Reuter: A morning glory seed, reputed to be 5,000 years old, has been brought to Baltimore and planted in the garden of Mrs. W. Champion Robinson, in Green Spring Valley. The seed is one of twelve found in the hand of a mummy of a young Egyptian girl which was recently removed to the United States. Ten of the seeds have already been planted, and all of them germinated.

PROTECTION OF FORESTS NOW

Courts Now Giving Severe Sentences to Fire Law Breakers. Jail sentences and heavy fines for causing forest fires are now being applied more frequently by Canadian courts. For the first time on record, an Ontario settler was sent to prison recently for defying the law regarding the taking of precautions before clearing land with fire. His carelessness caused a loss of million of feet of timber. Five New Brunswick sportsmen were fined fifty dollars each for leaving their campfires burning, causing thereby a serious timber conflagration. Heavy fines and jail sentences are also the rule with many Quebec magistrates who are determined to stamp out the prevalent carelessness of the public in regard to forest destruction. Not many years ago, an Eastern Canada farmer set fire to his debris to clear a new patch for potatoes planting and as a direct result burned down enough white pine to have kept the largest Canadian lumber plant supplied for 66 years.

PAINS SO BAD STAYED IN BED

Young Mrs. Becroft Had Miserable Time Until She Took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"Hamilton, Ont.—'I have suffered for three years from a female trouble and consequent weakness, pain and irregularity which kept me in bed four or five days each month. I nearly went crazy with pain in my back, and for about a week at a time I could not do my work. I saw Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound advertised in the Hamilton Spectator and I took it. Now I have no pain and am quite regular unless I overwork or stay on my feet from early morning until late at night. I keep house and do all my own work without any trouble. I have recommended the Compound to several friends.'—Mrs. Betty Becroft, 260 Victoria Ave. N., Hamilton, Ontario.

NEW BRUNSWICK MUNICIPALITIES

Annual Convention Will Be Held In Saint John Next Month.

A Convention of the Union of New Brunswick Municipalities will be held in St. John on the 24th and 25th days of August next. Important matters, such as the administration of the Health Act, highways, the expense and care of offenders under Dominion and provincial statutes at the expense of the municipalities, where fines are paid over to province or dominion, a new municipalities act, uniform accounting, the abolition of school districts and creation instead of one or more county school districts, and draft of general pension bill for municipal employees will be considered.

GOING TO BATHURST.

Charlottetown Guardian: Rev. H. C. Prior, for the past four years pastor of the Summerisle Methodist church, preached his farewell sermon Sunday, July 3. He leaves for his new pastorate at Bathurst, N. B. this week. Rev. Mr. Rice, Mrs. Rice and family have made hundreds of warm friends in Summerisle, and the very best wishes of all will follow them to their new home. Rev. Mr. Morris will become pastor of the Methodist church in August. In the meantime after July 10, the usual two months' union of the Presbyterian and Methodist churches will take place.

Many of the rulers and statesmen of Europe use black blotting paper, in order to guard against the possibility of prying eyes deciphering their correspondence by examining the reflection of the imprint of their writing in a mirror.

First, Doctors — Then a Skin Specialist — Then a bottle of D.D.D.

We shall publish every week for the benefit of skin sufferers in this section, a few words written by Canadian people — some of them of prominence — all hearted stories of relief from terrible suffering. A sentence or two from a letter from J. W. Corne, of Melbourne Ave., Toronto, a man of first standing. "I have been suffering for two years with eczema on the legs and ankles. I had three or four skin doctors, I used a dollar bottle of D. D. D. — that is all. I am perfectly well. If you wish to try a bottle of this Prescription that Mr. Corne found so remarkable, we will guarantee relief on the first bottle, or your money back. Stop that skin doctor, take a dollar bottle of D. D. D. — that is all. I am perfectly well." D.D.D. The Lotion for Skin Diseases. A. McE. McDONALD, Druggist.

The Origin of Heckling.

The art of heckling, or badgering a political candidate with questions and interruptions, is well understood in England. The word, which is also spelled "hackle," was brought over into politics from the tax trade. Prior to the introduction of machinery, hackling was a process carried out by hand. The hackle was an instrument with a wooden base, into which a large number of steel pins were fixed at short distances one from another; these pins projected about four inches through the base, after the style of a hairbrush. The hackler, or heckler, held the flax material firmly in his hand, and drew it through the hackle pins, thereby straightening and splitting the fibre, and at the same time removing the loose fibre known as "tow." Nowadays this process is done by machinery, but the political application of it is still as much used as ever, and every soon finds out what a candidate's made of.

A Reminder.

Mr. Albertson was a very enthusiastic lodge man, spending about five nights out of every seven at various lodge rooms — all of which he had been a member. His wife, who was rather tolerant of the whole business, however, did occasionally get impatient enough to say a few sarcastic things. One night came her chance. For a woman, her husband was a very good fellow, and she was sitting in a rocking chair before the fire which she had made, and reading very busily. For a long time she sat silently watching him, then she asked, "John, what are you reading?" "My ritual," he answered. "Well, I must say," she remarked, "if you had studied your marriage vows as much as you have studied that ritual you would be a model husband."

Destination Known.

An amusing story was once related concerning a prominent stockbroker who had a habit of wandering into the larder at night, when at home, and disposing of anything he found there which tempted his appetite. One morning his wife was discussing the question of the day's luncheon with the maid, and recalling a pudding which they had not been able to finish the evening before, she said, "Do you know where that cold pudding is, Sarah?" "Yes, ma'am," replied the girl, without a smile, "it has gone to the city."

AN EX-CHAMPION.

Sir Ian Colquhoun, who has been entertaining a shooting party at Rose-dun, Luss, is a master of the "noble art of self defence." He was lightweight champion of the army in 1913-14, recently referee at a boxing competition in the Vale of Leven and took part in a three-rounds exhibition bout with Toney Lee, holder of the Lonsdale belt, giving a good account of himself.

MEANEST MAN ON EARTH FOUND.

Kansas City, Mo., July 3.—The meanest white man out of captivity is the husband of a woman who has just told her troubles to W. J. Burke, attorney for the Legal Aid Society. "My husband hasn't worked for months," she said, "but just wastes his time. He is always going to dances and when wanted to go to one the other night, he took the only pair of silk stockings I had and cut the tops off so he could wear them for socks."

DISTINGUISHED VISITOR HERE

Hotel Dieu Hospital Visited by Dr. T. R. Ponton of Vancouver, B. C.

On Friday last, July 1st, Dr. T. R. Ponton of the Vancouver General Hospital, Vancouver, B. C., who has been chosen visitor of Canadian Hospitals, made his official visit to the Hotel Dieu Hospital here. For several years the American College of Surgeons has been working on a program of Hospital Standardization basing their work on surveys of the Hospitals of Canada and the United States and consultations with the administrative bodies governing these institutions. Previous to this year the program has been confined to hospitals of one hundred beds or over, but this year it is extended to those including fifty beds. As a result of these surveys and consultations there has been evolved a "Minimum Standard" for hospitals. This "Minimum Standard" has proved so acceptable in Canada that about half of the hospitals included in the program have complied with it. Arriving on the limited, Dr. Ponton was met at the station by members of the Medical Staff of the Hotel Dieu Hospital, who gave him a hearty welcome. At 1:30 p.m. he repaired to the hospital and after consultation with the Administrative Body began his visitation. He visited the patients' apartments, wards and private rooms, the Surgical Dept., Pathological and X-Ray Laboratories, the Dept. of Dietetics, Maternity Dept., Steam Laundry, and the Room and Record Room. He examined the case records of patients under treatment in the hospital. Each department was investigated and all its details supervised and methods employed in each. The case-records and monthly reports of previous years were also examined.

At 3 p.m. a special meeting of the Medical and Nursing Staffs was held in the Staff-Room of the hospital. At the request of the President, Dr. L. G. Pinault, Dr. Ponton addressed the meeting in part as follows:— President, Doctors, Reverend Sisters and Nurses:— Since my arrival at Campbellton this visit has been full of pleasure and interest. At the request of the balance of the day is carried out, I shall be a busy man. I have had a little talk with Reverend Mother Superior, and by her I had time to get the information necessary to give a splendid report of the hospital from the view point of Standardization. Before I proceed to touch upon the subject of "Standardization," I wish to tell you that your hospital is standard 100 per cent—without deficiencies. While visiting your hospital I may say that I was not a little surprised—the wind knocked out of me, unfortunately I had not provided ammunition to fire. So it will afford you great pleasure, no doubt, to know that your efforts have not been useless and that you have been working on the right lines. Now, having attained the standard required for classification of hospitals, you must not stop there, but work to improve day by day. I know you all.

Now and here we have read about "Standardization," but we will go over the subject as it might prove helpful to you. Recently we have done away with Class A, and B, re Classification of Hospitals. Hospitals are no longer compared, they are considered standard hospitals or are not approved at all. Dr. Ponton then explained the three main points of "Minimum Standard": viz. Case-Records, Staff Organization and Laboratory Facilities, showing how each was essential for the proper care of the patient, the end for which all hospital exist. At the end of his remarks the President, Dr. L. G. Pinault, thanked Dr. Ponton for his address and invited other members of the staff to speak. Dr. Murray replied in a few well chosen words. Dr. Ponton, accompanied by Dr. Pinault and other doctors, spent a few agreeable hours with Dr. H. Laidlaw, one of the oldest members of the staff, at his summer home.

BUTTERMILK AS FOOD.

The health value of buttermilk, which has been put on the list of health refreshments at the House of Commons at the request of two members was described by a London physician who is an authority on diet. "Buttermilk is a beverage which deserves every encouragement, especially as a hot weather drink. Most of the fatty elements are removed in the process of making butter, but a number of other valuable nutritive qualities are left. These become even more valuable when buttermilk is taken with other foods. Thus buttermilk contains a certain amount of casein which will enable one to make a most satisfying meal out of a glass of buttermilk plus a very small amount of meat and potatoes."

"It also has an excess of lactic bacteria, the foes of nearly all the harmful germs in our digestive systems, which give it a slight laxative property. It has a decided acid flavor which makes it a thirst-quencher. As the fats have been extracted during the butter-making process, it has practically no body-heating properties. The casein is valuable because it supplies the repair elements needed to replace the wear and tear of muscular tissue."—Exj.

Ambassadors and members of their official staffs can refuse to give evidence in courts of law. There are several such cases on record, the last being in a French trial in 1898, when military attaches of the German, Spanish and Austrian embassies, who were called upon, one and all claimed immunity.
