

High Cost of Smoking Latest Blow Given Poor Old Father

Briars, Meerschaum, Amber All Scarce and Dear, and Even Old Reliable Cornob Has Doubled in Price as a Result of War.

Much has been said about the high cost of living, and also the high cost of dying, but who has ever heard of the high cost of smoking?

This lack of notice is no doubt due to the inherent modesty of "mere man," who despises the wails of those around him, and meekly suffers the high cost in silence.

It is beginning to look, however, as if "poor father" will have to be content with a cornob pipe when he delivers into the depths of his stockings on Christmas morning. If he expects a gold-mounted amber-stemmed briar, he may suffer the woes of keen disappointment.

The reason for "poor father's" predicament is not hard to find. The briar wood used in the bowls of the pipes grows in France and Northern Italy, and the men who were formerly engaged in cutting it are now fighting in the trenches. The factories in France and England, where the bowls were turned, are also depleted of their skilled workers.

Meerschaum Cut Off. Meerschaum, of which some bowls were made, came mostly from Germany, and this, of course, has been cut off, and is apparently unobtainable.

Amber was obtained in Persia, and was under German control to some extent. This is likewise very difficult to obtain.

As an illustration of the trend of prices, one dealer is showing pipes at prices that formerly sold for 25 cents.

"The cost has increased 150 per cent, so the profit is much less than for some time past."

WOMEN ASKED TO RAISE MORE FOR SAILORS' FUND

Committee Appointed to Augment $5,000 Given by City Council.

The ladies of London are making efforts to increase London's contribution to the Saviors' Aid Fund to more than $10,000. The council voted $5,000 on Monday evening, and the committee in charge have decided to enlist the sympathies of the various women's organizations in the city to augment the amount.

Mrs. George S. Gibbons is convenor of the committee, and she has caused circulars to be sent out to all the societies. Mrs. Gibbons will receive donations.

"We are anticipating a liberal response to our appeal," she stated to The Advertiser today. "The object is a very worthy one, and I feel certain that our efforts will net a handsome sum. Bartie, a much smaller city than London, has just given $10,000, and we should not be behind."

The circular is as follows: "Following up the recent appeal of Mr. Fenell, of the Montreal Harbor Commission, who has been pleading so earnestly the cause of the British sailors, this circular is being sent to the several women's societies of the city asking their co-operation in supplementing the grant of the city council."

"The sum voted by the city council was $5,000, and an effort is being made to increase this amount to $10,000, or even more, if possible."

"As this is the first appeal on behalf of the navy—to which Canada owes her national existence—we are sure that the women of London will feel it duty to contribute to give this worthy cause every assistance in their power."

"A committee has been formed, with Mrs. George S. Gibbons as convenor, to whom all contributions should be forwarded."

WHO HAS BABY BUGGY WHICH CAN BE SPARED FOR SOLDIER'S CHILD?

One Badly Needed by Family, Which is Only Getting $8 a Month.

The aftermath of war is becoming apparent in London. A returned soldier's wife, mother of two children, one only three months old, is struggling bravely to keep her home.

The soldier lies in a city hospital and the doctors say that he may get well, but the issue is doubtful. At any rate his right arm is useless, and he will not be able to work for many months, even if then somebody is willing to employ a partially disabled man.

He does not worry if his wife had only herself to care for, but there is his three months old baby, and articles of comfort for it will be hard to secure without the assistance of at least one generous Londoner.

The soldier's wife is a baby buggy. This would lessen considerably the work of the mother, and would mean words to the tiny son of a man who would be the first call of his country. Anyone having a used baby carriage and willing to give it to this needy family, may leave it at The Advertiser office, and it will be forwarded to the mother.

Best Liniment of All Destroys Every Pain But Never Burns

"How thankful we are to get hold of such a wonderful household remedy as 'Nervine,'" writes Mrs. E. P. Lamontagne from her home near Westsaskin, Alberta. "In a faraway section, far away from a doctor or druggist, my family needs a good supply of liniment. Nervine is the best of all. It destroys every pain, but never burns. We use 'Nervine' in a score of ways. If it's rheumatism, aching back, pain in the side, sciatica or stiff neck—you can laugh at them if you have only of Nervine handy. For a headache, toothache or cramp I don't think anything could be more quickly. For a general all-round pain remedy I can think of nothing more valuable and speedy to cure than Nervine."

The above letter is convincing—it tells how reliable and trusty this old-time remedy is. Nervine for forty years has been a household word in Canada. Scarcely a home in Canada you can find without Nervine. Every community has its living examples of the wonderful curative properties of Nervine which will cure pains and aches anywhere in the joints or muscles. It's penetrating, soothing, warming and safe for young and old to use. Get the large, 50-cent family-size bottle; it's the most economical. Small trial size 25c at any dealer's anywhere.

AGRICULTURE DEPT. ISSUES WARNING ON POULTRY RAISING

Wholesale Depletion Not Warranted Under Present Conditions.

The department of agriculture has issued the following:

Judging from the unprecedented heavy deliveries of poultry on the central eastern markets so early in the season, it would appear that farmers and producers generally are not only depleting their flocks unwarrantably, but also rushing them to the market in an unfinished condition. As a result, the current price of chickens is much below normal value at the present time.

England Wants It. With this fact in mind, the department of agriculture has issued the following:

With this fact in mind, the department of agriculture has issued the following:

The presence of pullets and young fowl has been noted in many shipments. This is most unfortunate, considering the price of eggs. The very firm prospect for the profitable marketing of all poultry products points to the necessity of conserving in every possible way all suitable laying and brooding stock. Unless this is done, there will be a little poultry left in a short time on the farms in the central eastern portion of the country. Even though feed is scarce and high, it would pay farmers to finish the birds before offering them for sale, and spread their deliveries over a longer period.

Send the Dressed. Current receipts to date have consisted mainly of live poultry. The season has been unusually early, however, to warrant more liberal shipments of dressed poultry. In light of the fact that there will be a considerable movement of live poultry to Great Britain, it is of the utmost importance that all poultry killed on the farms, in addition to being well-finished, be properly killed and dressed. The British market, in fact, has large markets prepared to take all the poultry that is offered. While killing by dislocation may be preferred by some, the presence of blood in the neck and the resultant discoloration make it unsuitable for storage export purposes.

Proper and complete bleeding is most essential. Sometimes the arteries of the neck are not completely severed, the result being that the carcass takes on a redish appearance. With proper attention to detail, a useful reputation for Canadian poultry can be established on the British market this year. It is of the greatest importance, therefore, that all poultry marketed be well-finished, well-killed and dressed and packed in the most attractive manner possible.
