ember of the British association town yesterday morning to buy a hat. He wanted a regulation Regent tile, and hunted all over town to find the correct thing. When he reached the corner of King and Yonge streets he paused. Dineen's window attracted his attention. He had not seen its equal since he left the British metropolis. He went in, bought a hat and on his return to the Rossin was greeted by his fellow travelers with the remark, "Aw, Charlie, my boy, new tile, eh; pon me soul you look nobby, regular Oxford street style, ye know." And Charlie went to Niagara the best dressed man in the party. Buy your hats at Dineen's.—Adv.

NOTICE TO LADIES.

On the 10th inst., at 8 p.m. I intend making one of the grandest displays of Ladies and Gent emen's Fine Furs ever shown in Toronto. The floors and carpets of my extensive store will e covered with Seal Skins, the walls with skins of all fur bearing animals. The exhibit of Fancy Robes will be something grand and that of Ladies' Seal Manties, Dolmans and Fur Lined Garments will far excel anything that ever has been shown to the citizens of Toronto and surrounding country; 3000 pieces Indian cunsities will be given away each lady receiving a present. No goods will be seld during the evening of Exhibition. Police will be stationed through the building to maintain order. Private detectives will be at hand for the protection of the public. Boys under 15 years of age not admitted.

An orchestra has been engaged and will play choice a ections during the evening.

I being the only first-class practical furrier in busines and any in the city of Toronto, the public main selly on seeing first-class goods.

Busines a stablished in 1815 by my father, the late Joseph Rogers.

) AY'S BUSINESS COLLEGE,

Established 1862, will be REOPENED on MONDAY, Sept. Ist next. This College is a thoroughly practical business school. A large number of its graduates and members are occupying responsible positions in Canada and the United States on their own as well as on others account, and by the satisfactory manner in which they discharge their duties, plainly evince the great benefit to be derived by pursuing a systematic course of instruction in accounts and business practice, under the supervision of a practical accountant and a man of business experience, before entering into mercantile life; and to which all, both principals and employees, give their unqualided assent and endorsement. All who require business training are requested to make inquiries as to the high reputation the Principal of this College has established, and still maintains by the thoroughness of his work. For terms address JAMES E. DAY, accountant. College Rooms, opposite Royal Opera House site, Toronto.
