LONDON SQUAD COMPLETE WITH ONLY 2 EXCEPTIONS

Schaeffer and Evans Still Have To Come—Hutchinson Puts In Appearance After Reisling Intended To Release Him-Eckstein and Hoch.

Bill Schaeffer and Evans, the new southpaw, are the only London players who have not yet reported to the club. They are expected in today, though, and should get into uniform probably this afternoon. Schaeffer is coming from Toledo, and Evans from Gioucester City, N. J. Elmer Hoch and Frank Eckstein, the former Galt Wobby Leaguers, arrived yesterday afternoon, having come from Alagara Falls on a motorcycle. They reported the roads a trifle damp in spots, but nevertheless made good time and had adandy trip.

Joe Dunn, who played a good particles to show some real class this seating. Hess consumers the consumer of last season with the local club, arrived last night in time to sit it the dining-room with the other players at the store to show some real class this season.

Don't You Believe Athletics Haven't a Chance Weeding-Out Process -A Great Ball Team Yet.

Now here is an odd baseball club. We have been talking all winter and feeling sorry because of the collapse of the great team of the Athletics and mourning a bit perhaps for its past of a shock to find that it is a team that, after losing two of the greatest pitchers the game has ever known, a marvellous second baseman and the heaviest slugging third baseman of the ountry, is still so good that it figures close up to the leaders.

The truth is Mack's team today figures second to Boston, and so close to Chicago and Detroit that a little luck either way is all the difference. Be-sides that Mack seems to have the best youngsters in the league, and the team, far from being broken, is likely to come right back with pitchers Mack has been developing during the last three years, and hold its own even with Boston. Mack has taken entire charge of the second team of youngsters and paid most of his attention to drillpaid most of his attention to drilling them, leaving the vets to go along as they pleased. He has watched Kopf and Bostick most closely, and it looks as if he will start with Kopf on third, Barry short, Lajole second, McInnis first, with Oldring, Strunk and Murphy with Oldring, Strunk and Murphy in the outfield.

The catching staff is Schang, Lapp. and Thomas, as usual. The main problem will be pitching. In Bressler, Mack has a man who will, in all probability, be one of the greatest of the stars of baseball within the next few years. Possibly this is his He is a worthy successor to Plank and has everything. Pennock is another who never will be a mediocre pitcher. He will either be a great success or a great failure. Oldring is in his last stage as a ball player, and probably must give way soon to a younger man. But good right-handed hitters who can field a bit are hard to find, and Mack needs both Laight and Oldring in the line.
