SUGGESTS BATHS AS BEST REMEDY FOR TIREDNESS

Kansas City, Mo.—The "tired business man" isn't tired; he doesn't know how to take a bath.

So said Albert Edwards, Wiggam author of "The New Decisions of Science," when he passed through here on his way to Hot Springs, Kans.

"If the tired man would learn how to take a bath he would make a new man out of himself. Hot baths are debilitating and cold ones are only stimulating. The proper temperature is the body temperature," Wiggam said.

"Baths of from 20 minutes to 5 hours duration are not too long. They should be taken as often as possible."

THE COST OF LIVING.

The cost of living is only about 62 per cent higher than it was before the war, according to economists. In other words, you can buy as much for $1.62 as you could for $1. in 1914.

It may be that your bills for basic foods, rent, clothing, necessities, etc., are only 62 per cent higher than before the war. And that by spending $1.62 you can buy as much as you formerly could for $1.

POPPY DAY.

In Flanders fields the poppies blow Between the crosses, row on row.

The distribution of Veteran Poppies as the "Flower of Remembrance" for the year on Armistice Day will amount to one million poppies.

Made by your disabled comrades in Veteran and Red Cross workshops in the principal cities across Canada.

The distribution of Veteran Poppies provides a fitting means of creating funds to assist the need, and the dependent, Commercial competition may offer poppy replicas at lower prices than the disabled veterans can make them for.

SKIRTS GROWING SHORTER; PLAIDS MORE PRONOUNCED.

Plaids everywhere and shorter—oh! very much shorter—skirts. Some of them come just below the knee, some within its fiery brilliance has had, or a response in a replica of colors so interesting in design and combination as to appeal to every sort of fashion complex.

These near knee length skirts might be called kitties, so like Scottish regulations are they. So fetching in costume. And kiltie skirts call for kiltie footwear; slippers neatly fashioned, snug fitting and early decorated with plaid corduroy to harmonize with the ensemble.

Shops in New York, London and Paris are now showing colors, plaids and harmonious accessories arranged in Scottish fashion, with kiltie slippers in the lead.

SMUGGLING AS A NATIONAL MENACE.

Owing to the fact that during the past 12 months goods to the value of approximately $50,000,000 were smuggled into Canada with an estimated loss of $15,000,000 to the Federal treasury.

In preparation between the Customs Department and the different business interests affected. Smuggling has reached such high proportions it is stated in official circles as to constitute a real national problem.

AMERICAN JUDGE GIVES ADVICE.

Judge Graham of San Francisco divorce judge for twenty years advises men and women about to marry. Here is his list of matrimonial don'ts for women:

Never marry a man who does not read the sport section of the newspaper. Young fellows who profess no interest in manly, outdoor athletic sports are not apt to be interested in anything or anybody but themselves.

Never marry a man who plays cards for money. Love for games of chance is almost certain to supplant all other loves, greater than love for home, wife and children.

Never marry a man who says he has no bad habits. He is pretty sure to have a vice much worse than smoking or even drinking. If he's of the "holier than thou" variety he soon will become a pest.

Never marry a man whose parents are most unreasonably. It is court history that 65 per cent of all divorces end in the divorce courts.

Never marry a man who says he does not care for children. He's an unnatural selfish man and not to be trusted.

Never marry a man because he is a good dancer. Perhaps that is the only thing he can do well. Men who have intelligent feet seldom have anything in their heads.

Never marry a man who detests dogs. If you do, you'll find he is incapable of loving anything, even himself. Something is wrong with that sort of man.

Never marry a man who drinks on the sly. If he isn't fair and square in that subject, he'll deceive you and cause you many a heart break on other accounts. The "silent drinker" never makes a good husband. He can't.

Never marry a man who speaks slightly of your parents or of old people. He's not the man for any woman. He'll neglect you when you begin to get wrinkled and gray.

Never marry until you are old enough to know what you are doing. Sixteen year old brides too often are 17 year old grass widows.

Perils of the Male. Never marry a girl who has lily white hands when her mother's are calloused and roughened by hard work. That girl won't be a good helpmate.

Never marry a girl who wants you to take her to a show every night and is never content to let you "sit up" with her in her own home. She's not the type that will make a home for you.

Never marry a girl who keeps her room or the parlor littered with signed photographs of former or present beaux. She's a collector of heart throbs and she, more than likely, won't stop flirting after she marries you.

Never marry a girl who is ashamed of her parents and does not want you to meet them. She's the wrong sort of girl for any man. She'll keep you broke.

Never marry a girl whose only thought is clothes. If that is the calibre of her brain she'll never be a real wife or mother. Always she will be a clothes hanger and she'll keep you broke.

Never marry a girl who insists that you take her to places of amusement that are beyond your means. If she is that thoughtless before marriage, she will not bother about your financial affairs after your marriage.

Never marry a girl who is impatient in her dress. No man wants to blush because of his wife's appearance. And never marry a girl who is slovenly and untidy. That, in a short time, will kill even the most ardent love.

Never marry the promiscuous kisser. She'll cause you lots of grief and heart pangs later on.

Never marry a girl several years older than yourself or many years younger. The difference in ages will cause many a "spat" later on and "spats" are the harbinger of alimony.

And never marry a girl who is not fond of children. That sort of girl is not natural. Childless homes, except in unusual cases, are not enduring.

Prince of Wales' "Little Grey Home in the West"
