PRINCE OF WALES IS REAL POLO PLAYER

New York, May 25 .- Polo players practicing at Hurlingham, England, for the coming international matches rewatched the Prince of Wales winging a mallet with no mean result Judging from letters received here the future king might develop into an in-ternationalist were he to devote sufficient time to practice atop a pony. At present he is considered a novice, although a promising one, and is handicapped at one stroke, in the same class as his brother, Prince Henry. That he has the pluck and endurance, however, is shown by the fact that in a recent game the Prince of Wales played four periods, and appeared to enjoy every minute of the scrimmages and rough riding.

Spirited Performance-Distinctive Design

ON the highway or speedway—in the motor show or where-ever motor cars are found—you can pick out the Paige at a glance.

There has always been an individuality of design about Paige cars, which, while in no wise freakish, stamps them with an unquestioned air of distinction and refinement.

The New Series "Glenbrook" five-passenger models show this Paige characteristic in full measure. The artistic craftsmanship of Paige designers is proclaimed in every line.

The motor in the "Glenbrook," too, is distinctly Paige. Its power, speed and endurance—ike that of the Paige 6-66is equal to every emergency of the road.

Yet this spirited performance is obtained in a surprisingly economical manner. Modest fuel and upkeep bills add the final touch of satisfaction to the ownership of one of these truly fine cars

Any Paige dealer will gladly demonstrate any Paige model for you.

The Cost of Uncompleted Calls

The cost of handling a call that we are unable to complete is often as great as where the parties have actually conversed.

Operating labor has been expended and circuit time consumed just as if the party called had been located.

The "Report Charge" covers a portion of this expense. It applies when the person called is not available, or will not talk; or when the right telephone address has not been given and the person called cannot be reached within one hour; or if he refuses

The rate for a "Report Charge" is about one-fourth the "Station-to-Station" rate.

By careful study of your long distance needs, you can ensure profitable use of the service.

Every Bell Telephone is a Long Distance Station.
