

Sudden Death of Lord Dufferin.—A considerable sensation was created in Belfast on Wednesday, on the arrival of the Reindeer steamer, from Liverpool, on account of the sudden death, on board, of Lord Dufferin. His Lordship complained of indisposition on leaving Liverpool on Tuesday night, and directed the steward of the steamer to bring him a dose of Morphine, which he swallowed on going to bed. During the night he breathed heavily in his sleep; and at seven o'clock on Wednesday morning, he was observed still asleep. At nine a. m. he was found dead in his sleeping berth. His sister, the Hon Mrs. Ward, was on board. This is the third death of persons holding the title of Baron Dufferin and Claneboye, within less than five years, and there are now alive three Baronesses of that name. The late Lord Dufferin was born on the 6th May, 1794; and on the 4th July, 1825, he married Selina, one of the daughters of Thomas Sheridan, Esq., and grand daughter of Richard Brinsley Sheridan. There is issue one son, Frederick, aged about fifteen years, heir to the title and large estates of Dufferin and Claneboye.—Irish Paper.

TEMPERANCE.—Halifax.—The very large Society connected with St. Mary's continues to increase. A fund for the relief of the sick members has been formed. It numbers between 3000 and 4000 members. The Halifax Temperance Society has got up to 900. This is excellent. All of St. Mary's, and nearly all of the "Halifax" Society, are under the Total Abstinence pledge. The public generally, has a deep interest in all such advances of public economy of morals.—Novascotian.

There is no quality which commands more respect than integrity; none more freedom and independence than economy; these with industry are all that a man needs to depend upon; and should you make them the rules of your conduct, you must be successful, while without them you never can.—He who depends upon continued industry and integrity, depends upon patrons of the most exalted kind. They are the creation of fortune and fame, and never will disappoint or desert you.

G., Lord Lieutenant of Sussex, &c. &c. The History of Newspapers and of Periodical Literature, in general, remains to be written, and were the task executed by an individual of competent ability, and with due care, it would be a most interesting and important work.—McCulloch's Commercial Dictionary.

"The Newspaper is the chronicle of civilization, the common reservoir into which every stream pours its living waters, at which every man may come and drink: it is the Newspaper which gives to liberty its practical life—its constant observation—its perpetual vigilance—its unrelaxing activity. The Newspaper is a daily and a sleepless watchman, that reports to you every danger which menaces the institutions of your country, and its interests at home or abroad. The Newspaper informs legislators of public opinion, and it informs the people of the acts of legislation; thus keeping up that constant sympathy, the good understanding between people and legislators, which conduces to the maintenance of order, and prevents the stern necessity for revolution."—Sir E. F. Estlin.

DOCTOR SPHON'S SICK HEADACHE REMEDY.

FOR the permanent cure of this distressing complaint, never fails. When evered in, it effectually renovates the system, and drives away the causes of the SICK & NERVOUS HEADACHE. Thousands have tried it, and found precisely the relief which the article promises to bestow. Certificate of the strongest kind, and from the most respectable persons, are in the possession of the proprietor, some of which have been published, testifying to the permanent cure, and others of the immediate relief given by the remedy. It affords relief to the afflicted in 15 or 20 minutes from the first dose. It taken when the symptoms of an attack are first felt, it prevents the further progress of the complaint, and can produce no danger at any time by an excessive dose; as in such a case it would only throw off the contents of the stomach, leaving it sweet and healthy with an excellent appetite. All afflicted with headache should not fail to procure the article, and relieve themselves from so distressing a complaint. Physicians have in many instances given it to their patients, and in every instance, to our knowledge, with great satisfaction have found it a certain cure. Sick and Nervous Headache is a complaint with which physicians do not wish to have any thing to do, and generally prescribe only for temporary relief; consequently Dr. Sphon's Sick Headache Remedy escapes the opposition which some other proprietary articles meet from that source. Try it once and you never will regret it. It is composed entirely of vegetables, and contains no mineral, or poisonous drug of any kind, and does not require any change of diet or exercise.

Sold wholesale and retail by Comstock & Co. Wholesale Druggists, 2 Fletcher Street N. Y., and by the principal Druggists in the Union, Sold here by Dr. McSTAY, Saint Andrews.
From the Boston Chronicle, Jan. 10.
"We see by an advertisement in another column that Messrs. Comstock & Co. the Agents for Oldridge's Balm of Columbia, have deputed to sell that article in Boston and elsewhere.—We know a lady of this city whose hair was so nearly gone as to expose entirely her phrenological development, which, considering that they betokened a most amiable disposition, was not in reality very unfortunate. Nevertheless she assumed the look of locks that she had none, and, after a year's fruitless sort to, mis-called restoratives, purchased, some months ago, a bottle or two of Oldridge's Balm, and she has now ringlets in rich profusion, glossy, and of raven blackness. We are not puffing—none of the commodity has been sent to us, and, indeed we do not want any, for though we were obliged to wear a wig a year ago, we have now, through its virtue, hair enough, and of a passable quality, to cut our own.

DARING FRAUD.
The Balm of Columbia has been imitated by a notorious counterfeiter. Let it never be purchased or used unless it have the name of L. S. COMSTOCK & CO. on a splendid wrapper. This is the only external test that will secure the public from deception.
Address, COMSTOCK & CO. Wholesale Druggists.
Sold by Dr. McSTAY, Saint Andrews.

TO THE BALD HEADED.
This is to certify, that I have been told about twenty years, and by the use of the genuine BALM OF COLUMBIA, my head is now covered with hair. I shall be happy to convince any one of the fact that will call and see me at Delhi village. The above article I bought at Griswold, Case & Co's store, who had it from Comstock & Co.
JOHN JAQUISH, Jr.
Delhi, July 17, 1839.—Sold by Dr. McSTAY, Saint Andrews.

DR. BARTHOLOMEW'S PINK EXPECTORANT SYRUP.

THE cases of consumption are so numerous in the north, that it is a common remedy as a preventive should be kept by every family constantly on hand, to administer in the first appearance of so direful a disease. This Expectant Syrup will in every case prevent the complaint.—It is quite impossible for any person, so to have consumption, who will use this remedy on the first approach of cough and pain in the side, and in many instances it has cured when physicians had given up the cases as incurable.
Sold wholesale and retail by Comstock & Co. Wholesale Druggists, 2 Fletcher Street N. Y., and by Dr. McSTAY, Saint Andrews.

JUDGE PATTERSON.
Read the following from Judge Patterson, for thirty years the first Judge of the County in which he lives.
Middleton, N. J., March 12, 1840.
Messrs. Comstock & Co.
Gentlemen—You are at liberty to make such use of the following certificate as you deem will best subserve the purposes for which it is intended.

[CERTIFICATE OF JUDGE PATTERSON.]
I hereby certify that my daughter has been afflicted with sick headache for the space of about 20 years, the attacks occurring once in about two weeks, frequently lasting 24 hours, during which time the paroxysms have been so severe, as apparently soon to deprive her of life. And after having tried almost all other remedies in vain, I have been induced as a last resort to try Sphon's Headache Remedy as sold by you; and to the great disappointment and joy of myself and all her friends, found very material relief from the first dose of the medicine. She has followed up the directions with the article, and in every case when an attack was threatened has found immediate relief, until she is now permanently cured. The attacks are now sold, and disappear almost immediately after taking the quantity directed. A hope that others may be benefited by the use of this truly invaluable medicine, has induced me to send you the above, and remain your obedient servant.
Jehu Patterson.
Judge of the Court of C. P.
Sold by Dr. McSTAY, Saint Andrews.

LOOK OUT!
"CAUTION" is the Parent of Safety.

AN ATTACK OF THE "PILES" may be positive prevented by using (when the premonitory symptoms are felt) the celebrated HAYS' LINIMENT. There are more than one hundred people in this city, and in the United States an immense number, who have suffered beyond endurance by this dreadful complaint, who keep themselves wholly free from attacks by applying this Liniment when they feel any symptoms of its approach: of this there is the most perfect proof.
"None Genuine without the name of Comstock & Co. written on the wrapper."
SOLOMON HAYS.
Sold at No. 2 Fletcher Street, N. Y. and by Dr. McSTAY, Saint Andrews.

HEWES' NERVE AND BONE LINIMENT.

THIS article is offered to the public as a never failing cure for the Rheumatism, and it has for a number of years sustained its reputation, and accomplished cures of the most obstinate cases of every other article. In acute and recent cases, the relief is invariably, after one or two applications of the Liniment, and in chronic Rheumatism, the cases of cure are numerous. It is truly a remedy for the nerve and bone with the most happy effect.
Sold wholesale and retail by Comstock & Co. Wholesale Druggists, 2 Fletcher Street N. Y. and by Dr. McSTAY, Saint Andrews.

HAVE YOU A COUGH?—Do not neglect it!—Thousands have met a premature death or the want of a little attention to a common cold.
Have you a cough?—Rev. Dr. Bartholomew's Expectant Syrup, a safe medical prescription containing no poisonous drugs, and used in an extensive practice for several years, will most positively afford relief, and save you from that awful disease, pulmonary consumption, which awfully sweeps into the grave, hundreds of the young, the old, the fair, the lovely and the gay.
Have you a cough?—Be persuaded to purchase a bottle of this Expectant Syrup today! Tomorrow may be too late.
Have you a cough? Bartholomew's Expectant Syrup is the only remedy you should take to cure you.
For this plain reason:—That in no one of the thousand cases where it has been used, has it failed to relieve.
For sale at the drug store of Comstock & Co. 2 Fletcher Street, near Pearl, and at nearly all respectable Drug Stores.—and Dr. McSTAY, St. Andrews.

ASK, INQUIRE—ASK THOSE WHO KNOW.

THOSE ONLY WHO KNOW BY TRIAL, and immediate observation, can form any idea of the effects, of the perfect relief, of the almost charm like cures effected in cases of the PILES, RHU MATISM, ALLI, SWELLINGS, and ALL EXTERNAL PAINS, no matter how severe, by the use of Hays' Liniment. Find one who has used it that will not tell it above all things ever used, and you will find what cannot be found.
For the relief of suffering human beings who may be afflicted, I beg you to ask—ask of those who know—ask MATTHEW J. MYERS, Esq. Athens N. Y.; ask Gen. DUFF GREEN, late of Washington city, each of these gentlemen know of cases unnumberable by all other remedies or physicians, though tried for many years, that have been cured by the use of the genuine HAYS' LINIMENT.—Thousands of other persons know similar cures.—We appeal to their sense of justice—their human feelings.

It is but a duty you owe to your suffering fellow beings to let this great remedy be known. Speak of it then to all your friends. This will save much pain where the newspapers are not read, or where readers are incredulous, because so many worthless articles are advertised for the same purpose. To buyers we say, if all who have used it do not say it is beyond all praise, then do not take it. The proprietor will not allow this article to be paid for in cure, when all the directions are fully followed. Will any one suffering refuse now to try it? If he does he ought to be pitied more for his obstinacy than his suffering.

Mr. Hays would never consent to offer this article, were he not compelled by his sense of moral duty—of religious duty—to do all in his power for the victims of distress and misery. For this purpose he would sooner devote a fortune, than secure a dollar for any worthless article.
LOOK OUT.—Some counterfeiters have counterfeited this article, and put it up with various devices. Do not be imposed upon. One thing only will protect you—it is the name of COMSTOCK & CO.; that name must be always on the wrapper, or you are cheated. Do not forget it. Take this direction with you, and testify that, or never buy; for it is impossible for any other to be true or genuine.
SOLOMON HAYS.
Sold by COMSTOCK & Co. 2 Fletcher Street, New York, and Dr. McSTAY, Saint Andrews.

WHO WILL GO BALD?

Read the following:—
ROBERT WHARTON, Esq. late Mayor of Philadelphia, has certified, as may be seen below, to the high character of the following gentlemen.
The undersigned do hereby certify that we have used the Balm of Columbia discovered by J. Thad. ridge, and have found it highly serviceable not only as a preventive against the falling off of hair, but also a certain restorative.
WM. THATCHER, senior, Methodist Minister in St. George charge, No. 86 North Fifth Street.
John P. Inglis, 331 Arch Street,

Hugh McCurdy, 243 South 7th Street,
John Gard, Junior, 123 Arch Street.

The aged, and those who persist in wearing wigs, may not always experience its restorative qualities, yet it is a certain remedy in its virtues in the estimation of the public, when it is known that three of the above signers are more than 50 years of age, and the others not less than 30.
[From the Mayor.]
Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.
