen eyelids. Your physician, pharmacist, banker dizziness, tired or worn-out feeling and or any mercantile agency will tell you other symptoms of clogged, sluggish that Pape, Thompson & Pape, of Cinkidneys simply vanish.

est kidney or bladder disorder or feel of your confidence. rheunatic pains, don't continue to be Accept only Pape's Diuretic—fifty-miserable or worried, but get a fifty-cent treatment of Pape's Diuretic from anywhere in the world.

is no other medicine, at any price, made anywhere else in the world, which is so harmless or will effect so thorough and prompt a cure. This unusual preparation goes direct to the cause of trouble, distributing its

A few days' treatment of Pape's Di-

The moment you suspect the slight- medicine concern, theroughly worthy

The Great Sale Ends

After two weeks of vigorous selling we bring our Great Annual Sale of Mill Ends and Factory Seconds to a close. Success has crowned our efforts and we have surpassed all previous records in bargain-giving, store-crowding and the magnitude of business we

Saturday Night

Saturday is the last day and we're going to make it the greatest day of the Great Sale. What we have left of Mill Ends and Factory Seconds will be sacrificed at prices more ridiculous, if possible, than have prevailed during the sale.

A GREAT CLEARANCE OF FANCY AND PLAIN SILKS AT 33c AND 59c YARD. COME.

300 YARDS of SILK GREATLY REDUCED

We've taken our entire stock of odds and ends of Silk and divided it into two lots at 33c and 59c. Here are the details:

Colored Chiffon Taffeta, 20 inches wide. A number of good plain shades and shot effects, to clear at, per yard, 33¢

Black and White Taffetas, in checks and stripes. Taffeta and Pailette Figured Stripes, in navy and brown, and a great number of fancies in other wanted shades. Value to $1.25. Clearing, Saturday, at59¢

THREE COAT SPECIALS

We are specialists on the coat question. Here are three, and three leaders that hold the value record for London: Ladies' Coats, Navy and Black Cheviot, loose and semi-fitted styles; good, Ladies' Coats, in Black, Navy, Grey, Wine and Green Kersey Cloth; double-breasted; military collar;

Ladies' Coats-A variety of styles in Kerseys, Broadcloths and Serges, 48, 50, 52 and 54 inch lengths. Colors are taupe, wine, rose, navy

MILL ENDS

Sheetings, Flannelettes. Wrapperettes, Table Linens, Towellings, Specials in Dress Goods. Corsets. Hosiery, Collars, Belts, etc.

Phone 1182

Cottons.

UNDERWEAR BARGAINS Ladies' Grey Union Drawers, open and closed styles. Ladies' Vests and Drawers, white and grey. Regular 50c, for39¢ Ladies' Vests and Drawers, grey and cream. Regular Ladies' Vests and Drawers, grey and cream; all-wool. Ladies' Red Vests and Drawers. Regular $1.00 value. for 79¢ Ladies' Black Wool Tights. Regular $1.00 value, for 79¢ White Knit Corset Covers, white, with long sleeves. Specials at 25c and 35cLadies' O. S. Vests and Drawers, white only. Regular Children's Overalls, all-wool, without feet. Value to

GRAY & PARKER 150 Dundas, and Carling Street

diction of the London common council, instead of the lord chamberlain. The proposed changes, which are not intended to apply to Ireland, are so complicated that they are unlikely to meet with approval in any quar-

THINKS GIRL DEAD DISMEMBERS HER

of "Pro!." Hill, Who Has Pleaded Guilty.

Taunton, Mass., Nov. 11. - "Profes sor Frank L. mili, the new doctor, indicted for manslaughter in causing the death of Amelia St. Jean, of Woon socket, today retracted his previous plea of not guilty in the district court here, and pleaded guilty.

The dismembered portions of the body of the St. Jean girl, with the exception of the head, which has not been recovered, were found scattered along the Bulger marsh road in Tiverton, R. I. After the identity of the victim of the crime had been established, suspicion was directed at Hill, and he was arrested and subsequently indicted for manslaughter. It was alleged by the police that the young woman had visited Hill for the purpose of submitting to an illegal operation, which it was supposed resulted in her death. Thomas S. Higgins, Hill's attorney, told the court that the St. Jean girl died in Hill's office. She had visited Hill by appointment, and while there had performed an operation upon her-Shortly afterward she fell to the floor. Hill believed the woman unlicensed play, leaving it to the pub- had fainted and applied restoratives, lic prosecutor to indict the producers but after an hour of unavailing work he came to the conclusion that she gests that a mixed committee of privy was dead. Terrified, the lawyer said, Hill dismembered the body and disposed of it. The torso and limbs he scattered along the Bulger marsh road in Tiverton, while the head was wrapped in a black skirt and thrown into the bushes near St. Patrick's Cemetery, in Fall River,

While the attorney for "Professor" Hill was making the statement reporters in Fall River found in the spot indicated in the confession the head of the victim, which completed the dismembered body of Miss St. Pending the examination of the head and in view of the statement of four doctors that they could not ac-cept Hill's alleged confession as true. the case and Hill was remanded

The maximum sentence for manslaughter in this state is 20 years'

FIFTY DOMESTICS COME TO CANADA

fifty British domestic servants tion's brother! But, then, the girls are who left Liverpool on Wednesday last not to be blamed. If the association for Canada by the Canadian Pacific send out the very class of girls that liner Lake Champlain. They were go- are much sought after by bachelor ing out under the auspices of the Brit- farmers there is little cause for wonish Women's Emigration Association der in the constant cry of "send out an institution that has done much more." Wittingly, or unwittingly, the good work in supplying the Dominion association is doing a good work in with a much-felt want. They were the matrimonial line, and there are from practically every quar- many young farmers in Canada ter of the kingdom, and one and all bless the association's existence.

HOW FOOLISH WE WERE-- to put up with that miserable old stove all these years when we might have had a

ROYAL JEWEL

It bakes well, looks well and works well, is economical with fuel and very moderate in price; in fact, THE ROYAL JEWEL is one of the best featured ranges ever made anywhere.

SEVERAL STYLES AND SIZES TO SUIT PURCHASERS

Made in Hamilton by the The Burrow, Stewart & Milne Co., Ltd.

SOLD IN LONDON BY

KILPATRICK BROS.

HARDWARE AND STOVE DEALERS

602 DUNDAS STREET

Judge Stevens postponed sentence in were in high glee at the prospect of to the good things that awaited them in the land of "My Lady of the Snows." Miss Chapman, an elderly person-hopes to take out quite a age, who accompanied them, is a busiof girls in the spring. En passant nesslike little woman, and explained is rumored that Mrs. Sanford will to the writer, with a verry twinkle, early next year sever her to the writer, with a very that learly next year sever ner connection that a large majority of the girls that with the Girls' Home of Welcome, and the association sent out no sooner ar- will act directly under the Governrived at their new homes than they ment in securing domestics. Her field Liverpool, Nov. 11.—Bonny, blyth and houses on their own account. This is hold eften all the association and but will embrace Australia and gay was the general description of really too bad, after all the associa- New Zealand.

DR. A. W. CHASE'S 25C. who is sent direct to the diseased parts by the Improved Blower. Heals the ulcers, clears the air passages, stops droppings in the throat and permanently cures Catarrh and Hay Fever. 26c. blower free. Accept no substitutes. All dealers or Educacian. Extended for Educacian Review of Educaci