55TH BATTALION WILL PASS HERE FOR VALCARTIER TONIGHT

Campbellton Has Made Record By Raising Eighty-Five Recruits When Only Seventy Were Asked For—Lieut. Larzen Joins Train Tonight.

FULL LIST OF LAST RECRUITING

Recruiting for the 55th Battalion has now finished here and Lieut. O. J. Larzen leaves tonight with the balance of his recruits for Valcartier. The special train will pass through Campbellton probably about 9.30 or 10 p. m., and the volunteers will no doubt receive a hearty send off.

While the other towns in the province have been putting forth extra efforts to induce young men to join the ranks, Lieut. Larzen has been quietly working away, and now at the conclusion of his campaign, has the grand total of 85 recruits, when the number asked from this centre was only 70. This is a record unsurpassed by any other town in the province, and speaks well both for the recruiting officer and the young men of this district. All honor to the young men of Campbellton and district, who in such a spirit of patriotism have answered the call of their King and country.

On Saturday morning Lieut. Larzen took down to Sussex
Wilfred Cormier.
John Poirier.
George Gray.
Lucien Levesque.

While in Sussex Lieut. Larzen was highly complimented for his recruiting work and was informed that the result of his work here had been carefully noted at Ottawa, and was the means of giving him and the town of Campbellton a good standing in the regiment.

On Wednesday morning other three recruits were despatched to Sussex, those being

Andrew Adams.
Edward Gallant.
and tonight Lieut. Larzen will join the special train here with the following Jos. LeBlanc.
Adelard Levesque.
Sam Jean.
Alex. Gerrard.

Lieut. Larzen at this time desires to thank all who have assisted him in his work of placing Campbellton high up in the roll of recruiting centres, and wishes to express his gratitude for all the kindnesses received by many who were interested in his work. He especially desires to thank Mr. A. McG. McDonald for his gift of cigars to the men leaving on Saturday morning, and a present that was much appreciated by them. The Lieut. also thanks the Graphic for their work in endeavoring to foster the spirit of recruiting so that our town would make a good showing.

Lieut. Larzen started recruiting here on May 17th, so that he has raised his corps of recruits in a little less than two months.

YACHT WRECKED IN FRIDAY'S STORM

Dr. Sproul's Schooner Wrecked at Cape Rosier.—Two Men are Drowned

Word was received on Tuesday by Dr. Sproul of the wreck of his yacht near Cape Rosier, P. Q. One of the boat hands Octave Cyr, who was drowned was well-known here having been clerk in St. Louis Hotel some time ago.

Our correspondent at Gaspé telegraphs us the following version of the wreck.

Gaspé, Que., July 14.—Boat wrecked off Cape Rosier, Gaspé, Ju. 9th, has been identified as Dr. Sproul's yacht. The description is as follows, length 26½ feet, breadth 9½ feet. Clinker built schooner, one white line, interior painted grey and one row boat painted grey. Gasoline engine from 15 to 20 Horse Power, four cylinders, one pump with name R. McDonald Co., Galt, Canada No. 2 stamped on it, two gasoline tanks one on either side of the engine capable of holding from 20 to 30 gallons apiece, one fox found drowned in its cage, also 25 fox traps. Written inside the vessels in pencil were the following names, Daniel Lapierre, Grand River, A. Boutin, Grand River, Arthur Butler. The wreck occurred as follows. The yacht was seen sailing towards the shore when a mountainous wave struck and disabled her. Two men were seen on deck, the row boat put out to sea manned by one man, but after rowing a little distance the occupant noticed his companion signalling him. He then returned to the yacht and managed to drag his friend into the boat. He again started for the shore, but a huge wave struck and overwhelmed the frail craft. Nothing else was seen for a long while and the boat was washed ashore a little later empty. It is reported by eye witnesses that if the man had continued on his first journey he would have been saved, but returning to rescue his companion and losing his life in the attempt, was a heroic deed. He gave his life for his friend, the greatest deed a man can do. On July 10 the body of a man supposed to be Anse Cyr, Maria, was washed ashore. He was stripped bare of all apparel, excepting his boots and necktie, which was still around his neck. The above victim was six feet tall, weighed about 180 pounds, fair hair and blue eyes.

Another Account.
Grand Greve, July 14th.—A sad drowning accident occurred at Cap des Rosiers during the storm of July 9th. A large unknown motor boat was driven ashore, both the occupants losing their lives. One of the bodies was found on the beach next morning and taken to Wm. Fruing's store, where it remained until burial. Coroner Jones, of Gaspé was notified and at the inquest held on the 13th, the body was still unidentified. Telegraphic enquiries were sent all along the Baie des Chaleurs coast with no result. Body was interred at Anse a Louise R. C. cemetery on Tuesday, July 13th.
