

IN THE SHADOWS.

I was not the only one, I know,
But my heart was racked so sore—
Methought there were few indeed below
To need thy comfort more!

The heart and flesh go ever down—
Downward to meet the sod :
But the soul thou liftest to its crown,
Communion with its God !