

ings not such as would be likely to develop the finer feelings of the man, or those higher principles of justice which secure the honor and respect of his fellow-men. In spite of these disadvantages, he stands forth, in many respects, a bright example for the more favored of our race. Brant was a high-minded, large hearted, philanthropic man, whose memory, not only the Indian, but also the "pale face" will long continue to honor and revere.

*Catharine (Mrs. John) will be remembered by most of our Brantford friends as the last remaining child of the celebrated Brant. Mrs. John had four children, all of whom died many years ago. In old age she presented a queenly bearing; tall and handsome, a fine specimen of the pure Aborigine. She died in the home of her childhood, at Wellington Square, after a brief illness, on the 31st January, 1867, and was buried in the old Mohawk graveyard, close to the tombs of her valiant father and other relatives.

†Elizabeth was married in 1828, at the Mohawk Church, to William Johnson Kerr. Esq. son of the late Dr. Robert Kerr, and grandson of Sir William Johnson. Mrs. Kerr, died in April, 1844, at Wellington Square, leaving four children, viz., Walter, Joseph, Kate and Simcoe.
