Growing dustry in B.C.

Product Taking the of the Imported Article,

ents in Picking, Packand Growing the Fruit.

not so much fruit imported as heretofore, the reason local growers are beginning he want and are producing better article. There is also provement in the handling of island fruit, which tells onist reporter yesterday Mr.

art, of Stewart & Co., saids handling more local fruit, and that it was giving every Fruit growers now see the picking and packing their lly and or paying more ataking the really good article we to import it—decent dessert, instance. We used to have early all our tomatoes, but ome in from local sources, superior quality. The yield.

Stewart showed the re-Stewart showed the replendid assortment of fruit, growth, including the later growth, including the later erries, and said that there demand for all. Its of the local and Dominus are having the desired larked Mr. Stewart, "and larked Mr. Stewart, "and gaining the advantage of eir advice. There is a much for Al fruit, and as long roduced there will be a de.. We have just shipped a d fruit to Winnipeg, which llent quality. We had four same destination a short that you will see that Britafruit is growing in favor, e, local grown fruit is takee of the imported article, as good—better in some inook for a still better supply duce."

RESTING PLACE. Alfege, Where Victor and Abraham Lie Buried.

k, cob-webbed vaults of St. h, Greenwich, the dust of remains of Lieut.-General n its last resting place. are debris, and the half-nbs of local celebrities. are debris, and the halfmbs of local celebrities.
rrow stone slab, placed in
me feet from the ground,
of where the great soldier inada for England, and in d down his life, lies buried, ion is simple, as he would
had it, "The family vault heral Wolfe, 1759." With ear Holfe, 1759." With d the remains of his father
whose faith in their son
d, whatever reverses befel,
is a begrimed, rather forture, with pretensions totude in spots, and towards tecture in others, which lea that the builders began eas, and then thought bete church has a remarkable site upon which it stands
two edifices previously, dene worship. It is related the inhabitants of Greenthe first of these, Henry King Hal," was baptized,
they year 1718 that the Alfege church was reared,
at time many of the nanave been borne there for
ep. The tottering sexton
t to you with an arr of
the tomb of the famous solton.
he all game?"

incient guardian of an was not cordial, for he interruption to his leisure; grew interested, when he bject of the guest. He biect of the guest. He had interest in the dead the sexton of St. Alfege, he said, bitterly. "There say he ain't buried 'ere. I tell 'e; I knows. Didn't irty year agone?" wer expressed surprise at le statement, and venout humbly that Wolfe considerably over a cene returned, tolerantly.

m. It was this way.
ears agone, the wardens
keys o' the vaults, and me with them. I opened myself, and found three
I Wolfe and his father
y, ay, that's 'ow it were."
y persuasion the old hisreluctantly from his seat.
ere and I'll show 'e, ' he ly.

prened creakingly as he disclosing a short, steep, and beyond blackness, ed caution to be careful, pred and descended, and terwards a tiny flame of terwards a tiny flame of the careful o oped and descended, and terwards a tiny flame of im, taper in hand, waitdank, earthy smell rose ta, and from an about ge whispered noises that old ruins.

It is way, his wavering the massive stone walks. p massive stone walls, be and slime hung tenint inscriptions would moment, in bold relief, nelancholy reminders of 7c were in the cellar of all around us were Ve were in the cellar of all around us were centuries of dead. But not to him, these monulights. He took a sharp and held up his taper. Own stone slab was let the height of a man's the few words which e soldier's resting place. a large figure "3" in rangely incongruous. is my work," said the de. "I put 'em' there ly was inside. Looke'e, this one."

epresented only an in-the tombs, with which he said at last, im-"he returned, slowly, the head. "It was ime. No, there ben't the family around here not as I knows of.

open air, the sexton morial window which d his recollection. It t of several hand-ome lfege church. About go Mr. Fountain, one Semi-Meekly Colonist.

VICTORIA, B. C. TUESDAY, OCTOBER 4, 1904.

FORTY-FIFTH YEAR

REVELATIONS OF GROSS CORRUPTION

Further Corroboration of The Extraordinary State of Affairs Existing in the Yukon Today Under Liberal Rule.

RUSSIAN ROTTENNESS ECLIPSED

Crookedness of Officialdom in Dawson Unparallelled in Its Brazen Effrontery and Shamelessness— Expose of Corrupt Work.

Les Brances (Horselets and Shammannament)

The state of t

Vancouver, B. C., Oct. 1.—A special from Bellingham, Washington, states that Sheriff Thomas and Deputy Likens left for Pleasant valley this morning to arrest a man suspected of being one of the gang who held up the C. P. R. train.

The steamer Fingal arrived this afterncon with the startling news that a big white steamer had run ashore in the fog in the Narrows. Since then several steamers have arrived, but they reported having seen nothing. Search parties have also returned, reporting that they could not find the supposed wreck. The fog is very dense, however, and the search is still being made.

LADY CURZON'S ILLNESS.

CARRIE NATION JAILED

TO PROTECT CIGAR SMOKERS.

day noteworthy absence of news from the East, accompanied by the activity The steamer Fingal arrived this afternoon with the startling news that a big white steamers have arrived, but they reported thaving seen nothing. Search parties have also returned, reporting that they could not find the supposed wreck. The fog is very dense, however, and the search is still being made.

New Westminster, Oct. 1.—(Special)—The provincial, sovenment opened the New Westminster, Oct. 1.—(Special)—The provincial, sovenment opened the New Westminster bridge for traffic, but it is understood that next week no fees will be charged owing to the annual exhibition.

BISHOP BRONDEL'S SUCCESSOR.

Rome, Sept. 30.—The congregation of the propaganda today issued a brief appointing the Rev. John B. Carroll, of the Holy Family milission, Montana, to be Bishop of Helena, in succession to the late Rt. Rev. John B. Brondel.

MINE OWNERS RESTRAINED.

Leadville, Colo., Sept. 30.—Judge Frank M. Owers today issued an injunction against the members of the leadville Mining District Association, restraining the association from proceeding for traffic, but it is understood that next week no fees will be charged owing to the amount exhibition.

Plant The steamer Fingal arrived the report in the Daily Mail despatch from New Chwang that the Russian army has retired to the north of Mukden and reports from Chinese have also returned, reporting that the Rev. John B. Brondel.

MINE OWNERS RESTRAINED.

Leadville, Colo., Sept. 30.—Judge Frank M. Owers today issued an injunction against the members of the leadville Mining District Association, restraining the association from proceeding for traffic, but it is understood that next week no fees will be charged owing to the entered to the north of Mukden and reports from Chinese Sala army has retired to the north of Mukden and reports from Chinese Sala army has retired to the north of Mukden and reports from Chinese Sala army has retired to the north of Mukden and reports from Chinese Sala army has retired to the north of Mukden and reports from Chinese Sala army has retired to the nort

GREATEST TIME OF THEIR LIVES

Wichita, Kas., Sept. 30.—Mrs. Carrie Nation and three other women broke two large plate plass windows in the Mahan Wholesale Supply Company's warehouse at 5 o'clock this afternoon. They were arrested and are now in jail. One man offered bail and it was rejected. He became abusive and he was locked up in an adjoining cell. The women knelt in a circle and have been engaged in prayer most of the time since they were arrested. Mrs. Nation's hatchet was taken from her and one other woman had a hammer and they both demand the return of their weapons, which they claim they cherish.

TYPHOID RAGING.

Notorious Termagant Breaks Windows and With Followers Is Arrested.

New York, Sept. 30.—Greater New York is at present threatened with what may be the worst epidemic of typhold fever in its history. Not only are the beginning of the epidemic the death rate has been so much larger than formerly that the health department is thoroughly alarmed and is bending every effort toward checking the disease.

TO PROTECT CIGAR SMOKERS.

Retirement.

London. Sept. 30.—There is again to-day noteworthy absence of news from the East, accompanied by the activity usual in such cases of rumors concerning the condition of Port Arthur. Correspondents with the Japanese army respent the report in the Daily Mail development.

to fulfill duties that they are imable to perform."

The general opinion expressed in the biographies today is that Sir William Vernon Harcourt never quite get over the action of Mr. Gladstone in selecting a Lord Rosebery instead of him elf as his successor, and since Harcourt gave up the Liberal leadership in the House of Commons after a dispute with the younger premier, he had not taken open part in his party's work.

Winnipeg Oct 1,—F. W. Watts, arrested at Moose Jaw for robbery, may be charged with the murder of Alex. Pliffin, whose body was found magled in the railway yards of that town two weeks.

in the railway yards of that town two weeks ago.

Elaborate ceremonies will be held in connection with the home-coming Sunday of Archbishop Lingevin to St. Boniface from a visit to Rome.

Manitoba's Queen's memorial will be unveiled today by Premier Roblin. All the garrison is ordered out. It is a magnificent statue standing fourteen feet high on a stone pedestal bulls up to twenty feet.

The Canadian Pacific gave $500 to the local council of the Daughters of Empire of Moose Jaw.

driver, were injured.

Ashcroft, Oct. 1.—The regular mail stage which left here yesterday for Bartiags kerville, met with a serious accident near Bridge creek in which Walter Abouse, the Weeks, of Vancouver, and F. Peters, the driver, were injured.

driver, were injured.

Particulars of the accident have not yet been received, but it is said the brakes refused to work when descending a steep grade.

Lena Richmond, the five-year-old daughter of V. Richmond, a C. P. R. watchman at this place, died this morning from the effects of burns received yesterday. The child was playing with matches when her clothing became ignited and she was enveloped in flames when discovered by her father. Mr. Richmond's hands were severely burned in sendenvoring to save the child.

Manila, Oct. 1.—The Filipino St. Louis fair commissioners, who have been visiting the United States, arrived here today from San Francisco, and were electroday from S AFTER BIG SUCCESS

Finest Exhibition Ever Held in the History of British Columbia Brought to a Grand Termination Yesterday Evening.

END OF A MEMORABLE EVENT

Praise on all Sides For the Work of the Executive Who Labored Indefatigably to Achieve Such Splendid Results.

Winnipeg, Sept. 30.—Guy Hawkins, a farm hand from Nova Scotia, working on a farm of A. Pecand, near Carieville, N. W. T., fell into the cylinder of the thresher today and lost one leg, and the other was badly crushed.

 Japanese Victorious

London, Oct. 1.—According to the Morning Post's Shanghai cor-respondent, it is reported there that the Japanese have been vir-

"Liverpool's death rate—39 in 1,000—is more than twice that of London. Much of the difference is due to the extraordinary loss of infantillels 28 z z z z z y loss of infant life in Liverpool—from 107 to 245 in 1,000.

MOVING EASTWARD.