THE SKILL-KING CASE.

The Minister of Justice has been sharply criticised for the exercise of One is not competent to judge of the minister's action without scrutinizing the literature, or knowing whether there were extenuating circumstances. Some of the books were classics, such as the Decameron, Burton's translation of the Arabian Nights, and the writings of Rabelais, which may be found in many public and private libraries, but the other volumes were dangerous trash, if the titles are a clue to the contents. A number of Conservative contemporaries, however, could question in party politics. They were not aware at the time that Mr. For, division of the road. Attorney-General of Ontario, urged the Minister of Justice to shorten the terms of imprisonment in view of mitigating circumstances. Mr. Foy does not say what the circumstances are, except that the man Skill had previously a good record, but he says that reasons for clemency were turnished by a gentleman holding a rery high position. It may be that Messrs. Aylesworth severer punishment than has been inbut at least the case had no partisan aspect. The Conservative journals that have been belaboring the Minister of Justice now find that they have been striking Mr. Foy over Mr. Aylesserve censure, but they would both journalistic friends.

QUEBEC'S NEW FACTORY LAWS. | Besides, the grant deprives the Gov

One feature of Quebec's new factory law is in the right direction, but it does not go far enough. In the past women and children employed in many factories have been required to work eleven hours a day for five days in the week and five hours on Saturday. The new law reduces the week's work to 58 hours instead of 60. In Ontario it does not require legislation to secure for employees better treatment. As a rule, factories in this province are not open more than nine and a half ily reduce this time.

> York, April 27.-Oscar Hammerstein has abandoned the field of grand opera. Through Samuel Untermeyer, his counsel and his son Arthur. he announced tonight that he rapitu'ated to the exactions of the artistic temperament, which, aided and flattered by competition, now demands salaries which, if paid, mean bank-ruptcy, and if refused means no performances. Both his own and Metropolitan Opera Company face deficits, he said, for the season just closed. Therefore he had concluded that the public here and elsewhere would be better served by one company in the field. E. T. Stoesburg, the panker and horseman, will take the Philadelphia Opera House. Hammerstein retains his Manhattan Opera House here, which he will probably turn over to vaudeville. His contracts for next season pass to the Metropolitan for a cash consideration of $2,000,-

Had Given Up All Hope of Living.

Heart Trouble Cured by Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills.

Mrs. Andrew Savoy, Grattan's, N.B., writes:—"In the year 1905, I was taken sick and did not think I could live any length of time. My trouble was with my heart and people told me that nothing could be done for a case like mine. I consulted the very best doctors, but they could do me no good. For seven weeks I could hardly cross the floor. I had no pain, but was so weak nobody in the world can believe how I felt. I had given up all hopes of living and had given my little girl to my sister-in-law.

"One day a friend came to see me, and calling me by name, said, 'Lizzie, if I were you I would try a dose of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills as they are good for heart trouble.' My husband got me a box, but for two days I was not feeling any better, but on the fourth day my husband said, I believe those pills are doing you good. I was able to say, 'Yes, I feel a good deal better this morning.' He said, 'Well, I will get you another box right away.' I took two boxes and three doses out of the third one, and I was perfectly well and have not been sick since then

"I will never be without them in my home for God knows if it had not been for Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, I would not have been alive now."
