THE GREAT STRIKE LEADS TO MORE BLOODSHED.

A Non-Union Man Shoots a Striker Dead-He Narrowly Escaped Lynching-Followed by Ten Thousand Sullen Men-Crowd Charged by the Cleveland, O., July 2.-Bloodshed again marked the trouble at the Brown Hoisting Works this afternoon. One man was shot dead by a non-union man who had attempted to leave the works on his bicycle, and was attacked by a portion of the mob. The police managed to rescue him, but had great difficulty in preventing the lynching of their prisoner. Finally a call for troops was made, and two of the four companies under arms were hurried to the scene. After their arrival the prisoner was loaded into a patrol wagon and locked up in the Central Police Station. The troops reat the time, and some of them were mained on guard, and for a long time killed. The number of civilians vic- a sullen mob of at least 10,000 men re-would be done, the police allowed the mob to follow. At the fourth precinct station a halt was made, and the workmen were sent into the station. Then the and an Apology, Pesides the Punishment of the formed again across the street. At this time the following party was a dense black crowd reaching far down the street. Suddenly the word "charge" was heard, and the police sprang forward. In a moment they were upon the vanguard of the crowd. The latter were dumbfounded. There was a waver, and then all turned and fled, but they were too late to escape punishment. The crowd was panic-stricken. Two cars clocked the way, and men, women and children were packed together in a tight mass, yelling and shrieking. One part broke away and run down the Cleveland and Pittsburg tracks close at hand. Ten of these students have been working at the hoisting works for some time making a practical study of certain mechanical work. Up till to-day they have waited until the non-union men had been escorted away, and then went home unmolested. This afternoon one of them, A. G. Saunders, aged 19, left on his wheel as usual. He was assailed with cries of "scab," and stones were thrown at him, one of which cut a great gash in his head. He fell, and the mob howled "kill the scab." As he rose he drew a revolver and shot Rettger through the heart.
